

WING WAGE LAW
PROPOSED DISALS BELLED

New York Constitutional Convention Closes Amid Exciting Scenes.

NEW CONSTITUTION DRAWN

Republicans to Support New Instrument While Democrats Are Not Expected to Provide Organized Opposition.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 5.—New York's constitutional convention closed consideration of all proposed amendments last night amid exciting scenes.

While friends and foes of the proposed new constitution were to enact a living wage law for women and children tomorrow for a vote on the measure, President Elihu Root, on the motion of Majority Leader Wickersham, declared the convention adjourned until next Thursday.

Republicans for New Order. Republicans, who are in the majority in the convention, 116 to 52, will immediately launch a vigorous campaign in behalf of the new constitution. It is declared extremely doubtful if the Democrats will wage an organized fight against the new instrument.

The chief proposed amendments would provide for: Shortening of the ballot so as to make the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General and Comptroller the only elective state officers.

An executive budget system, whereby the Legislature would prepare and submit to the Governor a budget of the state and of all other public agencies.

Shortening of the term of office of the Governor from four to two years, and of the Lieutenant Governor from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Comptroller from four to two years, and of the State Treasurer from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Auditor from four to two years, and of the State Controller from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Engineer from four to two years, and of the State Geologist from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Inspector from four to two years, and of the State Librarian from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Printer from four to two years, and of the State Surveyor from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Architect from four to two years, and of the State Engineer from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Geologist from four to two years, and of the State Controller from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Auditor from four to two years, and of the State Treasurer from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Comptroller from four to two years, and of the State Engineer from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Librarian from four to two years, and of the State Surveyor from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Printer from four to two years, and of the State Architect from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Engineer from four to two years, and of the State Geologist from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Controller from four to two years, and of the State Auditor from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Treasurer from four to two years, and of the State Comptroller from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Engineer from four to two years, and of the State Librarian from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Surveyor from four to two years, and of the State Printer from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Architect from four to two years, and of the State Engineer from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Geologist from four to two years, and of the State Controller from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Auditor from four to two years, and of the State Treasurer from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Comptroller from four to two years, and of the State Engineer from four to two years.

Shortening of the term of office of the State Librarian from four to two years, and of the State Surveyor from four to two years.

WILLIAM GOLDMAN HAS NAMESAKE; STORY GOOD

Insurance Man and Friends Play Good Samaritan to Woman About to Be Visited by Stork—Other Stories With Human Interest Flavor.

WILLIAM GOLDMAN, the well-known insurance man, has a namesake, and he is as proud of it as if the youngster were his own son.

There is sufficient cause for it. Here it is: A few weeks ago Mr. Goldman, in company with a party of friends, was motoring around country roads near Portland.

The women in the party soon learned the woman's secret. Promptly Mr. Goldman drove to the nearest home he reached, identified and some bedclothing. With the assistance of some men of the neighborhood the woman was carried to her home only a short distance away.

There her child was born in comfort. Mr. Goldman learned that the woman was the mother of seven other children and that her husband was out of work.

Mr. Goldman promptly to Portland, secured the best physician that he could find and ordered a wagonload of necessities sent to the house of the poor baby.

Hence the name William Goldman. But Mr. Goldman will not be satisfied until the identity of the person who came along the same road a few minutes before him, and he had heard the woman's cry for assistance.

Senator Chamberlain tells a good one on Senator "Bill" Stone, of Missouri, at the closing days of a long-drawn-out session before Senator Chamberlain, retired.

The Mississippi Senator, who is in ill health and suffering from partial blindness, was anxious for a prompt adjournment.

A bill of minor importance was up and Senator Stone arose to speak. Senator Money's patience became exhausted and stretched himself out on a couch.

In the dimly lighted room where he lay, the senator, who was a few inches in front of him on a bench, his falling eyelids, the Southern Senator soliloquized thus:

"He's talking again! He never knows when to stop! He's drunk. That crazy Bill Stone!" and so on for quite a few minutes.

Presently he saw a strange object on a chair near the head of his couch. He put on his hand and felt the form of a man.

