

SOCIETY NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

POPULAR MATRON WHO WILL ENTERTAIN FOR TRIO OF ATTRACTIVE GUESTS TODAY.

MATRONS and maids are busily entertaining out-of-town women today, who are here with their physician husbands attending the Oregon state medical annual meeting. Wives of the leading Portland physicians will take the visitors to motor drives, tea and lunch at the University Club. The convention will close with the dinner and dance this evening at the Waverley Country Club; special transportation being provided for the event, both land and river.

Dr. W. T. Williamson is chairman of the committee for arrangements and he is assisted by Dr. Katherine Marion, Dr. George S. Whiteside, Dr. Norman E. Pease and Dr. L. H. Hamilton.

Mrs. William Kent, wife of Representative Kent of California, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. James G. Gould for several days this week, left Wednesday for her home in the South. Mrs. Kent is a strong friend in the interest of Woman Suffrage, and was delightfully entertained while here.

Mrs. F. A. Jackson and son Charles have returned from a three month trip East. They visited friends in Seattle, Minneapolis, Milwaukee and Chicago, visiting Mr. Jackson's old home in Rochester, Ind., where they were entertained extensively.

Today Miss Emilie Frances Bauer, the distinguished musical authority and critic, of New York, leaves for her home in that city. She goes by way of San Francisco, where she plans to stay over weekend, and attend the exposition earlier in the summer on the occasion of the Beethoven Festival. Miss Bauer has been the house guest of her brother Cecil H. Bauer. Miss Marion Bauer, the composer, will remain in Portland until the latter part of this month after which she will proceed to New York. During her stay here she is planning to give a programme of her own musical creations for the MacDowell Club.

Miss Emilie Frances Bauer leaves now so that she will be in New York in time for the opening of the season's musical centers.

Walter Damrosch, noted musician, has been the guest of Miss Lois Steers and her husband, John, for a couple of days on his way East from San Francisco, where he has been directing the music for the Greek plays at the Greek Theater.

Miss Elizabeth Sears, of New York, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Preston W. Smith for several days, left last night for the south. She will sail for Honolulu to visit her brother, Lieutenant Robert Sears, and Mrs. Sears (Marguerite Hume), who are stationed at Fort Schofield for the winter.

Miss Sears has been delightfully entertained this week with luncheons, dinners, tea and motor trips.

Miss Margaret Alderson, an attractive girl of San Francisco, is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fields for several weeks. She is being delightedly entertained, recent affairs in her honor being the tea for which Mrs. Lloyd Bates was hostess Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Fields introduced her guest at a small tea this week, and is planning other festivities in her honor.

On Tuesday evening Edith MacRankin and Albert H. Schmidt were married by Rev. D. G. Stephens, only the bride's immediate family and a few intimate friends being present. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Rankin, pioneers of Portland and visitors to the city from their home in Philadelphia, for the past four years has been employed by Olds, Wortman & King. The young couple will be at home after September 15 at 1115 East Eighteenth street North.

Miss Grace Katherine Vierack, popular young girl will leave this week for the South to pass the Fall in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Miss Mabel Heuston, of Mobile, Ala., is the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Linton Heuston for several days. A number of informal affairs have been planned to make her visit interesting and delightful.

Dr. and Mrs. Leo Reichen have returned from a fortnight's visit to the fair in San Francisco.

Mrs. George W. Ogden and daughter, Mrs. Elmer Espy, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Martin of Portland, passed the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Ordin at Scaside.

Mrs. Cecile Abbott, of Wabash, Ind., and Miss Margaret Sellers, of Portland, are the guests of R. E. Morell and his mother for two weeks. Miss Abbott will accompany Mrs. Morell to the San Francisco Exposition en route to her Eastern home.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

By EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES

THE State Woman's Press Club has issued a neat and attractive little year book, containing a calendar that brims with interest. As purple and white are the club colors, the book is printed with purple ink on heavy white paper. The club has at its motto: "So tell the story today that the world may be better tomorrow." The meetings are to be held on the first Wednesday and third Friday of each month. The officers are: Honorary president, Mrs. L. H. F. Addison; president, Mrs. Martha Pullman; first vice-president, Mrs. L. B. Salmon; recording secretary, Mrs. L. T. Hidden; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Collis M. Dowling; treasurer, Miss Frances E. Gotshall.

The following are the committees: programming, Mrs. Edith C. LaBarre, Mrs. L. B. Salmon, Mrs. A. Voorhees, Miss E. Gotshall; press committee, Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden, Miss Jessie Hammond; literature committee, Mrs. L. H. F. Addison, Mrs. E. A. Atchison; literary induction, Mrs. Anna E. Dye, Mrs. Nathan Harris, Miss Anne Shannon Monroe; review, Miss Lois Bain, Miss Eleanor Baldwin; social, Mrs. L. B. Bartlett, Mrs. C. D. Lynn; resolutions, Mrs. Elizabeth Godding, Mrs. M. R. Dee; decorations, Mrs. Alice Webster; Mrs. Collis M. Dowling.

Chapter E. P. E. O. Sisterhood, will meet on Thursday of next week at the home of Mrs. John Risley, Risley Station.

In an article on "The Position of Women in India," in the General Federation Magazine, Sardar Dalip Singh Gill gives some interesting views of the life of the women of her country. She says:

"In the first place, I must admit that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

Tea Garden Syrup

has three points of supremacy—exquisite, distinctive flavor; exceptionally high food value, and absolute purity.

