At the same time the Federal representatives and their supporters an peared anxious to persuade the conference to agree to some compromise which, however, would still embody the principle of Federal control.

Compromise Is Urged.

Governor Lister, of Washington, Democrat and Administration man, in speech yesterday morning declared himself for compromise, and Commissloner Tallman urged the same thing The feeling of the delegates opposed to the Ferris bill, in their attitude that the interests of the West will never permit of compromise with the principle of Federal-control, was well expressed by ex-Senator Piles, of Seattle, when, in the course of a rousing address on "State Ownership of Water Power." he said:

"Of course we protest against the Ferris bill. This is not a question of assalling any officer. It is not a question of impugning any men's motives There is no partisanship or personality in our attitude. It is simply a question of our fundamental rights.
