

JUST DEALING WITH JAPAN ADVOCATED

W. H. Taft Eulogizes Late Emperor and is Greeted With Cry of "Banzai!"

THOROUGHNESS IS LAUDED

Thousands of Oriental Parade With Lanterns and Celebrate "Japan Day" at Fair; Noted Speakers Are Heard.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 31.—"We must maintain the strongest kind of friendship. We must come closer together by dealing justly with each other," said William H. Taft, the principal speaker on the occasion of "Japan day," which was celebrated today at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

"Thousands of Japanese from this city and all parts of the state participated in the celebration which began this morning and ended tonight with a lantern parade and a display of Japanese fireworks. The anniversary of the birth of the Emperor of Japan was made the motive for the day.

"Banzai!" greets Mr. Taft. Mr. Taft spoke to 5000 persons, fully half of them Japanese. He was introduced as "the man who was, and always will be the friend of Japan," and received a tremendous ovation, the great audience rising as he stepped forward to speak.

"My friends of Japan," said Mr. Taft, "there is something wanting here and I am going to supply that want on the birthday of your Emperor. I want you to raise the cry of 'banzai!'"

It was given with a will. "I have been to Japan five times," he continued, "and the only objection I have to going to that country is the fact that you always want to go again."

Mr. Taft then paid a tribute to the late Emperor Matsuhito, whom he had known personally.

"I have been to Japan five times," he continued, "and the only objection I have to going to that country is the fact that you always want to go again."

Japanese Thoroughness Lauuded. In speaking of Japan's participation in the exposition, he said: "You have done your work as you always do your work—with completeness. You have learned the lesson of thoroughness. I have always had a closer feeling for Japan since an entertainment at which I was present at the arsenal garden in Tokio, where I saw some of your great wrestlers and their deeds. I like settling in competition with them—not on the mat but on the scales and finding out if I didn't outweigh them."

Among the other speakers were Haruki Yamawaki, Commissioner-General to Japan; Yasutaro Numano, Consul-General; S. Asano, president of a trans-Pacific conference, and officials of the exposition. Twenty-five Japanese girls sang the national anthems of Japan and America.

PORTLAND GIRL WHO IS ENGAGED TO LUIS C. ABEILLI, EXPOSITION COMMISSIONER FROM BOLIVIA.

Miss Crystal Hyland

BEAUTY TO BE BRIDE

Crystal Hyland Engaged to Handsome Bolivian.

ROMANCE RIPENS QUICKLY

Portland Girl to Wed Luis C. Abelli, Commissioner at Fair, as Soon as His Parents Give Consent. Match Regarded Brilliant.

OREGON BUILDING, Exposition Grounds, San Francisco, Aug. 31.—(Special.)—It is not denied now that the announcement of the engagement of Crystal Hyland, called the most beautiful girl at the Exposition, to Luis C. Abelli, Commissioner from Bolivia, only awaits sanction of the young man's parents.

Mr. Abelli left a week ago for Bolivia to make his request in person. He is 35, handsome, of Italian blood, has an English education, speaks seven languages, is a graduate of the Royal Academy of Arts and Sciences, and the only child of wealthy and distinguished parents.

Miss Hyland is a slender blonde girl with sweet, unassuming manners and a bright, eager mind. It is understood that the marriage will take place early in the year. This is considered to be the most brilliant engagement resulting from Exposition social life.

Miss Hyland is one of the popular girls of the younger set here. She is gifted in an artistic way and does many interesting pieces of work with the brush. At the Irvington Club party, when she is frequently a guest, she is always in demand. She has many genuine friends who will be surprised at the announcement of her betrothal, and will pick up a short time later by the Mariposa, north bound. The Mariposa then set out to save the Edith, but ran aground in a sinking condition after towing her a short distance.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

BRITISH LOSS PUT HIGH

CASUALTIES 50,000 IN TURKEY IN 3 WEEKS, BERLIN HEARS.

Invaders of Dardanelles Kept in Ignorance of Russian Reverse and Surrender Voluntarily, Says Writer.

BERLIN, Aug. 31.—(By wireless to Sayville, N. Y.)—The British employed 100,000 men in their attacks on Turkish positions on the Gallipoli Peninsula last Saturday and Sunday, according to a dispatch from Constantinople to the Frankfurter Zeitung, and their losses were extremely heavy.