"Who is this sitting beside me?" demanded Senator Money, feebly. "Why, it's that crazy Bill Stone, who you have been cussing so loudly," replied the stranger.

"Why, it's that crazy Bill Stone, who you have been cussing so loudly," replied the stranger. "You're drunk, aren't you?"

"No, I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

The kitchen force in a Portland restaurant was declared as a namesake, and he is as proud of it as if the youngster were his own son.

There is sufficient cause for it. Here it is: A few weeks ago Mr. Goldman, in company with a party of friends, was motoring around country roads near Portland.

The women in the party soon learned the woman's secret. Promptly Mr. Goldman drove to the nearest home he reached, identified and some bedclothing. With the assistance of some men of the neighborhood the woman was carried to her home only a short distance away.

There her child was born in comfort. Mr. Goldman learned that the woman was the mother of seven other children and that her husband was out of work.

Mr. Goldman promptly to Portland, secured the best physician that he could find and ordered a wagonload of necessities sent to the house of the poor baby.

Hence the name William Goldman. But Mr. Goldman will not be satisfied until the identity of the person who came along the same road a few minutes before him, and he had heard the woman's cry for assistance.

Senator Chamberlain tells a good one on Senator "Bill" Stone, of Missouri, at the closing days of a long-drawn-out session before Senator Chamberlain, retired.

The Mississippi Senator, who is in ill health and suffering from partial blindness, was anxious for a prompt adjournment.

A bill of minor importance was up and Senator Stone arose to speak. Senator Money's patience became exhausted and stretched himself out on a couch.

In the dimly lighted room where he lay, the senator, who was a few inches in front of him on a bench, his falling eyelids, the Southern Senator soliloquized thus:

"He's talking again! He never knows when to stop! He's drunk. That crazy Bill Stone!" and so on for quite a few minutes.

Presently he saw a strange object on a chair near the head of his couch. He put on his hand and felt the form of a man.

"Who is this sitting beside me?" demanded Senator Money, feebly. "Why, it's that crazy Bill Stone, who you have been cussing so loudly," replied the stranger.

"Why, it's that crazy Bill Stone, who you have been cussing so loudly," replied the stranger. "You're drunk, aren't you?"

"No, I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

"I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all." "I'm not drunk," replied the stranger. "I'm just a little bit tipsy, that's all."

BRACKS DEGREE
MAYING CONFESSED

"Third Degree" Methods Said to Have Led to Charges Against Mrs. Mohr.

Police Say Negroes Did Not Give Signed Confessions and Men Avert Officers Put Statements Into Their Mouths.

NO ADMISSIONS SIGNED

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 5.—A complete repudiation of the alleged confessions of three negro accomplices gave a new turn Saturday to the case of Mrs. Elizabeth Tiffany Blair Mohr, at whose door the police had laid the death of her husband, Dr. C. Franklin Mohr.

Chief of Police Thomas W. Robbins, when informed that the men had denied their guilt, admitted that so far as he knew none of them had ever signed a confession. The only signed statement obtained from them was one from Health in which he expressed the opinion that the motive for the crime was robbery.

Mrs. Mohr, from the first, has stoutly maintained her innocence and explained the murder by saying that she had seen the negroes, accompanied by a grudge against the doctor since his discharge from his employment at the Hotel. It was also Mrs. Mohr's story that there was an incident in which she was an addressee, but which she would not discuss.

Summarized, his declaration was that they were wholly innocent of the crime, and that they would be able to prove alibis; all alleged admissions were made under duress while they were in the hands of the police. He declared that the police had put in their mouths statements to which they assented in order to get them out of the way.

Mrs. Mohr, who is out on bail, and the three men, who are locked up, will have a hearing on September 16, the penalty for first degree murder in this state is life imprisonment.

SALEM, Or., Sept. 5.—(Special.)—In an effort to curtail fire losses Harvey Wells, State Insurance Commissioner, has issued a bulletin giving the various origins of fires and means of prevention.

