

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR TO PARADE TODAY

Officers of Grand Commandery Elected and Visit Paid to Washington Gathering.

COMPETITIVE DRILL HELD

Delegates at Vancouver Meeting Will Be Entertained in Portland Tonight and Impressive Ceremonial Planned.

Knights Templar of the Grand Commandery of Oregon held their annual election of officers yesterday, and besides transacting a mass of routine business witnessed a competitive drill for a banner between Washington and Oregon Commanderies, representing the East and West Side lodges of Portland, in which Oregon Commandery was successful. The Commandery went to Vancouver in a body last night to fraternize with the Grand Commandery of Washington, now in session there. This courtesy will be returned by the Washington lodges today and both will parade Portland streets this afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Officers elected yesterday were as follows: Louis G. Clarke, Portland, commander; W. F. Laraway, Hood River, deputy grand commander; E. E. Kiddle, Island City, grand generalissimo; George G. Brown, Salem, grand captain-general; James F. Robinson, Portland, grand recorder; John B. Cleveland, Portland, grand treasurer; Frank Baillie, Baker, senior grand warden; D. G. Tomasini, Portland, junior grand warden.

Welcome Given by Mayor. Yesterday's ceremonies were in the impressive form of Knighthood. Addresses of welcome by Mayor Albee, a member of the order, and Right Eminent Sir Knight Frank J. Miller, grand master of the Masonic Grand Lodge, with responses by Sir Knight Binger Hermann, of Roseburg; Clyde Evans, grand high priest, and William Wallace Youngson, prelate of Washington Commandery, occupied the morning session.

Grand Commander Dillon B. Grant, of Ashland, made his address at the opening of the afternoon session, which was followed by the election of officers.

At 5 o'clock yesterday the competitive drill between the two Portland commanderies was held, wives and families of the Knights forming the spectators. At the command of their leaders, the two teams, in full uniform, marched and wheeled and went through the most difficult evolutions in a way that brought frequent bursts of applause from the audience.

Each team marched for 20 minutes, when Oregon Commandery was judged to have given the better drill and the banner, already in the hands of Oregon Commandery, was awarded to it for another year.

Vancouver Parade Given. Following the drill, the Knights Templar caught a special train for Vancouver, where they formed a part of the parade held there upon their arrival and participated in ceremonies of the order there last night. They returned at a late hour.

Sessions of the Grand Commandery will be resumed this morning at 9:30 at the Masonic Temple. This afternoon a spectacular parade will be given by Grand Commanderies of both Oregon and Washington, the line of march being as follows: Couch and Broadway, south on Broadway to Washington, east to Third, south to Morrison, west to Sixth, north to Washington, east to Twelfth, north to Alder, west to Stark, where the parade will disband. Tonight there will be a reception to the visiting Knights from the neighboring state, followed by the conferring of the Order of the Knights of the Mediterranean Seas and Knights of Malta in long form. This is expected to be a most impressive ceremony.

Miss Stegner took up the subject and explained the making of a number of inexpensive and attractive fancy foods.

Rice croquettes were made. Miss Stegner explained why croquettes fall to pieces. Among the other things made were cream of chicken soup, dining, soft custard and orange blanc mange. RAILROADS LOSE CHARGE

Seattle to Tacoma Grain Diversion Must Be Done Free.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Sept. 23.—(Special.)—In a divided decision, the majority of the Public Service Commission ruled today that railroads will not be allowed to make a diversion or reconignment charge of $2 per car on hay and grain shipments originally billed to Seattle and transferred en route to Tacoma, or vice versa.

The entire Puget Sound hay and grain trade on Puget Sound has been built up on the diversion practice, for which no charge has been made until this year. Chairman C. A. Reynolds and Commissioner A. A. Lewis, in denying the railroads authority to make the charge, say that when railroads were valued in 1911, the expense of diversion was considered in fixing rates, and that to allow a special charge now would result in shippers paying twice.

After lunch an informal reception for the Royal Arch, Council and Knights Templar ladies was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Crawford, where refreshments were served and music furnished.

MR. KNISPEN EXONERATED

Indictments on Forgery Allegation Dismissed by Prosecutor.

Julius Knispel, Socialist orator and secretary of the Anti-Slavery Movement League, was exonerated from the charges of forgery which have been hanging over his head for six months, when Deputy District Attorney Collier dismissed the indictments against him. Knispel, as legal counsel for an Eastern woman, was alleged to have had guilty knowledge of the forgery of her name to a note.

Repeatedly Knispel has asked that he be tried on the charge, but the state's principal witness could not be found and the case was postponed from time to time. Since the indictments were returned against him Knispel has severed his connection with the Socialist party and has ceased his soap-box activities.

What Thin Folks Should Do To Gain Weight

Good Advice For Thin, Underdeveloped Men and Women.

Thousands of people suffer from excessive thinness, weak nerves and feeble stomachs who, having tried advertised flesh-makers, food-fads, physical culture stunts and rub-on creams, resign themselves to life-long skinniness and think nothing will make them fat. Yet their case is not hopeless. A recently discovered combination of assimilative agents has made fat grow after years of thinness, and it is also unexcelled, judging from reports, for repairing the waste of sickness or faulty digestion and for strengthening the nerves. This remarkable preparation is called Sargol, six strengthening, fat-producing assimilative elements of acknowledged merit have been combined in this preparation, which is endorsed and used by prominent people everywhere. It is absolutely harmless, inexpensive and efficient.

A few weeks systematic use of Sargol should go far to produce flesh and strength by correcting faults of digestion and by applying nourishing fats to the blood. If not every druggist who sells it is authorized to return the purchase price, increased fourfold, if the fat does not grow, and the additional fat that thin people need is thus provided. All leading druggists are thus provided. All leading druggists are thus provided. All leading druggists are thus provided.
