ANGELS AND TIGERS DIVIDE

Vernon Uses Bush Pitcher, Who Loses, but Twirls Fair Game.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3 .- Los Angeles and Vernon divided honors in a double morning contest at Vernon 7 to 4 and the Tigers the afternoon game 1 to 0. The teams also broke even on the Week's series, each winning four games. In the morning game the Tigers used a new pitcher, Fred Fairbanks, a busher from the Oxnard, semi-professional league, who was picked up by the Vernon club to see what he could do. He pitched a fair game. No runs were scored in the afternoon battle until the cighth, when Eayless walked and crossed the plate on Wilholt's hot grounder to Butler. Wynn Noyes, the new Portland right-hander bought from Spokane, was opposed to "Dutch" Klawitter in the other.

Both engagements were air-tight pisching battles. A corking one-hand catch by Elmer Lober saved Lush's scalp in the eighth inning of the curtain-raiser, and sent the game a 1-1 tie into the ninth stanza.

Lush weakened ever so little by walking Ness as first man up in the ninth. Ness finallily wormed around to third on two bunts, one of which was gummed by Bates, and Lush wild-pitched him home with the winning tally. Another run was handed over on an error by Stumpf after Lush purposely walked Duddy to get at Beer.

Litschi batted for Beer, and Southpaw Burns pitched the final inning for the Onks.

He will—we can say this most emphatically—if he continues at the pace set yesterday. Any pitcher who can throw that hard-hitting Oakland bunch hack for 16 innings without a run is good enough for any minor league. Noyes appeared here two or three years ago as a member of the San Francisco Scals. He was a rockle then; now he is the finished product—made in Spokane—where the Northwestern League statistics sprout so prolifically.

Noyes allowed nine hits and Klawitter six, and fanned six as against three for the Teuton. Both are big, sixfooters with speed to burn.

side issue and by the middle of June will leave Oregon a full-fledged graduate.

To offset the joy of Bryant's return was the sorrow of "Al" Bigbee's latest injury. What was thought to be only a bruised or infected elbow proved, under a physician's X-ray, to be a splintered bone. Bigbee's arm was at once placed in splints and it is doubtful whether he will be in shape to work against Washington State College this coming Saturday.

Huntington still carries his torn back muscles in a sling and Tuerck is not in shape to go through the whole grind of a varsity battle, consequently the sun is not as bright as it might be in the Oregon locker-rooms. Bryant, by virtue of the hard outdoor work which he has been doing for the past six months, is physically able to play a regular game. Signals, however, can't be learned thoroughly in a few days, so the probability of Bezdek's sending him in the Washington-Aggie fray is remote.
