After two weeks on the road the Portland Coast League champions—what were—will be back among us this afternoon for a six-game series with Vernon. Next week the Beavers will play the league-leading Seals, and then after a week with Oakland will bid alons to Portland for the season.

Today's game will commence at 3 o'clock and if rain interferes with this or any other game this week, a double-header will be booked for Sunday.

With the Pacific Coast race only six weeks to go it looks as if San Francisco will win the flag. Wolverton's team is three and one-half games to the good over Los Angeles. San Francisco will win the flag, wolverton's team is three and one-half games to the good over Los Angeles. San Francisco walloped the Angels five out of eight last week, and, as these two teams do not meet again this Fall, the Angels will undoubtedly find it tough aledding overtaking the Seals.

Two other separate and distinct fights are on in the league. Vernon and Salt Lake are putting up a superb battle for third position. Sait Lake had the call for a few games last week, but an even break on the series with Doe White's bunch put them back into the second division Sunday afternoon.

The other battle is for the cellar with

ARSITY SHORT OF TALENT OF COLUMN TALENT OF COURSE, they will not get it and if Manager Barnes wants to play his hand, Aberdeen may get stuck further. Barnes has two years more to run on his contract at $250 a month from January 1 to October 1 of each year.

Barnes has sent copies of all his contracts and correspondence to Judge W. W. McCredie, and he seems to have clean skirts. The Aberdeen club owes quite a lot of money and at one directors' meeting it was proposed that the club go into insolvency to avoid payment. This Barnes foiled, as indicated by a letter to President Bertrand. An excerpt from his letter reads:

And if our club was willing to consent to had forwards have an one but Captain Hunt of the Varsits line of last year.

The freshmen who are eligible for the team that will play Gonzaga, Colo.,

Manager Barnes tells of starting the ball club out on one road trip with exactly $75 in the treasury. Presum-ably the Northern Pacific Railroad furnished the transportation because this company is one of the chief creditors. Barnes' salary calls for $2250 for the nine months, but of this $1000 went back as his donation to the stock subscription. During the year Barnes sole Milligan for $100, Ward for $500 am Kircher for $500, so he has cost the Aberdeen club only $150 of treasury

Referring to the $500 received from the Ward sale, Barnes wrote Bertrand under date of September 4 from Se-

And, under the present condition under which the club stands, I absolutely refuse to result to you or to the club any part of the money received by me from the sale of Player Ward and I take this opportunity to advise you that from all moneys country positively deduct my salary as per my contract. And I state right here that I am liable any hour to dispose of Meikle, and after the balance of my September salary is paid I will pay our other lawful debts at this end, and if I am unable to pay every penny of the above debts in this way, after giving Aberdeen a reasonable chance to the soul and fails, I have reason to believe that the directors of the Northwestern League will take such scrion as the necessities of the case demand. On September 7 Barnes received a telegram notifying him that his three-year contract had been abrogated.

SEVERAL huskles have reported to Coach Stanley Borleske for train-The other battle is for the cellar with the Portlands and the Oaks as principals. Portland seemed to have the edge on Rowdy Elliott's much villified aggregation until the Mackmen cracked under the strain Sunday. Their loss of a double-header to the Oaks brought the latter to within the thickness of a dime of fifth position.

All the champion Macks—McCredie, McGraw and McGilicudd;—are bowing to the yoke of humility this year. McCredie is within one step of the basement, while McGraw's champion New York club and Connie Mack's champion Philadelphias are already snugly quartered at the lower extensity of the coal chute.
