

KING OF GREECE AND PREMIER DISAGREE

Resignation of Minister Is Reported.

ROYAL APPROVAL NOT GIVEN

French Troops Landing Said to Number 70,000 Men.

NATIONAL TREASURY LOW

Funds Are Sufficient Only for Month on War Footing and Future Financial Operations May Depend on Allies.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—An Athens dispatch to the Havas Agency says: "Premier Venizelos has resigned, the King having informed him that he was unable to support the policy of his ministry."

ATHENS, Oct. 5, via Paris, Oct. 4.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The French troops landing from transports at Salonika, Greece, consist of 70,000 men. They will proceed along the Guevgheli-Lekup railroad to guard the line.

ATHENS, Thursday, Sept. 30, via Rome and Paris, Oct. 5.—(Delayed in transmission.)—Greece is able to put 180,000 men, fully equipped, in the field. Although the mobilization, which includes men up to 45 years of age, probably will call for 300,000 troops, those over the 180,000 cannot be armed.

Finances Depend on Allies. It is said the government has sufficient funds to continue on a war footing for one month. The problem, therefore, is the obtaining of money from the Triple Entente powers.

The mobilization will be completed Sunday night (October 3). The signing of the mobilization order created general relief here. It was considered an extraordinary triumph for Premier Venizelos, who is known to have had a long struggle with King Constantine before the monarch would yield to the Premier's wishes.

Crowds gathered before the foreign office and newspaper bulletin boards this afternoon while M. Venizelos was in conference with the king, the people showing an ugly temper when rumors of a resignation of the cabinet were circulated.

Army Ignorant of Purpose. A curious and disconcerting feature of the Greek mobilization is the ignorance of the mobilized men as to their destination or the purpose for which they were called to the colors.

The news which usually indulges in the freest expression of opinion are generally silent respecting the fate of the Serb-Greek treaty of alliance, which the King all along has maintained was abrogated by the Serbians owing to their concessions to Bulgaria, and the effectiveness of which today is the key to the future action of Greece.

A story generally current in Athens and widely accepted as illustrating the situation is that Premier Venizelos at his conference with King Constantine pleaded that the Serb alliance must be observed, if for no other reason than a means of defense against Bulgaria.

Premier Retorts to King. A close friend of King Constantine is authority for the statement that the King, in reply, exhibited a telegram from the German Emperor saying that Greece would not be attacked by Bulgaria if she remained neutral and that the Premier said:

"Does your majesty consider the word of the man whose troops invaded Belgium sufficient protection for Greece?"

NOTICE GIVEN BY ROUMANIA Bulgaria Twice Informed Mobilization Is Unfriendly Act.

PARIS, Oct. 5.—Premier Bratiano, of Roumania, already has twice informed Bulgaria that the latter's mobilization is regarded by the Bucharest government as an unfriendly act, says the Matin. The newspaper adds:

"Roumania, from a military point of view, is ready for any eventuality, thanks to the blunder on the part of Austria-Hungary, which a month ago closed the frontier, which gave Roumania the required pretext for concentrating troops. Roumania thus is safe from all surprise attacks."

CITY REFERENDUM WANTED

City Executive's Order Closing Saloons on Sunday Said to Have Followed Move to Indict Him. Amusements May End, Too.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—Saloonkeepers, liquor dealers and brewers, incensed over Mayor Thompson's order closing Chicago saloons on Sunday, will ask Governor Dunne to call a special session of the Legislature to amend the dram shop law so as to permit large cities of the state to determine by a referendum vote whether their saloons are to remain closed on Sundays, according to Anton J. Cermack, chairman of the executive committee of the United Societies, a liquor men's organization.

Mayor Thompson based his order on a state statute which prohibits saloons from keeping open on Sunday, and which provides a penalty of $200 for violation.

Alleged Pledge Made Public. Cermack said a petition containing 300,000 names would be presented to the Governor in support of the request of the saloonmen.

