have taken life easy and work has been of the light hind. Fishing trips, hunting tramps, cannoling and swimming have passed the hours of day, with long nights of sleep.

If crepe was a customary display for absent "regular," connected with the varsity of last Fall, then the Ore 500 squad in training should have their uniforms made of such material, as it is, coach, trainer and candidates must content themselves with mere speculative talks of the men who were called and have not answered. The absent athietes are Gook, Sharp, Powrite, Beckett, Philbin, Weist, Eryant and Farsons, Garrett reinforced the campered with afternoon.

Although the mentioned old heads are missing all hope of their return has not been given up; the only certainty is Philbin who has gone East. Cook is a fire warden in the wilds of idaho; Beckett is still harvesting. Fowrie was in Alsaka when last heard from; Sharp is all work in Portland; Bryant and Parsons are undecided about resuming their studies. Weist is at home in Kanska weist is at home in the weis
