

ALLEGED MURDERER PLEADS BLANK MIND

Lee Dale Says Ten-Day Spree Preceded Slaying of Umatilla County Couple.

Note Written by Charles Ogilvy on Calendar After Being Mortally Wounded and Statement to Discoverers Are Evidence.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Asserting that his mind is blank concerning any incidents of the night of June 3, last, when he is alleged to have shot and killed Mrs. Charles Ogilvy and fatally wounded her husband at the ranch house of the victims in California Gulch, southwest of Pilot Rock, Lee Dale faced a jury in the Circuit Court here today.

Dale declares that he had been in Pendleton for 10 days on a cruise and debauch and just before reaching the Ogilvy ranch had drunk nearly a quart of alcohol.

The first witnesses called by the state told of the finding of Mrs. Ogilvy's corpse on the rear porch of her home and the subsequent finding of the body of her husband on his bed, with a mortal wound.

Ogilvy told a number of men, most of whom will be called to the stand, that Dale had shot both of them, fearing that he would not live, Ogilvy had scrawled a brief note on a calendar, accusing Dale as his slayer.

"I was in the milkhouse when Dale came," Ogilvy's dying declaration says. "I heard Dale and the old woman talking. She told him he was drunk and to go home to his wife. I started up the path toward them and saw him pull his gun and shoot her. I kept walking toward them. I didn't think he would shoot me. When I reached my wife she reeled and fell. I stooped to catch and lift her. While I was bent over her Dale shot me. I dragged my wife to the porch. Then I went into the house to get a gun and saw Dale going up the road. I got weak and crawled downstairs again and laid on my bed. After I wrote the note on the calendar."

Dale is 31 years old. With his wife, he has been on a homestead near the Ogilvy place. Mr. and Mrs. Ogilvy were pioneer residents.

MUNGER ANSWER DELAYED

Woman Sues for Divorce and Return of $2650.

Additional time in which to file an answer has been granted by Circuit Judge Morrow in the case of Florence T. Munger against H. M. Munger, an action for divorce on the ground of systematic desertion and conduct and non-support for the past year. The couple married in March, 1909.

Mrs. Munger is represented as counsel by her brother, Thomas Tongue, Jr., of Hillsboro. E. R. Tongue, District Attorney of Washington County, is another brother. The defendant is associated with his brother in the railway contracting business. Mrs. Munger requests custody of the two minor children, aged 5 years and 17 months, respectively. She further demands alimony of $100 per month and judgment for $2650, which amounts, she says she advanced to her husband shortly after their marriage to satisfy indebtedness which he had contracted prior to the marriage.

Among other things Mrs. Munger charges her husband with cruelty to the elder of their children, a girl 15, by contracting debts which he fails to pay, the result being that she is constantly haled into court, and with insulting her friends.

6 CENTS IS PRUNE PRICE

Gorwers Who Have Not Contracted Crop Got Higher Figure.

YANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Prune packers are now offering 6 cents flat for prunes as they are picked from the trees. This is an unusual price for ungraded prunes. Growers this year, in most instances, signed contracts at 5 1/2 cents per pound. Prunes in many orchards this year dropped before they were picked, the season was unusual and the fruit dried in a different way, all contributing to a reduction from the crop estimates. The packing season is now on in full force in the three packing plants here and at Ellsworth.

the importance of the structure, which he reminded them will stand for generations.

He paid a high tribute to the efficiency of the Reclamation Service and the men through whose work the creation of the dam was made possible. On behalf of the Government of the United States he presented the $5,000,000 structure to the settlers and for them he accepted it as a dedicated edifice.

Dam Compared With Canal.

Governor Alexander, in his address, pointed out that the Government, having performed the task of raising the highest dam in the world, had done so as the agent of the people to whom it belonged, and who would in the future treasure it.

He closed the structure as one of as great in proportion and accomplishment as the Panama Canal. Its cemented material an emblem of the unity there had been among men for the building up and protection of their Government.

Structure Better Than Warship. Its cost and that of the irrigation system of the project it waters was $12,000,000, less than that of a modern battleship, yet in the end much more beneficial to the people, he said.

The exercises were followed by a trip of inspection starting at the lower entrance, through the three parallel galleries at different heights inside the dam, the visitors in this way reaching its crest, over which they gained their first distinct impression of the structure's great height and immensity. Tomorrow a barbecue will be served at the fair grounds here to 10,000 persons in honor of the dam's completion.

FLEEING ROBBERS SHOT

BOTH ESCAPE AFTER ONE IS FELLE BY MILL OWNER.

Safe-Crackers Drop Loot When Surprised and Are Trained Three Miles to Waiting Auto.

CORVALLIS, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—Two men blew the safe and would have robbed the Lamar & Lama store at Peoria, Linn County, 12 miles southeast of Corvallis at 3 o'clock this morning, but for the appearance of Deputy Sheriff Leabo, of this county in time to prevent them carrying away the loot.

The robbers obtained about $13 in cash from the cash register, a pocket searchlight and a few minor articles. Leabo owns a sawmill at Peoria and was sleeping there when awakened by the explosion.

He grabbed his automatic and started for the store. When he drew near the store one of the men called to the other and started to run. Leabo

DERED HIM TO HALT AND THE ROBBER FIRED TWO SHOTS. LEABO OPENED FIRE BUT MISSED.