Mr. Cermack tonight gave out a typewritten pledge which he said was given voluntarily by the Mayor before election. The pledge purporting to bear Mr. Thompson's signature recited that the signer "will oppose all laws known as 'blue laws' and that he especially declares that he is opposed to a closed Sunday, believing that the state law referring to Sunday closing is obsolete and should not be enforced by city administration; and that he is opposed to all ordinances tending to curtail the citizens of Chicago in the enjoyment of their liberties on the weekly day of rest."

Special Permits Favored. Further clauses read that the signer favors special permits until 3 A. M. to reputable societies giving entertainments; that as Mayor he will use his veto power to prevent enactment of ordinances aiming at abridgement of personal liberty or intended to repeal existing liberal ordinances; that he will oppose the extension of prohibition territory in the city limits unless demanded by a majority of residents in a district in which at least two-thirds of the building lots are improved with dwelling houses; that he is unalterably opposed to having the anti-saloon (Continued on Page 2, Column 1.)

12-GAUGE SHOTGUN USED

Office of Grand Keeper of Records and Seal of Knights of Pythias in Oregon Held 18 Years and Acquaintance State-Wide.

SALEM, Or., Oct. 5.—(Special.)—L. R. Stinson, for 18 years grand keeper of records and seal of the Knights of Pythias for Oregon, committed suicide late today at his farm in Polk County, just across the Willamette River from Salem. He shot himself through the heart with a 12-gauge shotgun. Overwork, resulting in nervous prostration about a month ago, is said by members of the family and friends to have affected Mr. Stinson's mind. They declare he was not mentally responsible for his act. He was 55 years old. The suicide took place shortly after the shooting. Hearing a shot they rushed into the bedroom, where they found Mr. Stinson lying at the side of the bed. The shotgun he had used lay at his side. Death was instantaneous.

No Inquest to Be Held. According to Logan Stinson, his father had seated himself on the bed, placed the muzzle of the shotgun in his breast and pulled the trigger. The authorities were at once notified, and Mr. Stinson's body was brought to Salem. No inquest will be held.

Mr. Stinson was a native of Oregon, having been born in Albany January 2, 1852. When a year old his parents moved to Salem, where he resided since. He was a printer by trade, and prior to his election as keeper of records and seal for the grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias, conducted a printing shop here. When the late Frank W. Benson was Secretary of State (1907-1911) Mr. Stinson was expert printer with the state printing department.

Funeral Office Held 18 Years. For 18 successive years Mr. Stinson was unanimously elected grand keeper of records and seal for the Knights of Pythias. He was regarded by members of the grand lodge as one of its most efficient officers, and through the nature of his work had a wide acquaintance throughout the state. He was a member of Central Lodge No. 13, Knights of Pythias, his city.

Tuesday's War Moves

RUSSIA'S ultimatum to Bulgaria expired at a late hour last night, so far as known in London, no answer had been received and none was expected.

It is taken for granted that King Ferdinand and his ministers are definitely committed to the Germanic alliance, and, in return for European territory to be ceded after the war, has undertaken to assist actively in the operations against Serbia, thus hoping to open the way for the Austro-German army, the objective of which is the Sea of Marmora.

The entente powers, in this belief, have landed or are landing a force at Salonika, which will take upon itself the duty of protecting the main railway line through Serbia and Greece and give what assistance it can to the Balkan allies, should they be attacked by Bulgaria. This infringement of Greek neutrality has brought forth a formal protest from the Greek government, but in the words of one correspondent, "it is being winked at" by the great majority of the people of Greece.

The Opposition in the Greek chamber also has made protest against the policy of Premier Venizelos which, it is said, is forcing Greece into an unnecessary war. The Chamber yesterday passed a vote of confidence in the Premier, but Paris has received news that the Premier today resigned on being informed by the King that the latter could not give assent to his war policy.

The next move devolves upon Bulgaria, and as soon as she moves, the Anglo-French troops which are being mobilized will be put in motion, while the fleets in the Black Sea and the Aegean will assume the appointed roles.

