

NEW DAHLIAS ADDED

Second National Show Attracting Large Attendance.

OUTSIDE ADDITIONS COME

Judging Partially Done and Striking Variety of Blooms Provokes Enthusiasm—Hanging Baskets Particularly Admired.

Still fresh and luxuriant, exciting the admiration of large numbers, are the thousands of dahlias that adorn the display room of the second annual National Dahlia Show, on the sixth floor of the Meier & Frank building.

Although the judging list is still incomplete, a large number of the blue ribbons have found place on some of the fairest of the flowers. The great baskets with their masses of the choicest blooms are the center of admiring visitors, who remark particularly about the huge and artistic baskets of Clarke Bros., filled with the Tacoma variety. The peculiar-colored silvery-very pink flowers, with a sheen of gold are built in with ferns and a golden bow completes a beautiful and staid basket design.

Gill Bros. have a light and striking hanging basket filled with Oregon Beauties of a vivid red. Pink shaded white Gwendolyn Tuckers and a mass of maline embellish the Mantick basket. Great Mistle Bergler gracefully peep out of the dark fern-banked Tensath Bros. basket. More ornate and with a touch of the unique is the Routledge Seed Company's shapely basket of Leo XIII variety.

Rose Tables Added. A number of rose tables have been added, and among these the Sherbrooke display, grown at Corvallis, is notable. The Swiss Floral Company has edged the front wall of the room with a symmetrical display of fern and woodland flowers.

Special sweepstakes prizes were awarded to W. D. Phillips on his W. W. Tison; special seedling class, to C. L. Mastick on Lady Alla, the fragrant dahlia, and the Franklin Graham and an unnamed fragrant dahlia. In the special professional class, Mrs. E. G. Tyler is named.

Special amateur prizes fell to Mrs. Richard M. Buttle, 1914 seedling, Tiger Tail; to Richard M. Buttle, on 1915 seedling, Chief Joseph; on 1915 seedling, Peggy; and on large red seedling, Mrs. C. H. Stout, New Jersey, won on Sunshine, 1914 seedling; Spokane Horticultural Society, on Dr. Perry.

Richard M. Buttle became final holder of the Everett Rose Society cup for the best three blooms; Mrs. E. F. Alexander won for the nine cactus dahlias; E. E. Huckabay won the cup for three best blooms of Kaif, and the Willamette Floral Company cup for three best Van Dykes. Best three stems of Oregon Beauties, owned by Mrs. F. T. Barlow, won the Gill Bros. cup.

ALL-STAR COMPANY TO OPEN SEASON AT HEILIG.

Mabel Taitaferro and Thomas W. Ross.

The regular season of the Heilig Theater, located on Broadway at Taylor street, will be inaugurated next Tuesday evening by five of the most popular stars of the American stage. William H. Crane, Thomas W. Ross, Macklyn Arbuckle, Laura Hope Crews and Mabel Taitaferro, assisted by an efficient supporting company, under the direction of Joseph Brooks, will present Bronson Howard's brilliant comedy, "The New Henrietta".

The appearance of stars of the luster and fame of those mentioned is an event of importance, and when the play is such a masterpiece of American stage literature as Bronson Howard's work, there is no doubt but that a wonderful evening's entertainment is assured. The company at present is appearing at the Cort Theater in San Francisco and has scored one of the greatest successes in the annals of California amusements. The engagement at the Heilig is for five nights, with matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

WOMAN LEAPS FROM AUTO

Machine, Beyond Control, Is Run Into Post, but Others Are Unhurt.

Fearing death waited at the bottom of a hill on Taylor Ferry road yesterday when control was lost of the automobile she was in Mrs. E. J. Stroud, of 184 1/2 East Broadway, jumped from the machine and received a compound fracture of her left arm, but the other occupants of the car were uninjured when it brought up with a crash against a telephone post half way down the hill. This happened shortly before 6 o'clock last night near the Riverview Cemetery.

"Tell Me the Secret"

"How do you make such delicious muffins? Mine are always so dry. How do you do it?"

It is the baking powder. To make muffins, cakes and pastry rich and moist, yet light and feathery, a modern double acting baking powder must be used—one that will give off leavening gas in the oven as well as in the mixing bowl.

KC BAKING POWDER

is really a blend of two baking powders, one of which starts to raise as soon as moisture is added. The other is inactive until heat is applied. This sustains the raise until your muffins, biscuits or cake is done. K C Baking Powder costs less than the old fashioned quick acting kinds, yet you need use no more and it is superior to them in every way. Try a can of our risk and be convinced.
