Veterans and Aspirants Vie in Putting Forth Best Efforts.

ANDERSON SHOWS UP WELL

Team From Halfback and Is Are Doing Good Work.

AGRICULTURAL COL-LEGE, Corvallis, Sept. 30,-(Special.)-The 26 men comprising the varsity football squad were put through half-hour of the hardest scrimmage of the year on the athletic field this aftperson. Two teams were selected by Doo Stewart as nearly equal in strength as possible and flew into the fraces with all the stuff at their command.

The struggle was hot and furious, with the team having what is generally conceded the second string backfield getting the better of the argument Dutch Hayes and Ed Alworth gained ground consistently through the line and around the ends and smeared the plays of the varsity backfield with Clover regularity. "Pete" Anderson, celebrating his return to the colors by mixing in the first grueling scrmmage of the week, broke through the line from his new position at tackle and dropped his man for a loss on more than one occasion. than one occasion.

Fighting Spirit Is Notable.

"Tough stuff for the first week in the game," said the perspiring veteran as he started for the gymnasium. The most hopeful feature noticed by a cursory sizing up of the Aggie squad a cursory sixing up of the Aggie squad is the aggressiveness and unrelenting fighting spirit which is characterizing the hard grind of the daily practice. Every man lends all that he possesses to the struggle, and there is no indication toward slowing up on the part of any one of the six veterans who might be expected to take things easy on the strength of past records. Abrahum Mastering Pass.

Abraham, the backfield star, is being groomed to run the team from his station at halfback and is also becoming adept at negotiating the forward pass, thereby endeavoring to fill partly the shoes of Art Lutz in addition to continuing his spectacular line plunges and end runs.

He can also do pretty well as a drop-kicker, but Cole, whose specialties are place kicks, is the man who is expected to score the most points from locations in front of the cross-bars.

Assistant Coach Pavey has charge of the freshman squad, which is the lightest aggregation of yearlings to report for several seasons past.

Barnes, a diminutive halfback, with high school experience gained at Goldendale, Wash, and at Salem, has been elected captain and is piloting the boys around the field with a dash which has won him the confidence of students and players. Nothing but his lack of weight keeps him from the varsity squad.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—"I have a wife and three children," William H. Halen, five minutes after he married Elizabeth Bondie, told his bride.

"Everything seemed favorable." said Mrs. Halen, to whom Judge Honore granted an annulment of marriage. "He offered marriage and we went before a justice of the peace. Then he told me he had a wife and three children, I left him immediately. He said the reason he did not tell me before was because he knew I wouldn't marry him then."

This did not satisfy Judge Honore. "Have you ever been able to account in your own mind for his deceiving you up to the time of your marriage and then immediately afterward telling you the truth?" he asked "No, sir, I can't," replied the com-
