County Gets Bill for Board of Seized Fighting Cocks.

An echo of the cockpit raid by Sheriff furthurt and his deputies last February was heard yesterday when the County Commissioners received a bill for $10 for "preserving the evidence," as District Judge Jones had ordered. The "evidence" was 15 or 20 busky fighting cocks which the Sheriff turned over to a local concern to care for fighting cocks which the Sheriff turned over to a local concern to care for during March and April, while the judge's order was still in effect.

The County Commissioners demanded an explanation of the amount of the bill. Replying, Chief Deputy Sheriff R. H. Thompson declared the bill for taking care of the birds was not excessive because of their "pugragelous teams." sive because of their "pugnacious ten-