Mr. Wells urges that the way to obtain cheap insurance is to stop the enormous fire losses. Now the non-burning, careful business man, he says, pays for the careless, indifferent, reckless builder and occupant. He declares:

"The fire loss in Oregon, most of which may be termed 'fire waste,' is greater in proportion to the population than in the most states. In 1914 the value of property destroyed is estimated at more than $4,000,000 and the insurance companies paid $2,736,000 of that amount."

The Commissioner insists that the state should enact a fire marshal law, and that there should be fire prevention associations in all communities. The duties of these organizations, he says, should be to create sentiment for fire prevention, clean premises, fire prevention laws, and ordinances governing flues, electric wiring, etc.

"We have our efficient fire departments in the cities to attack fires," continues the bulletin. "Now, after we have built and organized these departments, we must have efficient fire fighting efficiency, what is our next step in combating the immense fire waste? Why should we not have a department known as 'Fire Preventers'?"

Mr. Wells estimates that $2,000,000 of property is destroyed and 500 lives lost yearly through the careless use of matches, rubbish and ashes as means of fire prevention.

The bulletin is filled with useful information regarding the preventing and attacking of fires. It is available as wide distribution as possible.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Sept. 5.—The Chesapeake & Ohio grain elevator "A," one of the largest in the United States, was destroyed by fire here last night with a loss estimated at $2,000,000.

The official report of today's fighting and day since the beginning of the European war in the shipment of grain, chiefly to Great Britain.

Two freight piers were threatened by the flames. Nearly 400,000 bushels of wheat was in the elevator. Other property destroyed included the local offices of the United States Shipping Company and the Holland-American line grain pier No. 5 was damaged. Two other piers and three steamships were threatened.

The origin of the fire had not been ascertained tonight. William Butler, a watchman, trapped on the top floor of the elevator, was burned to death.

PORTLAND WOMAN FREED Swindle, to Return Here. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 5.—Mrs. Eliza Pluzo, of Portland, Ore., was pardoned from the state penitentiary Saturday by Governor George W. Hays on condition that she return to her children in Portland, Ore., and live until tomorrow. Mrs. Pluzo was sentenced to three years' imprisonment last July after she pleaded guilty to aiding Ralph Ricci, swindler, in the theft of $25,000 from Little Rock, of $7000.

In a statement following her liberation, Mrs. Pluzo said her pardon was due to the efforts of Mrs. Hays, wife of the Governor, and Mrs. John T. Burkett, wife of a member of the state penitentiary commission.

Mrs. Eliza Pluzo, formerly of Portland, and whose mother owns property in this city, resided at 84 1/2 North Second street. She is the second woman to be sentenced to the Arkansas prison in years, the other being sent there on a murder charge.

The heavy brush and high grass. The sheriff's forces say they 'accounted for seven Mexicans.' The wheel rolled off as the machine sped across the car tracks at East Eleventh street. Both men were thrown on the pavement, clear of the machine. Holiday sustained a dislocated knee. Fanley's eye was cut. They were taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

There are 67 births every minute throughout the world and 70 deaths.

WHEEL LOST, TWO HURT Passengers Thrown From Auto When Machine Turns Turtle.

The loss of a wheel from an automobile at East Eleventh and East Stark streets Saturday night resulted in the upsetting of the car and severe injury to two boys riding in it. The machine, 23 years old, was driving the machine, Joe Emly, 21, was with him.

The wheel rolled off as the machine sped across the car tracks at East Eleventh street. Both men were thrown on the pavement, clear of the machine. Holiday sustained a dislocated knee. Fanley's eye was cut. They were taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

There are 67 births every minute throughout the world and 70 deaths.

WHEEL LOST, TWO HURT Passengers Thrown From Auto When Machine Turns Turtle.

The loss of a wheel from an automobile at East Eleventh and East Stark streets Saturday night resulted in the upsetting of the car and severe injury to two boys riding in it. The machine, 23 years old, was driving the machine, Joe Emly, 21, was with him.

