

TWO AMERICANS ON LIST OF LOST

14 of Arabic's Passengers Missing.

DISPATCHES ARE CENSORED

Rumors of Other Ships Sunk Heard in New York.

FEAR FOR LAPLAND FELT

Bovic, Early Reported Torpedoed, Is Said to Be Safe—New York City Destroyed, but Captain and Crew of 53 Are Landed.

DEVELOPMENT OF DAY'S SUBMARINE ACTIVITY. Passengers missing from Arabic estimated at 14; two Americans unaccounted for; probably 49 of crew lost. Fears felt for Red Star liner Lapland. Bovic, reported sunk, now said to be safe. New York City sunk Thursday; captain and crew of 53 land in Queenstown. Nicotian, of Leyland line, bound from New Orleans, reported lost; she was known to be due in war zone. Arabic believed not to have been under convoy. Other vessels sunk by submarines: Spanish steamer Perla Castillo, 1928 tons; Norwegian steamer Sværresberg, 674 tons; Norwegian steamer Brax, 1351 tons, and following British steamers: Baron Brackne, 5345 tons; Restormil, 2113 tons, Samara, 3172 tons; Gladford, 2339 tons; Ben Brackie, 2898 tons; Bittern, 1797 tons.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—A revised list of the surviving passengers and those unaccounted for, corrected according to the only dispatch received by the White Star line today, was given out tonight. It showed 14 passengers still missing, after careful checking. The list included two Americans—Mrs. Josephine I. Bruguiere and Edmund F. Wood. Messrs. Houlahan and Elmore, dispatches received by the State Department last night said, were among the saved. They previously had been reported missing. Lists Are Revoked Again. White Star lists cabled last night contained the names of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burgess as among the survivors. Officials were unable to explain the error if, according to consular reports, they are missing. Burgess, a chauffeur, and Mrs. Burgess, a maid, were in Mrs. Bruguiere's employ.

RED-EYED VIREO IN OREGON

EUGENE, Or., Aug. 20.—(Special.)—A song bird, heretofore unknown in the State of Oregon, but common east of the Rocky Mountains, the red-eyed vireo, was found by A. C. Shelton, field worker of the department of zoology at the University of Oregon, during his survey in the Rogue River Valley and the north spur of the Siskiyou Mountains. Only three or four times has this bird been found in the West. Mr. Shelton brought back among 220 specimens of birds, animals and reptiles collected during his six weeks' trip.

DOUBT OF ARABIC CONVOY IS FELT

Effort Made to Learn if Vessel Was Protected.

Receiver Franklin Agrees Armed Guard Would Have Justified Attack Without Warning. NEW YORK Aug. 20.—P. A. S. Franklin, receiver of the International Mercantile Marine Company, endeavored to learn by cable whether the Arabic was convoyed. The significance of an armed convoy, he said, was such that an entirely new aspect would be placed on the incident should it be established, as some reports have intimated, that a British warship was conveying her or had been conveying her a short time before the torpedo was fired. Failing to obtain an answer to his inquiry, Mr. Franklin examined the newspaper reports and declared it his belief that the steamship had not been convoyed.

Did Arabic Try to Ram Submarine? Is Asked.

NAVAL OFFICERS DOUBT

Big Vessel's Chance Against Underwater Craft Declared Small and Liner With Passengers Aboard Would Avoid Risk.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Tension increased in official quarters tonight when consular messages forwarding affidavits of American survivors of the British liner Arabic brought definite information that the vessel was torpedoed without warning and that probably some Americans had been lost. It seemed that but one point remained to be cleared up—whether the Arabic attempted to ram the submarine or whether a change of the liner's course to assist the already sinking British steamer Dunley nearby was misinterpreted by the German submarine commander as a hostile approach.
