Ping Bodle has hands the size of a flock of Westphalian hams and his neck could easily serve as dummy in an automobile tire factory. But withal Ping can hit the ball. His terrific home run into the left field bleachers yesterday in the 15th inning broke up as fiercely fought a battle as Recreation Park has witnessed in several weeks. Score, San Francisco 6, Portland 5. It was the first game of the series, and the start showed our old friend Bill Steen, now a Seal, opposing Southpaw Johnny Lush, Neither finished. Steen was kicked out of the box in the tenth, and "Hook 'em" Smith, Tillie BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

steen was kicked out of the box in the tenth, and "Hook 'em" Smith, Tillie Cavet and Charles Fanning followed in panerama. Kahler relieved Lush in the 11th and it was the big Clevelander who receipted for the famed fence-buster's theatrical thump into the bleachers along about dark time.

This tally of 4-4 held good through four additional innings, which bripgs us back to the original starting point, to wit, Ping Bodie. Bodie was first man up in the 15th inning, and his homer made it 5-4 in San Francisco's homer made it 5-4 in San Francisco's tration.

Fortland added its final run in the last of the 15th. Stumpf belted one of Smith's hooks against the left-field fence to within one foot of the top of the palisade, scoring Bates. That 12 inches of board cost another tie score, but perhaps it saved some of the 1203 fans from much domestic unbappless. fans from much domestic unhappiness. So there's that consolation.

Game Long Drawn Out. The extra inning engagement did not son High break up until past the 5:30 o'clock Saturday.

In a negative sense, Fred Derrick and Roy Corhan were easily the fielding features. The former allowed himself to get tangled up in two unusual miscues that presented the Seals with three of their six tailles.

In the second Fred made a bad throw to the plate, One man scored on the erratic chuck and another was motilined home by Umpire Held because the ball rolled into the playing bench. In the sixth inning Derrick tried to bluff an out at first base by rolling the ball out into the diamond, but it rolled to far and got by Bates, Bodie pulling up at second base. Downs scored him with his first two-bagger.

As an exhibition of skillful baseball, gald gams ought to be sent to the booby hatch, but from a spectacular viewpoint it was a peach.

Twice the Beavers snatched victory from defeat, only to curl up ultimately and wilt under Bodle's home run.

In the ninth, with the score 3-2 against them, a double by Stumpf and a single by Fisher tied the score, Jerry Downs put the Seals in front again in the tenth by doubling to center following a base on balls, and again Portland tied the count. Corhan's error at short paved the way, and singles by Bates and Speas hoisted a run homeward.

RANKING TENNIS PLAYERS TO ENTER OPEN TOURNEY.

Portland, Scattle, Albany and Eugene to Be Represented in Play on New Asphalt Courts.

Several ranking Portland tennis players are planning to make the trip to Salem Thursday and Friday for the Second annual Willamette Valley open tournament. Among these will be A. D. Wakemian, J. B. Edgar, A. B. McAlpin, Kenneth McAlpin, George Durham and James Shives, and among the women. Mrs. W. I. Northup, Miss Stella Fording and probably Miss Mabel Ryder, in addition there will be several players from Seattle, and among the Valley towns Albany and Eugene will be represented by liberal contingents.

The play will be on the lately completed asphalt courts of the Salem Tennis Association. These have been bullt with particular care for drainage and play is possible at all times except during rains. The chairman of the tournament is Paul Wallace and entries should be addressed to him at Salem.

Been reached it is considered that such a transaction as has been indicated is likely to go through.

As is well known, the McCredle's were anxious to buy the San Francisco club when Cal Ewing offered it for sale, and were more than a little miffed when Henry Berry was the lucky purchase. Next to San Francisco, Oaksland, properly handled and with conditions right, is the league money-maker which is doubtless the reason for the attitude assumed by the Oregonians.

Other magnates in the league, so it is understood, look with favor upon such a proposition.
