Congratulations are pouring into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Escobar on the birth of a little daughter, who arrived yesterday morning. Mr. Escobar is consul of Chile.

It rarely happens that a bridegroom composes his own wedding march, but such is the case with E. G. Griffith, whose wedding to Miss Olga Golberg, of Oregon City, was solemnized last night at the home of the bride's mother, H. Berg. Rev. H. O. Hendrickson officiated.

Dr. Emil Enna conducted the orchestra which played the wedding march and later in the evening played several other compositions of the bridegroom. The wedding march was brilliant and ultra-modern and the ceremonial music, also the work of Mr. Griffith, was along similar lines. Music was quite a feature of the function, an elaborate programme being arranged.

William Walker sang "Oh, Promise Me," A. W. Leuboy, of the Orpheus Male Chorus, sang "The Song of the Lark," and Mrs. Julia Berg-Hufford also contributed a vocal solo. Charles Swenson participated in the programme with a piano solo, Wilbur Allen with a violin solo and A. Berger contributed a piano solo.

The bride was attended by Misses Alma Gunhus, her cousin; Nettie Benson, niece of S. Benson; Dorothy and Florence Griffith, sisters of the bridegroom. Two bridesmaids, Misses Lillian and Olga Berg, were also in the bridal party and Lawrence Lamar acted as best man.

The house was decked with seasonal flowers, pink being the keynote of the color scheme. The bride was crowned in a white satin and lace gown, worn with long tulle veil, which was fastened with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony a reception was held and a buffet supper served. Among those who assisted about the rooms were Mrs. Otto F. Nelson, wearing a gown of white crepe de chine and lace; Mrs. Hilda Hoyt, white satin and lace; Mrs. Evelyn Kleinmehagen, a gown of white satin.

Mrs. Golberg's gown was of black embroidered satin and Mrs. H. Berg wore a handsome gown of plain black satin.

Serving at the supper table were Misses Mabel Glenn, Edna Rice, Mrs. Francis Whalen, Mrs. Cecilia Bloch and Mrs. E. Ellingboe.

Mr. Griffith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Griffith and has been identified prominently with musical activities in Portland for some time. He is business manager for Ellers Piano House. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Golberg, of Oregon City, and popular in her set. Mr. and Mrs. Griffith will be at home after October 20 at 935 Caruthers street.

A delightful card party was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Cornelius Sweeney at her apartments in Haddon Hall, complimenting Miss May Joyce, who will become the bride of A. O. Robinson on Sunday. Three tables were arranged for cards. Mrs.
