Four Clever Models, Distinctly Different

You could not wish for more real smartness of style—for more goodness of material—for more perfection of tailoring, than is embodied in these suits.

The jackets favor the new 32-inch length, in single and double-breasted mannish effects. Suits that are silk braid bound—models with velvet collars and cuffs—button-trimmed suits.

Of the finest gabardines, whipcords, poplins and new Scotch mixtures, in black, navy, African brown and gray.

The skirts are pleated, with the correct flare at the bottom. And the jackets are every one lined with an extra quality of peau de cygne silk. —Third Floor

Gray wigs made to order at the lowest prices.

6 to 17 years.

If these suits were not of a distinctly high-grade character there would be no such wonder in the price. Not only are make, fit and fabric the best, but there is a "nobbiness" in the style of all these suits. In sizes for boys from 6 to 18 years, which are most desirable for Fall wear. In Norfolk models and of fancy medium-weight materials. The pants are full lined and have taped seams.

Our Boys' New Fall Suits at $4.95

Have No Equal at the Price

As handsome a suit as any boy ever wore, with the clean-cut smartness of custom tailoring, the "staying" qualities of all-wool fabrics and the thoroughness of making appreciated by mothers who know how much it means. And every suit comes

With an Extra Pair of Trousers
