for eight innings against the Beavers yesterday at Recreation Park. In the ninth and loth, however, he showed a much inferior brand of stuff, with the result that Pertiand annexed its third straight game of the week in the loth frame by the score of 2 to 1.

The good work was accomplished on a long ascrifice by to left field by pinch hitter Bill Speas after three of his reammates had filled the sacks.

"Paw" Dillon, the Angel boss, received word yesterday from Prexy Baum that he was taking up too much of the unipries' time arguing decisions, and was requested to view the games from the grandstand until further orders.

The visitors put over their lone tally in the sixth for which Coveleskie was entirely responsible. Hore's how it happened: Terry, first up, singled; pausler followed suit; the next two struck out; then Maggert sent a secreber to right that brought in Terry. Lee Gooch, in right field for the Measure, got the ball and made a beautiful peg to the plate in time for Carlich lee to nip Bassler there.

In Women's Rounds Miss MacMaster Gives Mrs. Dougherty Hard Rub and Miss Huber Defeats Mrs. Heilbrum, 4 and 3.

BY WILL G. MACRAE. GEARHART BY THE SEA, Or., Aug. -(Special.)-Mrs. George A. Marshall and Dr. James C. Zan won the mixed foursome handicap today from a field of 43 teams. The victory was a popular one, the winning couple being given a rousing reception when their score was put on the board.

The third day of the tournament was teeming with excitement. Russell Smith and Mrs. J. A. Dougherty won their matches, in the semi-finals. In the morning matches Smith beat Guy Standifer 8-7. Standifer played out of form, but at that the gallery was well pleased with what they saw, for the play was interesting and well worth the trip around the course.

The finals will be played in the

In the semi-finals of the women's championship Mrs. Dougherty had to play at the top of her game to beat Miss Matsie MacMaster. Miss MacMaster heid her opponent safe going out, but on the return had hard luck and was beaten, 7-6. Miss Winifred Huber beat Mrs. S. Heilbrum, 4-2. Miss Huber will meet Mrs. Dougherty in the finals tomorrow.

There was some lively golf served during the play of the semi-finals of the flights, J. F. Morrell, of Medford, after playing the stiffest match of the tournament, beat Ray Small 4-3, and G. B. Carpenter beat C. M. Haiderman 6-2. This will bring Mr. Morrell and Mr. Carpenter together in the finals. W. F. Kettenbach, the Lewiston banker, was thinking more of a quick getaway home than he was of the match the way he was playing, and he was beaten by W. E. Pearson 2-1. E. L.

The point is, though, that Credit Clothing Stores (the kind you feel like patronising) are few and far between That is where CHERRY'S have it on the rest of the time-payment houses. They treat you right.

Take the average man. He hasn't a roll of money in his pocket all the time. Maybe just the time he needs a new suit he hasn't more than a fraction of what he'd have to have to pay at any cash store. But he can go to CHERRY'S, make the first payment on a new Suit and get it at once. Then he can pay the rest by the week or the month.

They have a few light-colored suits that are excellent values for $20, $25, and some as high as $30, that ar. on sale now at 20 per cent discount. Cherry's easy installment payments apply to these suits also.

The new Fail Clothes which CHER-RY'S are showing represent the newest metropolitan styles. Why don't you so up there and look them over? They are always open Saturday evening until 10.
