STRONG PLEA MADE

British Workmen Still Backward, Says Lloyd George.

11 ARSENALS BEING BUILT

"Has State Kept Its End of Bargain?" Shouts Delegate—Minister Replies Surplus Profits to Go Into Treasury.

BRISTOL, England, Sept. 9.—Amid uproarious applause and some confusion caused by an insistent delegate demanding the right to question him, David Lloyd George, the British Minister of Munitions, addressed a packed hall of trade unionists here today, striking the keynote of his speech with the declaration that the war had resolved itself into a conflict between the mechanics in the contending nations.
 "With you," said the Minister, "victory is assured. Without you, our cause is lost."
 "I come here as the greatest employer of labor in this country. You passed resolutions yesterday pledging yourselves to assist the government in a successful prosecution of the war, and I am here in behalf of the government to take you at your word."
 British Workmen Superior.
 As between British and German workmen, the Minister said, he believed the British were the better.
 Mr. Lloyd George said that notwithstanding all efforts made to speed up the work of turning out war munitions, only 15 per cent of the available machinery was being worked on night shifts.
 "The country is not doing its best," he declared.
 The Minister said the government had under construction 11 arsenals, to man which 200,000 more men were required.
 "The government," he added, "cannot equip the army at this time unless the unions assist during the war all restrictions barring unskilled labor and all restrictions tending to prevent maximum output."
 "Has the state kept its end of the bargain?" a voice shouted.
 "No," another voice answered.
 Replying to this, Mr. Lloyd George said the surplus profits of the firms engaged in munitions work would go to the treasury to finance the war. The trade union congress adopted virtually without opposition at today's session a resolution presented by the Railway Clerks' Union on the subject of recruiting. The congress resolved: "That this congress, being convinced that the issues involved in the present European war are of transcendent importance to the democracies of this and other countries, hereby record its entire approval of the action of the parliamentary labor party in co-operating with the other political parties in the national recruiting campaign."

 The consensus of opinion as revealed in speeches in support of the resolution was that it was but part of the teaching of trades unionism that it is the duty of man to turn the other cheek to the man who smites him.

 The Temps also says that Said Pasha, military governor of Adrianople, has been summoned to Constantinople to be court-martialed for refusing to execute orders relative to the cession of territory to Bulgaria along the railroad line to Dedegatch as provided in the recent agreement between Bulgaria and Turkey.

BRITISH INVADE PERSIA

CITY ON GULF OCCUPIED FOLLOWING KILLING OF OFFICERS.

Government Fails to Punish Tribal Chiefs and Further Action is Considered by Allied Powers.
 LONDON, Sept. 9.—Because of the killing of two British officers near Bushire, Persia, and the failure of the Persian government to punish the tribal chiefs concerned in the affair, who, it is declared, were assisted by Germans, Bushire, a city of upward of 15,000 population on the Persian Gulf, was occupied by the British without opposition August 27 according to advices received by Reuters' Telegram Company.
 Conditions in Persia are going from bad to worse, the advices add. The Persian central telegraph line has been cut since August 15 and the road from Bushire is completely blocked. ### FACTORY SITES VACATED

15 STREETS RELEASED TO PROVIDE PLACE FOR INDUSTRIES.
 Warrenton Proposes to Offer Inducements to Companies for Warehouses and Big Plants.

WARRENTON, Sept. 9.—(Special.)—The City Council Wednesday passed an ordinance vacating 15 streets in the Second Extension to Warrenton asked for by the D. K. Warren estate. The property involved 50 blocks.
 Four thousand dollars has already been expended by the Warren estate in preparation of plans for a series of industrial sites which cover the property vacated and considerable water frontage on the Columbia and Shipanon rivers.
 The south line of this property abuts the North Bank Railway, making it possible for tracks or spurs to be laid out to deep water. A part of the west property line adjoins the Hill terminal yards at Flavel docks, the north line is the Columbia River and the east line the Shipanon River. To provide proper industrial locations, a large number voluntarily petitioned the Council to grant the vacation asked.
 The trustees of the estate have promised to do their best to develop this property and by January, 1916, will be aided by the completion of the gravity water system now in course of construction. Water will be piped to this tract at the rate of 1,200,000 gallons a day.

 The Pacific Power & Light Company is ready to supply any quantity of electric energy that may be needed. These factors and the proximity to the Pacific Ocean are expected to bring this city to the front as a port of general call.
 To aid the growth of this city further an eight-room schoolhouse is being erected on a nine and one-half-acre tract and it is proposed to lay out a systematic athletic field for all outdoor games.
 The voters have petitioned for a special election to empower the City Council to create sewer districts and to pass on a proposed charter amendment adopting the Bancroft bonding act covering payments for street and sewer improvements. This election will be held September 30.