As the other robber left the store the Deputy Sheriff fired at him, the man falling at the fifth shot. Before the Deputy Sheriff could get to him he got up and ran, but Leabo being out of ammunition returned to the sawmill for another supply. They were tracked to Lafayette, three miles from Peoria, where they had left an automobile.

TROOPS TO AID SHERIFF

PICKED ARIZONA MILITIAMEN GO TO STRIKE DISTRICT.

New Effort to Be Made to Settle the Trouble at Mines, and Governor Hunt May Take Part.

CLIFTON, Ariz., Oct. 4.—Forty-eight militiamen, picked from the various companies of the Arizona National Guard, tonight were camped on the courthouse grounds here to aid Sheriff Cash, if necessary, to preserve order among striking miners of the copper companies. Quiet prevailed throughout the day in the Clifton-Morenci district.

Major Donkedsley is in command of the troops. Adjutant-General Harris will reach here tomorrow.

With the miners offering to meet officials of the mining companies in another effort to settle their differences, Sheriff Cash and other county officials declared tonight that every effort would be made to conclude negotiations whereby the 8000 miners in this district soon would return to work.

A message from Phoenix said that Governor Hunt, who came here last week for a few days, would return to Clifton if he could aid in settling the strike.

The miners employed by the Arizona, the Shannon and the Detroit copper companies quit work September 11 after the companies had refused to agree to a new wage scale and to recognize the Western Federation of Miners.

Sheriff Cash appealed to the Governor Sunday, when he feared trouble would ensue after Norman Carmichael, J. W. Bennie and Milton McLean, managers of the copper companies, had fled from the district.

DEAD MAN BLAMED

Cassius Case Tells of Feud Ending in Killing.

FRAUD DEALS CHARGED

Ernest Case, Brother, Said to Have Used His Education to Cheat Others of Family and Threatened Sam, Now in Jail.

OREGON CITY, Or., Oct. 4.—(Special.)—A story of family troubles that began on a pioneer farm in Polk County and ended Sunday night at Parkplace in the murder of one of the brothers by another was told today by Cassius M. Case, brother of Ernest Case, the dead man, and Sam Case, who is now in the County Jail, pending a preliminary examination. For the last year and a half, Cassius Case has been living with Sam and he graphically described the events which led to the crime. The wives of the principals of yesterday's tragedy are sisters.

The murder of Ernest Case came, Cassius said, after a long series of threats by Ernest.

Trouble Began in Childhood. The trouble between Ernest, on one side, and the rest of the family of seven girls and four boys, began during the childhood of the boys. Ernest was the youngest of the boys and, Cassius declared, was always talking advantage of his brothers and sisters.

"Sam and I stayed on the farm and worked so that Ernest could go to school," he said. "Sam was a good boy and we were willing to sacrifice our own time so that our brother could get a schooling. We believed that after Ernest had gone through school he would help us with his education. That was all we expected for reward."

"But when Ernest came from school he used the learning we had helped

J. Rufus Wallingford says,

"We have had a dream. Suppose you could invest a Loaf of Bread and Make a Fortune in the Movies?"

Properly manipulated, 10c would make anybody the owner of a share of preferred stock, an equal owner with 9,999 other investors. I myself might undertake the management of it. In such an event, speculators would not be wanted. This would be a serious conservative opportunity to turn over an investment many times in a week.

Nearly everybody goes to see Moving Pictures. Now the idea is to start a chain of co-operative theatres. If we got together 10,000 original investors of a dime for initial capital we could open a theatre here. Each stockholder could be prevailed upon to bring two customers which logically would give us 30,000 to start with, and with these agreeing to bring two each and so on, the imaginary company would make at least $300 a week profit on each theatre. Multiply this with 50,000 theatres, and we would have $15,000,000 a week. But to be perfectly conservative and for safety sake, so as not to inflate expectations cut this in half, and you have $7,500,000 a week. In a year this would become $380,000,000 to be divided share and share alike among the 10,000 original investors of 10c.

N. B.—Surplus capital might be invested in a Herring Farm, Jitney Busses, Mountain Roads, Moving Picture Producing Co., Hyocamus industries, etc.

How Sanatogen Relieves Poor Digestion and Nerve Strain

DIGESTION and the nervous system are interdependent. For while the products of digestion nourish the nerve cells, the nerves in turn control digestion.

Thus if aught wrongly effects either—the nerves or the digestive organs—the other also must suffer.

When, for instance, worry, overwork or shock interferes with digestion, the resultant lack of nourishment weakens the nervous system, causing nerve-strain. This nerve weakness then reacts and still further disturbs the faulty digestion.

At such times Sanatogen is especially helpful—first, because it is so easily assimilated by even an enfeebled digestion, and, second, because Sanatogen's chemical union of purest protein and organic phosphorus furnishes precisely the two elements most needed to restore not only the weakened digestion but the impoverished nerve cells as well.

This explains why Col. Waterson, the famous American editor, was able to write:

"I do not think I could have recovered my vitality, as I have done, without this Sanatogen operating equally upon the digestive organs and nerve centers."

And why Hon. Wm. E. Chandler, former Secretary of the Navy, wrote:

"Sanatogen is a pleasant nutriment for cases of impaired digestion. It strengthens without irritating and promotes vitality in feeble folks."

It also explains the striking endorsement of the medical profession as expressed in signed letters from over 21,000 physicians who have watched the work of Sanatogen in countless cases.

And it gives you the reason why we are so confident that Sanatogen can help you—when you give it an opportunity.
