work. Notification was given to the pastor, Rev. A. L. Crim, to close his work as pastor of the church within from 30 to 90 days' time.

Rev. Mr. Crim said yesterday that the property of the church was mort-gaged to its full value. He said that it probably would be a full year before all the work of foreclosing had been accomplished and the property finally turned over to the creditors of the church. He said that the organization did not feel like continuing its work in the face of the foreclosing operations.