All glucose syrups are neither healthful nor nutritious. Tea Garden is first by every test. Give it to the children for schoolday lunch

Sold by All Good Grocers

Watch for the Winners in the Recipe Contest

Pacific Coast Syrup Co.
Portland, Oregon

PASTOR HELD AS SPY

"THE FIRST PRETTY CLOTHES GERTRUDE EVER WORE"

Rev. S. C. Benson Relates Experiences With Germans.

CARDS EXCITE SUSPICION

American Passport Is Refused by Military Authorities, Watch Is Kept and Food Denied Till Investigation Is Completed.

To be held as a prisoner of war by the Germans and to be incarcerated in a German guardhouse for eight or ten months, with one's immediate future quite hairy, is, as a mere recitation of fact, quite romantic, according to Rev. S. C. Benson, of Patton, Pa.

But to suffer the actual experience is a different matter. But Rev. Mr. Benson is in Paris, awaiting the details of his harrowing experience. Germans kept him in the guardhouse at Brussels all day without food. Rev. Mr. Benson is in the city visiting his brother, C. C. Benson, an attorney with offices in the Washington building.

And the advice to avoid them is worth heeding, is it not? Their suggestions may adopt them scarcely realizing what they do. But we will just stop to take in the full import of Billy Sunday's advice, we will see the assassination of our good impulses is no light matter. Our good impulses are so clear cut it is not difficult to do the right thing and right next to us in our daily work. They may live across the street and mingle in our neighborhood life. They may be one of the bright members of our church. But no matter where we meet them, the people they distil into daily life is recognizable.

Young people do not always realize this. They do not look very deeply into life, nor in which direction they are going. They just go along joyously from day to day. But many an older person who has not arrived at the goal in life that he wants, or for which he thought he had honestly set out, can't walk back to the suggestion of some friend that he resisted the best in him as the thing which led him to take the first step out of the path he wished to travel and into the one that has led him where he now is.

So it is really worth while for the young people, perhaps to realize in fact to study in bit critically those with whom we are associated and see just what their influence upon us is. If it is killing the best in us, if it is as makes as do no work less consistently or makes us less true to our home duties and home folks, let us take Billy Sunday's advice and avoid these people. The world's experience from the beginning of time backs up what he says.

Nazasmas' meeting tonight, Northwest Bank building.

Miss Beatrice Young to speak.

Farewell recital at Ellers by Miss Anna Fern Horn tonight.

Some People to Avoid.
Billy Sunday, that whirlwind evangelist who is causing considerable wreckage among Pharisees and hypocrites, gave a very good recipe for recent address as to the sort of associates to avoid.

Sometimes we are a bit in doubt as to whether to continue an acquaintance or not. These are some hints about the person we like, there are others we don't like. We can scarcely decide whether it is most advisable to part company or to continue the friend.

Sunday gives us a good acid test to apply when we are in doubt on such matters. "Avoid those," he says, "who assassinate every good and noble impulse in you."

There is uncertainty about that, is there? And not much difficulty to apply it. It clears up the cloudy atmosphere at once. He tells us how to see.

CALENDAR FOR TODAY.

Society.

Ten from 4 to 6 o'clock by Mrs. John Claire Montalbano for Mrs. Katherine Ward Pope, Miss Mabel Neal and Miss McMillan.

Reading and reception for Mrs. Frances Carter by Mrs. Emma Gillespie this evening.

Waverley Country Club this evening for Oregon State Medical Society, for visiting physicians and their wives.

Youngsters From Grants Pass "Seeing World" by Campfire.

HUNGRY RUNAWAYS FOUND

Youngsters From Grants Pass "Seeing World" by Campfire.

Hungry, half-clothed, "broke" and dirty, two youngsters of 14 and 16 years, were found half a mile south of the Brooklyn railroad yards at the side of a bonfire they had built by Patrolman Trout Wednesday. Questioned, they said that they had run away from their home in Grants Pass because they were hungry.

Ted Burnley was the name the oldest gave, and Joseph Burnley was the name given by the other. Both were turned over to the Juvenile Court officials.

clearly the sort of friends we have and, having discerned just what they mean to us, how to shape our course as a result.

Most of us know these people who assist us in our good impulses. Few are so fortunate as to escape them all through life. They may be the girl friend who advises us not to tell our mother about the boys we are meeting, or where we are going or what doing; the fellow-worker who sneers at our following are the committees:

programming, Mrs. Edith C. LaBarre, Mrs. L. B. Salmon, Mrs. A. Voorhees, Miss E. Gotshall; press

committee, Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden, Miss Jessie Hammond; literature committee, Mrs. L. H. F. Addison, Mrs. E. A. Atchison; literary induction, Mrs. Anna E. Dye, Mrs. Nathan Harris, Miss Anne Shannon Monroe; review, Miss Lois Bain, Miss Eleanor Baldwin; social, Mrs. L. B. Bartlett, Mrs. C. D. Lynn; resolutions, Mrs. Elizabeth Godding, Mrs. M. R. Dee; decorations, Mrs. Alice Webster; Mrs. Collis M. Dowling.

Chapter E. P. E. O. Sisterhood, will meet on Thursday of next week at the home of Mrs. John Risley, Risley Station.

In an article on "The Position of Women in India," in the General Federation Magazine, Sardar Dalip Singh Gill gives some interesting views of the life of the women of her country.

She says:

"In the first place, I must admit that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit

that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write.

Again, I regret being obliged to admit that the women of India are not as well educated as in fact only a very small percentage of them are educated. This is regrettable as it is important that all should make the admission, but I must state that the lack of education has been the result of the poverty of the masses, money and for the reason that Indian people do not care to educate their children, male and female. There are many illiterates and many other thousands absolute illiterates, not able to read and write