Beginning today the participation committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce will begin its work of calling on merchants in relation to "Dollar day." The committee will be the missionaries of new business, the men who will point the way for enlarg-ing trade and making the advantages of Portland familiar to her own mer-of Purtland familiar to her own mer-chants.

It is believed that the task of inter-esting the buyers of Purtland and in-terurban territory will be easier. The hargain hunter is always on the job, the committeemen say.

"What we are after right now is to line up every merchant of the city, so that bargains will be displayed in every window on or before September 22," was the declaration of C. J. Eng-lieb, chairman of the Retall Mer-chania Bureau.

chairman of the Retail Mer-chanta' Bureau.

This town is going to have a Christmas tree effect when all the bar-mains are lined up, and the beauty of it will be that each and every one of them will cost just exactly one dol-lar."

Early Response Is Good.

Great encouragement came to the members of the participation commit-tee yesterday, when several jobbing concerns that failed to get into Buyers' week, and thereby missed the oppor-tunity to sell a tremembous lot of goods. came forward with special bargains. These goods are of a class which up-

"From the way our telephones are rinsing and inquiries are pouring in over the counters, there may be some danger of everybody in Portland buying up their Christmas presents on 'Dollar day,' said Chairman C. F. Berg: 'but what difference will it make? It will only make it easier for all of us to handle the shopping crowd during the holiday season. So let 'em come.'

Splendid interest is also being manifested in 'Dollar day' in the suburban districts, and it is probable that the crowd which comes in from the Forfland trade territory will too.

the crowd which comes in from the Portland trade territory will jam the atreets from morning until night.

Folice Arrest George Martin as He In Being Retused Credit by Another Concern.

With a reputed penchant for order-ing large shipments of goods for de-livery at Hood River and paying for them in checks on a Hood River hank that could not be redsemed. George Martin was arrested by Detective Cap-tain Baty and Detective Kellaher yes-teriay afternoon.

Earlier in the day Martin had orfered pipe valued at $696 from Barde
A Sons to be shipped to Head River, lie offered an advance on the purchase price in the shape of a check for $300, saying the remainder would be forthcoming upon selivery. He then borrowed $2 of the firm and left. The Hood River bank was telephoned immediately, and it was found that Martin had no funds there. The firm was not $2.

A little later Martin entered the store of the Eastern Liquor Company to contract for a large supply of wel growle to be sent to Hood River. To prove that he was a responsible person, Martin exhibited the bill of sale from Barde & Son. Barde & Son. Barde & Son. from Barde & Son. Barde & Son were telephoned by the liquor dealers, and as they had by this time found out that the check was valueless, they told the liquor men not to trust Martin. The detectives were soon on the scene to prevent further purchases.

REAR-ADMIRAL K. K. KUBLI TO BE PROVOST MARSHAL-GENERAL.

L. C. Gilman Is to Have Charge of Transportation for Big Event on Lower Columbia.

Admiral A. M. Wilson, of the annual Astoria Regatta, yesterday bestowed two high honors on distinguished Porttunity to sell a tremendous lot of goods.

Came forward with special bargains.

These goods are of a class which usually retail at $1.50 to $2.60, but will be delivered to merchants for "Dollar day" at a price that will make them move.

Headquarters were opened yesterday at the Chamber of Commerce, with W. E. Conkling in charge, and will be prepared to furnish information to merchants and customers. Telephones are Broadway 446 and A 6591.

Some inkling of the tremendous variety of bargains that will be offered on September 22 may be accured from the fact that the biggest department stores of like city will participate, as well as the smaller merchants. No limit is placed on any merchant as to the number of bargains that he may effer for the one day, and it is probable that every store, large or small, will have numerous leaders on display.

Heal Bargains Required.

The only limitation imposed is that the articles must be worth more than 21 when sold on any other day than "Dollar day." It may be one article that coes for the price, or it may be a group of articles, but in every case it will be of an increased value of from 30 to 100 per cent for the money invested.

NEWPORT, Or., Aug. 21.—(Special.)

—A harvest of agates was reaped on the Newport beaches Sunday, although the much-sought-for stones are deeply imbedded in the sands. To accommodate the record crowd of visitors and reward their search, Newport folk distributed about 8860 agates along the seashere and a general scramble for choice specimens ensued.

An excursion of two trains, bringing 650 people, about 400 from Salem, accompanying the Salem street railroad employes and their band, greatly augmented the largest crowd in Newport this season.

THE NEW AUTUMN SUIT FASHIONS

It is impossible to trace this season's fashions to any period, for the style range is so wide and so varied that we receive a hint of one period and a trace of borrowing from another. But on the whole, there's an individuality that is very attractive.

The note that is dominant is practicability artistically developed.

And we don't owe it all to Paris, either. Talent on this side of the water that was never suspected, or played up to, has found itself, and it will mean in the future that many American dollars that formerly found their way to the fashion centers of Europe will remain in this country.

The materials in Suits are sober in coloring and beautiful in texture. The trimmings are military in effect—and fur is a big

The handsome Suit illustrated is developed in dark blue broadcloth, with revers of navy blue velvet, and collar of white broadcloth. Collar and cuffs are trimmed with skunk.

Another most attractive Suit model just in is made of duvetyn, trimmed in beaver. The coat has an artistic fastening to one side, and the skirt shows the popular reefed effects.

An unusually attractive Suit made of navy blue broadcloth has skunk raccoon trimming on collar and sleeves, the collar coming up snugly about the neck. The wide panels of the coat are decorated with wool embroidery, a big factor in trimming this season, the design an effective conventional. The skirt is circular and slightly full at the waist.

These are just examples culled here and there from our extensive new stocks that are now on display in the large new Apparel Salons.

We wish to announce, too, that we make a specialty of catering to women who require extra sizes-carrying suits, coats and dresses up to 56 bust measure.

We also specialize in misses' and small women's sizes, having a splendid assortment from 13 years up. And our prices are the most moderate you'll ever find for
