REED TO SEE ROAD VIEWS.—At Reed College assembly today at it o'clock, Henry Berger will show colored views of the Colu bia River Highway. These of the Colu bia River Highway. These pictures were made with the Paget color process. Mr. Berger will be assisted by Frank I. Jones, who has taken many of the pictures. The public is invited to the assembly in the college chapel. At 3 o'clock, Dr. Knowition, of the department of physics, will give the seventh lecture in the extension course on natural science. His subject will be "A Glimpse Through a Prism." This course meets in the biological lecture room of the college.

TRUNK SEWER WILL BS OFFEND,—To demonstrate to the Council and the public that the outfall of the Water and Mill-street trunk sewers is really in had condition and in need or rebuilding, Commissioner Dieck is having shafts sunk down to the sewer which will enable persons to get down into it for inspection. Property owners are protesting against the proposed assess-ments for rebuilding the outfall, on the ground that the present pipe is all right. Mr. Dieck asserts that it is in danger of collapse, and proposes to demonstrate this by taking all interested persons down into the shafts.

SOAP-MARING TO BE RELATED,—"The Operation of a Modern Soap Factory" will be the subject of an address by J. R. Cornog at the regular meeting of the Oregon section of the American Chemical Society, which will be held at the Hazelwood Saturday, October 2, at 8 o'clock, at 6:30 P. M. Other papers will be read by other prominent members of the society and discussion of plans for the coming year will be made, this being the first meeting of the season of 1915.16.

Actor Normal and Has Ne Fads.

Mr. Crane has no fads. He lives a normal, happy, evenly balanced life.

"I respect my business and my business respects me," he says, "and that is sements will be taken up by Dr. Luther B. Dyott, pastor of the First Congregational Church, who will deliver a sermon on Sunday night with "Shall We Have Military Training in the Public Schools?" as the topic.

North Pacific College Opens.—An nual session begins October 1. As I grew older, and especially when my name was at the head of my own companies. I began to realize that I must be dignified, must leave the fool-ery to others. I began to respect my art, my business; and, as a result, it respects me."

Mr. Crane is renewing acquaintances during his visit in "The New Henrietta," One of his friends is Bishop Walter T. Sumner. The late Bishop Scadding and Mr. Crane were close friends, and the actor recalled that the prestilest thing ever said wheat his prettiest thing ever said about his work came from Bishop Scadding's lips, in the pulpit. "He said I always kept my stage clean; that in all the years of my professional work I had never had a play to which a man might not take his wife his children his mother." take his wife, his children, his mother or his sweetheart. That's a lovely tribute, I think."