The correspondent estimates that since August 6 the British losses have been in excess of 50,000. According to the correspondent, the killed among the British troops in the fighting of August 28 and August 29 included about 600 officers. A cavalry division, he declared, was almost completely wiped out. The dispatch continues:

"British prisoners knew nothing of the fall of Warsaw and other Russian fortresses. They had been told that the British held the entrance to the Bosphorus and were working toward a junction with the British. In contrast with the first months of the campaign, many British soldiers now voluntarily surrender themselves."

STUDY COURSE CHANGED

Salem High School Students Will Have Freedom in Choice.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 31.—(Special.)—Superintendent of Public Instruction Churchill today announced a new course of study for high schools. Mr. Churchill said that in country high schools it often was necessary for teachers to give instruction in subjects for which they had made no special preparation, and for them a definite outline of the work is of much value.

Much freedom in the choice of sub-

TAFT'S CHUCKLE IS COLOSSAL AT FAIR

Humor of ex-President on Red Cross Day Captivates Crowd at Ceremony.

SOCIETY'S VALUE RECITED

Plea Made for Consistent Support of Organization Which, He Says, Performs Service in Disaster Which Cannot Be Measured.

BY ANNE SHANNON MONROE. OREGON BUILDING, PANAMA-PACIFIC EXPOSITION, San Francisco, Aug. 31.—Saturday, Red Cross day at the exposition, might easily have been called Taft day, so completely did the Taft chuckle and the Taft red tie and the echo and applauding of the Taft family dominate it, wholly against the Taft wishes, he fitly added.

It was Red Cross day; ex-President Taft said it was Red Cross day; but the big audience that filled Festival Hall insisted on thinking it was Taft day and applauding his appearance to the echo and applauding of the Taft family.

Some way that was the impression that one got—that, after all, everything is all right. There might seem to be worry about the Red Cross day, but after all is said and done the sun still shines and flowers bloom, men and women love and children play and are happy.

Women Tell of Red Cross Work. The occasion was the presentation of the exposition bronze plaque to Miss Helen E. Boardman, president of the Red Cross Society. It took place in Festival Hall, with James Rolph, Jr., presiding. R. B. Hale presented the plaque; Miss Boardman made a very comprehensive speech of acceptance, in which she outlined the activities of the Red Cross Society since its organization; then came the address of efficiency and economy of our American Red Cross and its neutrality," by William Howard Taft.

On the platform, in addition to Mrs. Rolph and other San Francisco ladies, were Mrs. Taft and Mrs. Taft. Vice-President Hale, of the exposition, in his speech presenting the plaque to Miss Boardman, spoke of Mr. Taft's place in the Red Cross Society. "To no one person does our organization owe more than to the honorable citizen," he said.

Chuckler Acknowledges Applause. That word citizen in getting to mean a lot these days; it's a mighty good word. When Mayor Rolph introduced Mr. Taft, he spoke of him as "a leading, most respected citizen of our country today, who dignified the office of United States President, and since leaving that office had dignified the name of citizen just as much."

When Mr. Taft rose to speak the applause was so prolonged and enthusiastic that he had to defer to the meeting. With all deference to the Mayor and the cordial remarks of Vice-President Hale, I must say, recalling a well-known play of a few years back, it's a case of "too much Johnson."

He then went on to insist that he was merely called on to fill out the speech. He said that he had no intention of strutting about the country, and our chief concern is to keep the ball rolling. You can't get much out of me, but you have to have someone pronounce the benediction, and perhaps in the future I will be called on to do it.

He then read seriously from his written speech for a few minutes, with the Red Cross Society in the foreground. He broke from it with another of his chuckles, to remind his audience that he had no intention of strutting about the country, and our chief concern is to keep the ball rolling. You can't get much out of me, but you have to have someone pronounce the benediction, and perhaps in the future I will be called on to do it.

He then read seriously from his written speech for a few minutes, with the Red Cross Society in the foreground. He broke from it with another of his chuckles, to remind his audience that he had no intention of strutting about the country, and our chief concern is to keep the ball rolling. You can't get much out of me, but you have to have someone pronounce the benediction, and perhaps in the future I will be called on to do it.

