BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Downtown yesterday was Dollar day, but out at the Coast League ball park it was Bodie day. Bodie was nearly the whole show in a ball game that was played 'neath drizzling clouds, The Seal outfielder hit safely three times in four, scored two runs and, in the last of the ninth, saved the game for San Francisco by a spectacular circus catch against the deep center field fence, sending the Beavers to the cellar.

Harry Krause was the particular victim of Bodieitis. Krause was sent out to pinch hit for Fisher in the ninth, with Stumpf on first base, and by rights he should have had a two-bag-

Fewer than 200 fans turned up at the park, but, notwithstanding, there was more than the usual amount of noise and pepper on deck. The game was played in one hour and 25 minutes, which seems to be the usual time for Umpires Held and Toman to get them through nine innings.

Rival twirlers were Higginbotham for Portland and Southpaw Brown for San Francisco. Brown outpointed Higg because he held the Mackmen to five scattered blows to 12 of fthe Teuton. Higginbotham pitched air-tight ball except for a wild pitch, which cost him two of his three debits.

Brown held Portland safe the rest of the afternoon until the ninth, when Bodle saved his scalp. It might be apropos to add here that if the New York Yanks had seen Ping perform this week against Portland they would never have canceled their draft.
