

STRUGGLE TO PAY CREDITORS IS LONG

Dr. Hillis Cuts Liabilities From $800,000 to Less Than $200,000.

MONEY OWED NOTED MEN

Stock Repurchased With Personal Notes After Ventures in His Enterprise Prove Unprofitable.

The Rev. Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, of Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, whose unsuccessful ventures into the field of speculation and investment called forth his explanation in his historic pulpit in Brooklyn Sunday, has been likened by his friends, many of whom he has in Portland, to Sir Walter Scott's Mark Twain and General U. S. Grant, all of whom, having plunged themselves into debt, devoted their lives to paying creditors dollar for dollar as nearly as possible.

Dr. Hillis' creditors at one time numbered among others some big men in the world's affairs. Various lawsuits started even some years ago revealed the fact that Dr. Hillis had bought certain lands in the Pacific and turned them over at a profit; that he engaged in timber enterprises and in them interested Sir Alfred Harmsworth, now Lord Northcliffe; Pomeroy, once a newspaperman of Brooklyn and New York, but now in Lord Northcliffe's employ in England; and Leigh J. Hunt, the New York capitalist.

tain Rupert said yesterday that he had promised to turn out later and will do so, he said, if he is not called for several contests during the season.

Johnny Parsons, the former Oregon star, was out to practice yesterday morning. He said that he would be on the job tomorrow evening when the team will again work out under the arc lights on Multnomah field.

Promising Recruit Found.

About a half hour's hard scrimmaging was indulged in and the pigskin warriors knew that something had been accomplished when they had finished. The workout pleased Rupert, who uncovered a promising looking youngster, named Anderson, who worked at half for the cookies.

Keck Not Practicing.

Walter Keck has not yet done any preliminary work with the club and it does not look as though he will be in shape for the Oregon game, but Captain

"None for You, Teddy!" Can't blame a boy for keeping all he can get of the NEW Post Toasties. You'll know why when you taste the new delicious flavor—along with a body and tender crispness that don't mush down in cream. In the new process of manufacture, intense heat expands the interior moisture, raising little pearl-like "puffs" on each flake—a distinguishing feature of the New Post Toasties. Your grocer has them now.