He then read seriously from his written speech for a few minutes, with the Red Cross Society in the foreground. He broke from it with another of his chuckles, to remind his audience that he had no intention of strutting about the country, and our chief concern is to keep the ball rolling. You can't get much out of me, but you have to have someone pronounce the benediction, and perhaps in the future I will be called on to do it.

GERMANS DENOUNCED R.

KRIEGERBUND ALSO QUESTIONS WILSON'S NEUTRALITY. Loyalty to America in Case of War is Declared by Speakers; Officers Are Elected.

ST. PAUL, Aug. 31.—The Kriegerbund of North America today sanctioned admission to membership of ex-soldiers of the Austro-Hungarian army, after a heated and at times disorderly debate, elected Henry Overman, Cincinnati, president, and adjourned with the tentative agreement that the next meeting will be held at Columbus, the other officers are Otto Kiest, of St. Louis, vice-president; Otto Dietz, Chicago, secretary, and Franz Erling, St. Paul, treasurer.

Mr. Erling in a speech declared that whatever may be the outcome of the relations between the United States and Germany, these Germans, living in this country, would be with their adopted land to a man. He said that while President Wilson may think he is maintaining a neutral attitude, the Germans in this country reserve the right to decide that matter for themselves.

"Profound disgust" at the "monumental egotism" of Theodore Roosevelt in "assuming to represent neutral America" is expressed in resolutions adopted by the federation of associations of German veterans and ex-military men which met in conjunction with the Kriegerbund of North America. It is dubbed the "loquacious ex-military" in the program and his "insensate spitefulness against the German people" is condemned.

New Comptroller Named. WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—President Wilson today appointed Walter W. Warwick, of Ohio, as controller of the treasury, succeeding George E. Downey, recently appointed a Justice of the Court of Claims. Charles M. Forster, many years chief clerk of the office, was appointed to succeed Mr. Warwick as assistant controller.

MUSCULAR BACKACHE

The muscles of the back do the heavy work of the body. When they are overworked or ill nourished they ache and people who are looking for trouble begin to worry about their kidneys.

Backache may be due to lumbago, which is rheumatism of the muscles of the back, but more backaches are caused by overstrain, overwork and muscle starvation due to thin blood than by anything else.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and soothe the nerves. They would do well to try this treatment before giving way to worry over fancied organic disease. Rest and the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will correct most forms of backache, even rheumatic.

For people who work too hard or dance too much and sleep too little, better habits and a course of treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are all that are needed to drive away the pains and aches that are warnings of a coming breakdown.

Two books, "Building Up the Blood" and "Nervous Disorders" will be sent free, if you are interested, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at the nearest drug store or by mail at 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50.

Pictorial Review

Patterns and Fashion Sheets for October and the New Fall Fashion Book now on sale, Pattern Counter. Second Floor

A New Fashion Season Awakened in Our Third Floor Apparel Store

Here You May Select the Most Exclusive Autumn Styles at Moderate Prices

Suits From $19.75 to $125.00

Coats From $10.00 to $65.00

Dresses From $11.45 to $42.50

and serge, serge and taffeta, either in plain colors or the handsome new plaids and stripes. Fancy braiding forms the principal trimming, with here and there a dash of colored embroidery or gold and silver thread. Gold military braid and gold buttons, or black military braid are also used in infinite variety.

VISIT OUR APPAREL SECTION—NEW MODES ARRIVING EVERY DAY Third Floor

$3.95 For These Fashionable Ostrich Ruffs

Of First Quality Sold Usually at $5.50

—Unquestionably the newest and most becoming of all the Fall neckwear. These ruffs on sale are especially fine, made of first-quality stock, all long flues, very full and soft.

