FEDERAL JOBS ARE OFFERED.—The United States Civil Service Commission announces the following examinations: October 15, public health statisticians, male, for a position in the public health service, Washington, D. C., salary, $2500 per annum; October 20, junior chemists in radioactivity, male, to fill vacancies in the bureau of mines, Denver, Colo., at salaries ranging from $1200 to $1500 per annum; October 20-21, laboratory aid in chemistry and physics, men and women, for a position in the bureau of plant industry, Washington, D. C., salary $600 to $900 per annum; October 25, forest ranger, male, salary $1100 to $1200 per annum. Information and application blanks may be obtained from T. V. Hutchins, local secretary, Postoffice building.

CHURCH PIONEERS AT ABANDONED.—Woodlawn Christian Church Bible school will give an instructive programme tomorrow at 8 P. M., the occasion being that of the graduation exercises of a "training for service" class, in the study of the Bible, conducted by A. E. Gardner, instructor for the past year. There will be a class drill in the Bible study; the principal address of the evening will be delivered by Mrs. Clara G. Essen, state Bible school superintendent. The presentation of the diploma will be made by the superintendent of the school, D. T. Short. A cordial invitation is extended to all church and Bible school workers to be present.

IDEAL PROBLEM TOPIC TODAY.—The problem of unemployment will be discussed at the first meeting this season of the Oregon Civic League, held today at noon at the Multnomah Hotel, George L. Baker, Commissioner of Public Affairs, will deliver an address. The general discussion will be by Isaac Swett, secretary of the organization. Other subjects which are to be taken up in the future at the Saturday noon meetings of the league are "Milli-tarism in the Schools of Portland," and the question of commission form of government as compared with the councilmanic.

MR. HARDY TO SPEAK.—George E. Hardy, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will address the men's current events class of Westminister Presbyterian Church tomorrow at noon. His subject will be "Constructive Work for the Men of Portland." This will be the initial meeting of the class for the season and a large attendance of men is expected. The officers of the class are: President, Charles E. Cochran; vice-president, J. L. Bowman; secretary, Hugh Henry. Men of Irvington and all parts of the city will be welcome.

CENSORS WANT CITY MOVIE THEATRE.—A municipal motion-picture theater, where the censor board can view films, as planned by a board to centralize the work. The plan was submitted to Mayor Albee yesterday. He will investigate. At present the board members go to the various theaters to see pictures and pass upon them. The new plan is to have one place where all films must be brought for viewing. The picture theater proprietors will be asked for their opinions.

LAND SHOW BUILDING PERMIT GIVEN.—The City Council voted unanimously yesterday to grant a building permit to the Chamber of Commerce to construct a temporary wooden building on the streets surrounding the Armory for a land products show. The permit was granted upon request of a committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The building will be similar to that erected a year ago for the same purpose.

J. D. FARRELL TO MOTOR TO FAIR.—J. D. Farrell, president of the O.-W. R. & N. Co., and son, James, have started on an automobile trip to San Francisco. They expect to travel leisurely and are scheduled to arrive there early next week. Mrs. Farrell and their daughter, Miss Helen, will go by rail and join them at San Francisco. They expect to pass about three weeks viewing the sights of the fair.

CITY MAY BUY ST. JOHNS MAINS.—The Portland water bureau is at liberty to lay a system of mains in St. Johns if it desires, according to an opinion written yesterday by City Attorney LaRoche. He says the St. Johns Water Works & Lighting Company, which owns the water system there now, has no exclusive franchise or rights. The owners of the St. Johns system have offered to sell the plant to the city for $130,000. Commissioner Daly has received this offer, and while entering it has investigated to see if the water bureau of Portland could not lay its own system at lesser cost.

ACCOUNTANTS SUE HIGHWAY.—The delegation of public accountants which visited Portland en route from Seattle to San Francisco, finished its visit here yesterday with a trip up the Columbia Highway and left last night for the south. The party are representatives of all of the leading cities of the East, who came west to attend the National convention in Seattle. The Oregon Society of Certified Public Accountants co-operated with the Chamber of Commerce in the entertainment of the party. W. D. Whitcomb was chairman of the reception committee.

COUNCIL JUNKET VOTED DOWN.—Municipal junketing, which in times past has been in order in Portland, is now a lost art. The Council yesterday turned down a plan to send an official to Spokane to attend the annual convention of the League of Northwest Municipalities. The Council decided that it will be glad to have a representative at the meeting provided there is no expense attached to it. Mayor Albee was given power to delegate somebody, but nobody now is anxious to go.

SEATTLE FIREMEN'S BAND IN TONIGHT.—Members of the Portland Firemen's Band will be hosts to the Seattle Firemen's Band tonight at a banquet at the Chamber of Commerce. The Seattle band will be in the city en route to San Francisco to attend the fair. The city band will parade the streets commencing at 8 o'clock, and will end up at the banquet. This will be attended by the members of the Portland band, members of the City Council and others.

WILLAMETTE SWIMMERS GET TYPHOID.—Four cases of typhoid fever, traceable directly to swimming in the Willamette River north of Portland, are reported by City Health Officer Marcelus. Two of the cases are of men who swam in the river often. The other two are a case of a man who swam in the river every evening, and the fourth a woman who swam in the river occasionally, north of the Broadway bridge.

JACOB KANZLER IS NAMED.—Jacob Kanzler, president of the Progressive Business Men's Club and one of the directors of the 1915 Rose Festival, has been appointed secretary of the city bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, of which S. D. Vincent is president. The civic bureau has charge of the Rose Festival, charities, safety first and city beautification enterprises and other movements of a civic nature. Mr. Kanzler will take his new position on October 1.

WANTED.—A pure basso voice for male quartet, must read music. Give name and address. AL 130, Oregonian.—Adv. N. J. FULTON returned, 181 13th, until further notice. Main 4641.—Adv. STATE FAIR, Salem, Admission 50c; children, under 10, free.—Adv. DR. HUBERT F. LEONARD, RETURNED.

Yeoman-Made Shells Fizzle Executive's Salute. Cruiser Boston Honors Governor Moses Alexander's Departure With Four Bangs and Thirteen Mistfires.

Remorse is Asserted. In the note telling of her intention, Miss Turner wrote of remorse that she could scarcely stand. It was concluded with the following lines: "Please don't accuse anyone of this. I am better off. My conscience is clear. I have worked hard to get my things and they are paid for, and now I have to leave them to someone else. If I had only quit my foolishness and married, if only I had chloroform, how much easier."

Injuries Serious and May Prove Fatal—Edna Turner, 32, Seamstress, Blames Rash Deed on Inability to Collect Bills.

Relationships Not Known. The young woman lived in her quarters in the Fiedner building. She came to Portland about two months ago, according to Fred Schwene, superintendent of the building. Nothing is known of her relatives and she did not regain full consciousness yesterday at the hospital. She was formerly in partnership with Miss L. MacMillan, whom she accuses in her note of causing trouble that resulted in the dissolving of partnership.

First-Run Pictures. The National Theater will return tomorrow at 11 A. M. to motion pictures. There will be an exclusively first-run motion picture program. Second-run pictures will not be shown at all. The first release Sunday will be William Faversham, in Sir Gilbert Parker's, "The Right of Way". Owing to the great cost of this unusual feature, prices at the National will be 10 and 15 cents.
