

SCHOOL BOARD ADDS SIXTEEN TEACHERS

Day and Night Instructors in Arts, Science and Swimming, Are Elected.

POSTPONED MEETING HELD

Resolution of Appreciation of Late J. H. Stanley Is Adopted—Parent-Teacher Deputation Protests Overcrowding.

Sixteen new teachers were added to the list of Portland instructors at the postponed meeting of the School Board yesterday afternoon. Those elected as substitute teachers are: Florence Wuest, five-month election to take the place of M. Artin, art teacher at Washington High school, who is on leave; Andrew Loney, elected to take charge of the band at Washington; Margaret Gessen, English, Franklin High; Lillian Tingel, Edna Groves, Mrs. R. E. Miller, Lottie Millam, Laura Riley and June Gray, elected for one night each week in domestic science at Benson Polytechnic; Karen Davis elected to teach domestic science at Jefferson two nights a week; Maud Chollar elected to teach domestic science at St. Johns two nights a week; Howard McKay, James Burke and Mrs. Grace Kaderley elected to teach swimming at Couch and Shattuck. The salaries of the swimming instructors were named at $80 per month. Two other teachers were given substitute positions at Don Opout, English at Washington High, and Miss Bessie Thorp, elected to Allen.

Crowding Complaints Received.

A deputation of property owners in the vicinity of Capitol Hill and members of the Parent-Teacher Association of the southeast district composed of the cramped conditions of the schools in their respective districts. The plea of the Capitol Hill people for permanent school buildings next year will be given consideration by the building grounds committee. The Parent-Teacher Association members from the vicinity of the proposed location of the new Franklin High complained of the congested condition of the present school and asked the board to include in the 1916 budget sufficient appropriations to take care of more than the immediate needs of the community. Assurance was given the deputation that every consideration was being given the Franklin High School and that approximately $140,000 had already been appropriated for the first unit. It was declared that plans for the new Franklin High had so been arranged that a gymnasium would perhaps be unnecessary, sufficient grounds being available for extensive outdoor exercise.

Audited claims to the extent of $151,145.66 were ordered paid.

The board decided to allow the Lincoln High equipment to be used by the Portland teachers in their study of the arts and crafts, and the instructor to be provided by the teachers. Bids were opened for concrete work to be done at Glencoe, Rose City Park and Portsmouth schools. The lowest bid, $2577, for the work on the three schools.

J. H. Stanley Resolution Adopted.

At the conclusion of the routine business the board members who were present, Dr. A. W. Smith, J. V. Beach and M. G. Munly, passed the following resolution: Whereas, in view of the loss we have sustained by the decease of our associate and co-worker, J. H. Stanley, and of the high esteem and respect in which he was held by all who knew him; therefore be it resolved, That we, the board of directors of School District No. 1, Multnomah County, Oregon, desire to express our appreciation of his long and faithful service. Furthermore, we desire to extend to the members of his family our deepest sympathy, and do hereby direct that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this district, and a copy transmitted to his family.

NORTH SIDE MEET CALLED

Action to Be Taken for High School Addition Tonight.

Several hundred letters have been sent out by the North Portland Commercial Club to citizens interested in the Jefferson High School asking them to attend a meeting tonight at the Hotel Hibbard, 10th and Commercial streets to organize a movement to enlarge the school building. M. Orth, president of the club, said yesterday that the plan was to ask for at least 20 rooms to take care of the overflow from the high school. The cost had been tentatively placed at $80,000. At the present rate, temporary structures will soon cover the entire space available, he says.

CIRCUS FEAT PLEASURES

OREGON QUARTET ALSO WINNER AT PANTAGES.

Remainder of Bill Devoted to Dancing, Singing and Especially Good Acrobatics.

Quite like the circus in Pantages headlines act this week. At least it is the best part of the circus. For aren't the bareback riders on the prancing, white steeds the heart and soul of the tent show? There are four snow-white, spirited horses that dash around the sawdust ring on the stage while two clever equestrians, Holland and Dockrill, dance onto the backs of the running horses and back to the tank. They somersault and pose perilously on their tippy toes; they ride two abreast, three abreast, four abreast. The pretty little girl in the fluffy spangled skirts climbs high on the man's shoulders and he drives the four horses in constantly changing positions around the ring. The act is daring and novel for vaudeville.

JOHN A. STOWELL IS DEAD Residence in Oregon Dated From 1858 and One Son Survives. John A. Stowell, an Oregon pioneer and a real estate dealer in this city for many years, died yesterday morning at his home, 909 Albina avenue. Mr. Stowell was born in Carroll County, Indiana, in 1836. He came to California in 1855 and to Oregon in 1858, first making his home in Eugene. Later he moved to The Dalles, where he lived

Evidence Used in Meal, but Fish Dealer Pleads Guilty.

Gim Wing Admits Having Under-sized Sturgeon in His Possession, but Half of Fine is Returned.

IF GIM WING, a Second-street fish dealer, had known what was going to happen to the damaging evidence perhaps he would not have pleaded guilty to the charge of having in his possession a sturgeon less than four feet in length—the law's limit. Friday afternoon Wing was taken into custody by Deputy Game Warden

Wing's attorney known that the evidence had been eaten by one of the witnesses.

Russell, through a misunderstanding, considered that the case was closed and took the sturgeon home and ate it.

When Gim Wing was brought for trial yesterday morning the evidence was conspicuous by its absence. But Deputy Clark and P. M. Brown, clerk in the game warden's office, and Russell testified that the fish was under-sized and when Wing pleaded guilty to the charge the officers of the game warden's office were rather surprised.

Wing was fined the minimum of $20 by Judge Jones, but half of the fine was returned.

What would have happened had until 1882, when he moved to Portland. He married Miss Louise Simpson, daughter of the late Ben Simpson, a prominent pioneer of this state. Mr. Stowell is survived by one son, a brother, George Stowell, of Juneau, Alaska; two sisters, Miss Leatha Stowell and Mrs. D. B. Gray, of this city; Mrs. Robert Eskin, of Salem, is his niece. For a number of years Mr. Stowell had engaged in the real estate business in Portland. Funeral services will be held today at 3 P. M. from Holman's chapel, and interment will be in Lone Fir Cemetery.