The wheel rolled off as the machine sped across the car tracks at East Eleventh street. Both men were thrown on the pavement, clear of the machine. Holiday sustained a dislocated knee. Fanley's eye was cut. They were taken to St. Vincent's Hospital.

There are 67 births every minute throughout the world and 70 deaths.

10 Extra Stamps With Every Item Shown Below
Save Money and Get Trading Stamps Here Today
Bring in Your Films for Quick Development

SCHOOL STATIONERY
5c Pencil Tablets, wide or narrow, ruled or plain, 10c
3c Ink, 3c 1/2 5c Pencil Holders
10c Plate Finish, Note, 7c
50c Tablets, 7c
No. 547 Dash Lead Pencils, 8c
the dozen, 75c
3c Pencil, two 5c Main Floor

WINE SPECIALS
$1.00 Invalid Port, extra 78c
$2.50 Invalid Port, the 2 $2.98
50c California Extra Quality Claret, Muscatel, Sauternes, 37c
Burgundy for 37c
52c Rock Eye and Tolu for that cold, 73c
75c Brice's Pure Malt on sale at 55c

RUBBER GOODS
50c Combination Attachment Free With Each "Wood-Lark" Water Bottle.
$1.00 Zinc Douché Pan on 57c
1.50 Cloth, inserted Water Bottle, 98c
$1.00 Water Bottle now 76c
$1.25 Two-Quart Fountain Syringe for 87c
Five-foot Length of Rubber Tubing for 25c
35c Rubber Compression 24c
3 1/2 Rubber 19c | 3 1/2 Bath Sponges, $1.19
$1.00 Bull B Syringes, 58c
50c Rubber Gloves 33c

J. B. L. CASCADE Sold as Small Monthly Payments.
O'CEDAR POLISH MOPS, small size, 75c; large size, $1.25
O'CEDAR 25c, 50c, $1.00
HOME CANDY THERMOMETER, recipes, for $1.00

PATENT MEDICINES
25c Dioxogen 19c
50c S. A. 19c
H. E. A. 19c
50c C. A. 15c
50c D. O. A. 15c
Pills 39c
50c P. A. 39c
50c Capil 39c
50c Laria 39c
50c Dan 38c
H. E. A. 80c
now at 80c
H. E. P. 65c
side at 80c
L. E. A. 85c
now at 85c

GET A DOLLAR THERMOMETER for 25c

FILMS IN A HURRY THE MOST RAPID SERVICE IN OUR PHOTO DEPARTMENT THAT IS POSSIBLE WITH PERFECTLY SATISFACTORY WORK.
Bring Your Films in Any Time Before 10:00 P.M. in the Morning, and by 5:00 P.M. That Same Afternoon They Will Be Ready for You.

MYZUS A Resinous Wash
As Recommended by Mr. F. E. Blackwood West in the Oregonian of Wednesday, Sept. 1st, 1915, for the Eradication of APHIS AND MILDREW. SOLD BY THE BOTTLE AT 50c.
The Results Obtained by This Wonderful, Yet Simple, Remedy Are Amazing.

ANTI-FIRE FIGHT BEGUN
STATE INSURANCE COMMISSIONER LISTS METHODS IN BULLETIN.
Law Providing for Organization of Associations in All Communities in Oregon Is Sought.

HOODLUM CHANDLER A BOOK OF N. & H. GREEN STAMPS SAVED IS SEVERAL DOLLARS EARNED

Free 10 2/3 STAMPS with all ice cream or soda packages in our Tear Room or at the Soda Fountain from 2 P. M. until we close at 9

BRAZIL GETS NEW BIBLE
Book Will Prove Great Aid to Language as Well as Morals.
A new translation of the Bible into Portuguese has just been completed. Portuguese has just been completed. Portuguese has just been completed.

ALL TROOPS READY TO MOVE
Conditions Along Border Regarded Most Serious in Months.
SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 5.—An order to have all troops on the Texas border ready to move at any moment was issued from department headquarters following the departure of Major William Hay for Brownsville. Department officials admitted they regarded present conditions along the border as more serious than for many months.

