BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Walt McCredie worked harder than a man with a pulmotor yesterday, but four pitchers combined couldn't check Salt Lake. The visitors made it three games out of four by a score of 4 to 3.

Coveleskie, then Krause, Evans and Kahler in turn were sent out to the pitching mound, and while there was nothing particularly wrong with any of the quartet, McCredie wasn't in a mood to take any chances. Hence, the hetacomb of hurlers.

Eleven hits the Salt Lakers amassed off the locals while Portland was scratching for a meager four. Jack Killilay had his fast one hopping and spitting fire like forked lightning. The ex-Seal-Oak was yanked in favor of a pinch hitter in the eighth, but this didn't help matters any.

Blankenship sent out Southpaw Williams as relief and Williams proceeded to add to his great whiffing string by fanning five of the six men who faced him.

Beavers Have Game Won Once.

For two innings toward the middle of the game, Portland was ahead, 3-1, as a result of hits by Carlisle, Speas and Lober, and errors by Buddy Ryan and Bunny Brief. Brief atoned for his miscue, however, by whacking a two-bagger into left center in the seventh inning, scoring Quinlan and Shinn. Quinlan was on from a walk and Shinn from a double.

Exit Mister Left-Hander Krause in favor of Left-Hander Evans. Score tied, 3-3.

Evans pitched good ball and it seems a pity to have to give him the defeat. After Orr's single through short in the eighth, Ray Bates made a bad peg to first, and this let down the bars. A moment later Stumpf threw low to the plate on a double steal and allowed Orr to score the winning tally.

Hillyard batted for Evans in the eighth and this accounts for Kahler's appearance on the mound for Portland in the final frame. To anyone who claims familiarity with the foibles and weaknesses of Dave Hillyard it is unnecessary to expatiate, but, for the others—well, alas and alack, the big horticulturist whiffed again.

2000 Fans See Contest.

It was ladies' day. Despite the warmth of the atmosphere about 2000 fair fans mingled with the few of the nobility who paid to enter. Out on the field the thermometer showed close to 100 degrees, and, on a couple of occasions, one midway down Cliff Blankenship's collar would have shot up to 150 degrees Fahrenheit.

Cliff had an awful grouch on against Umpire Toman after a couple of close decisions at first base. As neither one affected the score, we will remain neutral for the time being. However, the one on Speas in the fourth inning did look rather sour from the press box—a good vantage point—only about several hundred feet from the scene of the argument.

Coveleskie likely will be sent back at Salt Lake today because the Bees always have been easy for him. The Pace hurt his arm yesterday in the second inning and quit in favor of Krause. Southpaw Williams may come back for Salt Lake, but the chances are Blank will save him for Sunday. Breton, new third sacker, arrived from Chicago and joined the Bees yesterday. Breton may break in this week, supplanting Eddie Hallman. Score:

COOPER IS VICTOR; OLDFIELD IS THIRD

American-Made Car Covers 75 Miles an Hour in Great Elgin Road Race.

GIL ANDERSON IS SECOND

Chicago Automobile Club Trophy Passes to Other Than Favorite, Ralph De Palma, Whose Record Per Hour Is Smashed.

ELGIN, Ill., Aug. 20.—The Chicago Automobile Club trophy, for which nine drivers entered over the Elgin course, was won today by Earl Cooper. The time for the 301 miles established a new record for the course. The previous record of 73.5 miles was made by De Palma. The finish follows:

Driver	Elapsed Time	Time per hr.
1—Cooper	4:01:32	74.97
2—Anderson	4:06:04	73.83
3—Oldfield	4:09:35	72.48
4—Alley	4:14:29	71.16
5—O'Donnelle	4:15:40	70.83
6—Jutsen stripped gear at 92 miles.
7—Henderson flagged at 184 miles.
8—De Palma withdrew at 176 miles.
9—Jutsen stripped gear at 92 miles.

De Palma was the favorite at the start, and held the lead for the first 50 miles, when he broke a rocker arm. He laid up at the pit for more than an hour while the part was being replaced, and started again, although hopelessly beaten. Finally, seeing that the pursuit was hopeless, he dropped out to save his motor for the race tomorrow.

De Palma's mishap left the race between Cooper and Anderson, both driving the same make of American car. This pair was never more than a few seconds apart, but Cooper finally drew into a safe lead when Anderson's car lost a trifle of its speed. Barney Oldfield drove a consistent race. In midrace he drew into third position and stayed there.

No one was injured.

Tomorrow 14 cars are expected to start in the Elgin National trophy race. The distance is the same as today, but there is no limitation on piston displacement.

Sidelights and Satire

VIC M'LAGLEN, who used to box around in Portland about seven years ago, has changed his name to Victor McLoughlin and is now England's white hope. Recently at London Vic won from Dan McGoldrick, a Scotch boxer, and, as an official of the National Sporting Club is managing Vic, there is talk of a bout with Bombardier Wells. Vic once boxed Jack Johnson as the cinder was returning from winning the championship in Australia. The bout took place at Vancouver, B. C., and Johnson knocked him down so often that the fans thought he was a toy trick box. Later McLaglen got on the Orpheum circuit with his brother in a physical culture act and was through Portland about three years ago.

Chick Evans won the Western championship recently at Cleveland with a borrowed set of farming implements. Chick didn't think he could get away until a few minutes before train time and then he had no time to get his own sticks.

"Somebody lend me a set of tools," he said when he jumped off the train at Cleveland.

"Thanks," murmured Chick at the end of play. And he hurried back to Chicago with the title all safe.

Chief Meyer, the New York Indian catcher, is a former Dartmouth College student, and Red Dooin, of the same team, is a bright fellow. On the other hand, Rube Schauer, one of the Giants' young pitchers, quit school shortly after learning his three R's.

A few days ago Dooin was working with Schauer and he noticed that the youngster's style of delivery was rather crude.

"Pitch more nonchalantly," yelled Dooin.

"Huh?" shouted Schauer.

"Pitch more nonchalantly."

"Say, what does he mean?" asked Schauer of Meyers, who was standing close by.

"Pitch more blase, you busher," retorted the Indian.
