Missionary Called East.—Rev. George E. Paddack, superintendent of missions for the Congregational Churches in this district, will leave on Wednesday for New Haven, Conn. Dr. Paddack will go in response to a call from the New York board and will attend a conference of the board and missionary workers. It is suggested by the New York board to unite Atkinson Memorial Church of this city with the city mission work and get one able man to attend to both duties. This plan was discussed at the prayer meeting at Atkinson Church on Thursday night, but no action was taken. Until definite plans are made, Rev. Dr. Nylander will occupy the pulpit until a successor to the Rev. Frank W. Gorman is chosen.

INTRA-CITY HUNTER PUNISHED.—Short-ly after paying a fine of $5 for carry-ing a shotgun uncased on Council Crest, where it was said he had been shooting where it was said he had been shooting pheasants, George Marco was re-arrest-ed at the order of Deputy District At-torney Deich on the charge of hunting on a game preserve, and later released on bail of $50. An old state law mak-ing all municipalities game refuges was dug up by the Deputy District Attorney in order to put a step to reserve