Meanwhile, Russia, whose armies for five months have been retiring, has begun an energetic offensive along a wide front from Riga to southeast of Vilna, and according to unofficial reports, has already met with considerable success. This, however, is denied by Berlin, which says that all the Russian attacks have been repulsed.

On the western front, the big guns have again undertaken the task of attempting to level the German entrenchments, presumably in preparation for a continuation of the attacks which proved successful in Artois and Champagne. In some sectors there has been infantry fighting, in which a trench, or a few yards of a trench, changes hands, being particularly the case in the areas where the allies have made their gains and where the Germans are trying to win back the lost ground.

The British fleet, too, is almost continuously bombarding the German positions on the coast of Belgium.

48-BATTLESHIP BASIS PROPOSED

Daniels Is "Inclined to Favor" Plan.

POLICY TO BE CONTINUOUS

Proportion of Other Vessels to Be Worked Out Later.

MUCH AMMUNITION NEEDED

Value of Large Reserves Strikingly Illustrated by War in Europe.

Naval Advisory Board to Organize Today.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Congress probably will be asked to approve in December a continuing building policy for the Navy, having for its object maintenance of the Navy on the basis of at least 48 first-class battleships. The proportion of superbattle cruisers, scouts, destroyers, submarines and auxiliaries would be worked out from this figure.

Secretary Daniels said today that the proposal to recommend to Congress the establishment of this policy had been discussed by him both with President Wilson and with Chairman Padgett of the House naval affairs committee.

Definite Decision Delayed.

While he explained that no definite decision had been reached, the Secretary indicated that he was inclined to favor such a plan. The Navy General Board for many years has computed its construction estimates on a basis similar to that suggested, but the proposal to write the plan into an appropriation bill as a definite and continuing building policy never has received the approval of any Secretary of the Navy.

Secretary Daniels declared that if the policy received the approval of the people he had little doubt that Congress would come along to follow it in principle, so that the existing building policy on the Navy could be computed in advance with a considerable degree of accuracy.

Ammunition Reserves Necessary.

Congress will be asked also to make more liberal provision in reserves of ammunition than ever before has been thought necessary, Secretary Daniels said, the necessity of increasing the amount of ammunition drawn from the European war. The amount to be sought for this purpose was not disclosed.

Thomas A. Edison, chairman of the Naval Advisory board, arrived in Washington tonight for the first meeting of the board here tomorrow. The other 22 members are all expected to be present.

At a brief session the board will plan for future meetings, for divisions of labor among its members, and for conferences with many experts. Then the members will go to the White House to be received by President Wilson and will visit the Naval proving grounds at Indian Head to see tests of the newest 14-inch Navy gun.

The first prohibitory committee conference will be of the civilian board will be that of developing satisfactory gasoline or oil engines for aeroplanes and submarines.

MONROE DOCTRINE ON TRIAL

Minister From Panama Says American Is Facing Test.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Eusebio A. Morales, the Minister from Panama, speaking here today at a conference on National Defense, being conducted under the auspices of the Navy League, the National Rifle Association and the Council of National Defense, declared that the American republics were watching the preparedness of the United States because, he said, upon it depends the defense of the Monroe Doctrine. The declaration of the United States that the American continent cannot be the object of conquest or foreign aggression, he said, now faces threatening realities.

"Suppose," said Dr. Morales, "that England and France are vanquished during this war? What will be the fate of their colonies in America? Will the American continent look with indifference on the occupation by Germany of French and British Guiana, of British Honduras and the islands which enclose the Caribbean Sea?"

"The answer appears to be obvious," Dr. Morales said. "The Monroe Doctrine faced 'threatening realities,' and that because of it the National defense of the United States was intimately bound up with the whole of the American continent.

"In the face of the present situation," he continued, "it will be necessary to persist in the illusion of security in which we have lived, but to create for the defense of the continent and the harmonious development of the American nations an organization which in itself would command respect.

"In this organization there falls upon the United States the preponderant role, not only because it is the most powerful country of the continent, but because it has voluntarily constituted itself the champion of the other American nations."

A country at war with the United States will not be invited to join the organization.
