CENTENARIAN IS DEAD

MRS. ROSAMOND ROBERTS EMERY, AGED 101, PASSES AWAY.

Dead Woman Cast Her First Vote at Age of 99 in California—Will Be Buried at Bakersfield.

Mrs. Rosamond Roberts Emery died at the home of her only grandson, Herman P. Emery, 547 Fourth street, Thursday, at the age of 101 years. Her grandson will leave with the body next Wednesday for Bakersfield, Cal., where the funeral will be held, in accordance with her last wishes.

Mrs. Emery cast a vote at an age when most persons have given up the life race. She was 79 years old and was living in Pacific Grove, Cal., at the time. She was escorted to the polls by townsmen, and proudly cast her first vote for Roosevelt and Governor Johnson. She took a keen interest in public affairs in spite of her advanced age.

She has lived in Portland since August, 1912.

Mrs. Emery was the youngest of a family of 12 children, and was born January 17, 1814, at Edgington, Me. Her father was 60 years old at the time of her birth. She married at the age of 17, but her husband died within five years. She had one son, Charles H. Emery, who died at the age of 70, and was survived by his only son, Herman Emery of Portland.

In 1861 Mrs. Emery came west, settling in Stockton, and later in Bakersfield, Cal. In 1889 she moved to Pacific Grove, where was her home until 1912.