NERVOUS EXHAUSTION Irritability, oversensitiveness, a disposition to worry over trifles, headache, dizziness—these are symptoms of nervous exhaustion, neurasthenia. Very often the patient feels best and brightest at night. Rest seems to bring no refreshment, the nervous system fails to recuperate. This distressing condition is caused by worry more often than by any other one thing. Overwork and worry invite the disorder. The treatment is one of nutrition of the nerve cells, requiring a non-alcoholic tonic. As the nerves get their nourishment from the blood the treatment must be directed towards building up the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood and with proper regulation of the diet have proved of the greatest benefit in many cases of neurasthenia. A tendency to anemia or bloodlessness, shown by most neurasthenic patients, is also corrected by these tonic pills. Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail at 50 cents per box, six boxes $2.50. Begin the treatment at once before your condition becomes chronic. Two useful books, "Diseases of the Nervous System" and "What to Eat and How to Eat," will be sent free by Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., if you mention this paper.

ELEVATOR IS BURNED
CHESAPEAKE & OHIO PLANT AT NEWPORT NEWS DESTROYED.
Concern Operating Day and Night Shipping Grain to England Has Mysterious Fire.

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Sept. 5.—The Chesapeake & Ohio grain elevator "A," one of the largest in the United States, was destroyed by fire here last night with a loss estimated at $2,000,000.

LABOR-DAY LOOP TRIP Monday, Sept. 6th
Special Loop Train Portland to McMinnville and return will leave Portland Union Depot at 1:00 P. M., 4th and Yamhill 1:00 P. M.

PET PARROT IS EMBALMED
Little Boy Blue Has Casket With Silver Plating and Epiplath.
SAN RAFAEL, Cal., Sept. 5.—(Special.)—Funeral services over the body of the late "Little Boy Blue," a pet parrot of Mrs. E. L. Crane, wife of a local garage owner, will be held here tomorrow and interment will be in the Crane family plot in Santa Rosa.

PORTLAND WOMAN FREED Swindle, to Return Here. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 5.—Mrs. Eliza Pluzo, of Portland, Ore., was pardoned from the state penitentiary Saturday by Governor George W. Hays on condition that she return to her children in Portland, Ore., and live until tomorrow. Mrs. Pluzo was sentenced to three years' imprisonment last July after she pleaded guilty to aiding Ralph Ricci, swindler, in the theft of $25,000 from Little Rock, of $7000.

LABOR-DAY LOOP TRIP Monday, Sept. 6th
Special Loop Train Portland to McMinnville and return will leave Portland Union Depot at 1:00 P. M., 4th and Yamhill 1:00 P. M.

PORTLAND WOMAN FREED Swindle, to Return Here. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 5.—Mrs. Eliza Pluzo, of Portland, Ore., was pardoned from the state penitentiary Saturday by Governor George W. Hays on condition that she return to her children in Portland, Ore., and live until tomorrow. Mrs. Pluzo was sentenced to three years' imprisonment last July after she pleaded guilty to aiding Ralph Ricci, swindler, in the theft of $25,000 from Little Rock, of $7000.

LABOR-DAY LOOP TRIP Monday, Sept. 6th
Special Loop Train Portland to McMinnville and return will leave Portland Union Depot at 1:00 P. M., 4th and Yamhill 1:00 P. M.

LABOR-DAY LOOP TRIP Monday, Sept. 6th
Special Loop Train Portland to McMinnville and return will leave Portland Union Depot at 1:00 P. M., 4th and Yamhill 1:00 P. M.

PORTLAND WOMAN FREED Swindle, to Return Here. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 5.—Mrs. Eliza Pluzo, of Portland, Ore., was pardoned from the state penitentiary Saturday by Governor George W. Hays on condition that she return to her children in Portland, Ore., and live until tomorrow. Mrs. Pluzo was sentenced to three years' imprisonment last July after she pleaded guilty to aiding Ralph Ricci, swindler, in the theft of $25,000 from Little Rock, of $7000.

LABOR-DAY LOOP TRIP Monday, Sept. 6th
Special Loop Train Portland