"Most every fire that breaks out is caused by carelessness. It may be that the merchant or home owner cannot agree with that statement, but after the fire is over it always is easy to see how it might have been prevented. A consultation with the captain at this time may prevent a future fire."

every hour through fires in Oregon last year, Harvey Wells, State Insurance Commissioner, today issued an appeal to the people of Oregon to observe "Fire-Prevention day," which in a recent proclamation by Governor Withycombe was set for next Saturday.

Commissioner Wells advises people generally to inspect their homes and places of business to see that danger of fire is eliminated.

"Care should be taken to clean up yards, and burn accumulated raibbish away from buildings or fences where a fire might be started," advises the Commissioner. "Fires should not be made on days of high winds. Gather the trash in piles on a bare space and burn when some grown person is on watch; see that no child plays with burning brands and that the fire is quenched before leaving it.

"Some day we shall come to full realization of the great unnecessary loss entailed by fire and shall begin the right sort of preventive campaign to lower it. One place to begin is in the schools. By teaching the children, some of whom will in a few years administer the laws, a long stride toward fire prevention will be taken, and the children, while being taught, will interest parents, who will, as never before, recognize the important subject will aid in the campaign for fire prevention."

On the ground that the anti-trading tamp act passed by the last Oregon Legislature is in contravention of the equality clause of the 14th amendmen to the Constitution of the United States, the act was declared void in an opinion handed down by Federal Judge Wolver-

The purpose of the law was to legislate trading stamps, certificates, coupons or tickets redeemable in merchandise, given by merchants to customers with their purchases, out of business. To this end it imposed an annual tax of 5 per cent of the gross receipts both of merchants using them and the company or companies issuing them.

It is this tax which the court holds to be in violation of the Federal Con-

Law Never Enforced.

Though the law became effective last May 24, it has never been in force. On the morning of that day, Woodard, Clarke & Co. and other firms using green trading stamps, representing about 300 firms in the state, applied to Federal Judge Bean for a temporary restraining order to enjoin the Sperry & Hutchinson Company from violating its contract with them by redeeming the stamps in cash instead of merchandise, as it contemplated doing in order not to break the law.

Another temporary restraining order enjoining Attorney-General Brown or District Attorney Evans, of Multnomar County, from enforcing the law was also applied for. Both these orders were granted by Judge Bean, and have been in force since. Their effect has been to permit the redemption in merchandise of trading stamps and other merchandise certificates or coupons without hindrance pending the court's decision.

Enough to get the BEST.

If you can find anywhere better pianos than the Emerson, Vose, E. H. HOLT, Hobart M. Cable. Lauter, Kohler & Chase, Kohler & Campbell, buy one regardless of price, for in investing such a sum of money as is required to get a GOOD Piano, it is foolishness to save

Since, however, better pianos than the above mentioned are not made anywhere, you will be pleased and gratified to learn that my prices for this splendid line are from $100.00 to $200.00 less than those of other instruments of no better quality or reputation.

I want every prospective piano buyer who reads this message and who demands a good piano or player piano, to meet me personally, and go over my line with me. I ascribe my entire PERSONAL success to the fact that I have never knowingly permitted an inferior instrument to leave my sales-Store open evenings.

25-YEAR LIGHT CONTRACT.

Judge Welverton Orders Decree in Favor of Power Company as Acting in Good Faith.

A city has no right to repudiate a contract which has been in force for several years on the ground that it was entered into contrary to the provisions of the city charter.

This point was involved in an opinion handed down by Federal Judge Wolverton yesterday in which a decree was ordered, directing the City of Medical Council had tried to get around the 10-year provision by referring the ordinance to the people, who passed it, and that the company accepted in good faith.