—Shown in all the latest combinations of black and white, navy and white, brown and white, and in pink, blue, delft, brown, navy and black. —First Floor

Mail and Telephone Orders Filled by Expert Shoppers

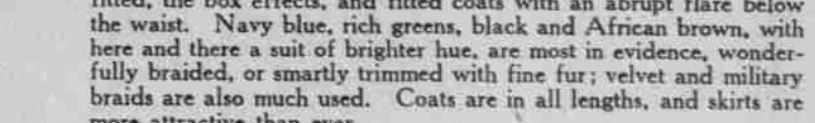

Sipman Wolfe & Co. Merchandise of Merit Only Pacific Phone Marshall 5000 Home Phone A 6691

ON DISPLAY FOR FIRST TIME WEDNESDAY

New Fall Millinery at the Remarkable Price $4.95

Small Hats, Large Hats Medium-Sized Hats

—In variety unsurpassed. Mostly of black silk velvet and of velvet and taffeta, in black or dark colors. Besides the fanciful shapes that distinguish the Fall millinery, among the trimmings are steel and beaded ornaments, jet and colored bead fancies, feather novelties, dangling tassels, and, of course, the strictly tailored grosgrain ribbon. Two of the models on sale as illustrated. —Third Floor

Great Sale School Wash Frocks For Girls 6 to 14 Years of Age

Now 89c, 95c, $1.19 to $1.59

Of Ginghams Of Chambrays Of Percales Of Crepes

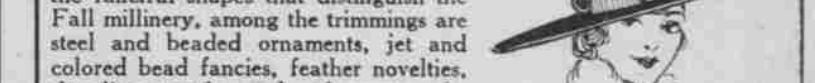

—Dresses made in the most attractive styles, of materials that will launder perfectly and give the best kind of wear. This is why we especially recommend them for school wear.

—Practically every style worn by girls this season is included in this sale, in light and dark colors, many combined with fancy plaids, others trimmed with embroidery, pique, pippings. —Fourth Floor

Just Received New Models W. B. Nuforn Corsets $1.00 to $3.50

W. B. Reduso At $3.50 to $5.00

—Featuring the new bust and waist lines. Made of coutil in white, and of fancy brocade in white and flesh tint. Trimmed with lace or embroidery and ribbon. —Fourth Floor

ALASKAN STEAMER LOST

EDITH SINKING WHEN ABANDONED BY MARIPOSA.

Vessel and Cargo Valued at $250,000 and Bound for Tacoma; Crew Picked Up at Sea.

SEATTLE, Aug. 31.—The Alaska Steamship Company's freight steamer Edith, which was abandoned by her crew off Cape Hinchinbrook, Alaska, yesterday and picked up in the Gulf of Alaska by the passenger steamer Mariposa, which attempted to tow her to safety, was found to have sunk.

The Edith was a 2349-ton iron vessel, built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

The Edith was an iron vessel of 2349 gross tons, 276 feet long, and was built at Sunderland, England, in 1882. She was christened Glenochil, and sailed under the British flag for many years. The Edith was brought around Cape Horn during the early days of the Klondike gold boom, and has since been a freighter between Puget Sound and Alaska.

MRS. WILLIAMS' LONG SICKNESS

Yields To Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Elkhart, Ind.—"I suffered for fourteen years from organic inflammation, female weakness, pain and irregularities. The pains in my sides were increased by walking or standing on my feet and I had such awful bearing-down feelings, was depressed in spirits and became thin and pale with dull, heavy eyes. I had six doctors from whom I received only temporary relief. I decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial and also the Sensitive Wash. I have now used the remedies for four months and cannot express my thanks for what they have done for me."

"If these lines will be of any benefit you have my permission to publish them."—Mrs. SADIE WILLIAMS, 455 James Street, Elkhart, Indiana.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotic or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record of being the most successful remedy for female ills we know of, and thousands of voluntary testimonials on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., seem to prove this fact.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (conditional) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Goiters, Tumors and Rheumatism. Latest and best methods. No Operations, no Medicine. Consultation and Examination Free. 312 Sweetland Bldg. Phone Main 6674.

IN OTHER DEPARTMENTS, TOO, BIG REDUCTIONS PREVAIL.

For the first time in history three big sales are going on at one time. Three big stocks of musical merchandise must be moved. This not only means big reductions, but standard and vocal.

At all three places, if you cannot come, write or phone for the catalogue and illustrations.

(Signed) For Eilers Music House Broadway at Alder.

(Signed) For Graves Music Co. 151 Fourth Street.

(Signed) For F. W. Graves, President of C. W. Holt Piano Co. 151 Fourth Street.

(Signed) For C. W. Hausman, Trustee for Preferred Stockholders, 322 Morrison st.