

OREGON SHAKEUP BIG

Bezdek, Sore on "Loafers," Switches "U" Team.

IDAHO, TOO, IS COACH'S WOE

Giddiger, Freshman From Harrisburg, Breaks Left Collarbone as He Tackles Dummy and Will Be Blown to Team.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Hugo Bezdek, Bill Haywood and the Oregon varsity arrived in Eugene last evening fresh from Pullman, but loaded heavily with the sting of Saturday's defeat at the hands of the Washington Aggies' terrific attack.

It was the most thorough licking that an Oregon team has ever taken," said the Oregon mentor, when he commented on the game and its bearing upon his team.

This afternoon a new first eleven were the stripes, and there was no mercy in the voice of the ex-Chicagoan as he drove them through their practice paces.

"Loading" Is Scored. "You loaded on me once," he shouted, "and now you will pay with the hardest season of scrimmages that I ever put a squad through. Idaho is coming Saturday, and today you couldn't win from a good high school."

Sarcasm, chagrin, sorrow and sadness toned the voice of the director as he urged his candidates on and begged them to put forth greater efforts.

The men who answered to Bezdek's first call on the Pullman gridiron weeded more than any line which has represented the State University in football has become a recognized collegiate sport, some 15 years ago. Reports were that they tipped the scales for an aggregate average of 185 pounds, though, show them weighing a good 190.

"Beef, but no brains" was the manner in which one prominent critic accused the great lemon-yellow line. However, the Oregon coaching staff hasn't adopted the same old-time uniform, and it hasn't given up hope of yet presenting followers and fans with a regular team and a winning aggregation. It is worth a life to mention Saturday's fray to a squad member, and Bezdek winces with pain as the thought assails him.

Crackup Breaks Down. The biggest shakeup ever to take place since Hugo rearrived in Eugene was made this afternoon, and although the first string is far lighter than the "regular" line, the shift is thought to be a blessing, inasmuch as team work and strength is concerned.

Mitchell went to Bartlett's end, Bartlett relieved Callison as a guard, Montfeth gave way at quarter to Huntington, only to land in the position vacated by Halbeck Beckett. Riskey gave up the ghost as an end to Tegert and returned to his old position in the central zone, forcing Cosman back to scrubs. Beckett ran signals at the tackle point, pushing Snyder to a guard position. Bigbee took up the burden at right half, Hosking to be shifted over to the second-stringers for the firm purpose of learning the game. Spielman replaced would have been an easy home run to the bleachers. Today it was valueless.

Visitors Not Dangerous After Third. Failure in this third inning to place themselves in a winning position seemed to take the life out of the visitors, and they never were dangerous again. Leonard even became better as the game progressed. Neither Cravath nor Luderus, the heavy hitting Philly artillery, could connect for a safe blow. In fact, Luderus, second batsman of the National League, was about the easiest person "Dutch" had to deal with. Three times "Ludy" faced the star left-hander and three times he ranned the air. There was no strike without the services of "Truncy" Francis, the star halfback. Francis has a bad knee, and efforts are being made to save him for the California trip early next month.

Wallace de Witt, formerly of Princeton, and Johnny Parsons, last year's star, wedged in the line who footbalers will be stationed at the halfback positions, with Os Day in at fullback. Captain Rupert will direct the play from his quarterback station. Stanley Borleske will be the referee and Plowden Stott will umpire. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock, according to present plans of Superintendent Dow V. Walker of Multnomah Club. Another practice will be held tonight and Thursday night, according to plans which will be held under the arc lights on Multnomah Field.

BEAVERS LOSE M'GAFFIGAN. Lincoln Shortstop, Drafted, Refuses to Accept Terms.

Shortstop McGaffigan, of the Lincoln club of the Western League, couldn't see the sense of accepting a $2,000 bonus at the door and as a result he has lost a rare chance to advance in his profession. Both the Chicago Cubs, of the National League, and the Portland club of the Pacific Coast League, leveled drafts against McGaffigan, and of course he was awarded to Chicago. McGaffigan spurned the terms offered by the Cubs and after a few days of waiting Chicago threw up the sponge and the commission telegraphed W. W. McCredie that Portland could have McGaffigan. However, President McCredie, who pitched on the Portland team, could make McGaffigan better than Chicago, and he replied that the Portland draft would not be exercised. So, unless McGaffigan jumps to the outlaws, it looks as though he is doomed to another season in the West.

KNOWLTON TO MEET GRUMAN. Six-Round Match to Be Held at Rose City Club October 26.

Walter Knowlton yesterday agreed to meet Ralph Gruman in a six-round boxing exhibition at the Rose City Athletic Club, October 26. Knowlton intends making his final appearance in the ring and said he was anxious to see how he stacked up against a contender for the lightweight crown. Knowlton formerly held the lightweight amateur championship of the Pacific Coast.

Charles Rentrop, the wrestler, is training daily at the East Side Club for his match Thursday night with Eddie O'Connell. The boxers are also getting themselves in shape.

ST. MARY'S HONORS IT STARS. Leonard, Hooper and Lewis Former Students at Oakland College.

OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 11.—Students of St. Mary's College in this city have reason to view today's world series with particular pride since four former students of that institution cornered all the glory.

"Dutch" Leonard, who pitched Boston victory and have been defeated twice only by the margin of a single run. Again today one member of the Red Sox made as many hits as the entire opposition, including the unwitting gift by Speaker. It was "Duffy" Lewis today as it was George Foster on Saturday.

Speaker Hits Some, Too. This Speaker made two hits today, one of which was a three-bagger, which brought the Sox from behind and put them on even terms with the Phillies. Speaker gave evidence of coming into his own today, and it was not to be wondered at that Alexander took no chances with him in the ninth rally that brought a sudden end to another game that threatened to go to extra innings. Besides Lewis and Speaker, Harry Hooper was the only other member of the red-hosed clan who connected safely with the jumping curves and sweeping slants fired by the wonder-flinger of the Phillies. But Hooper's hit came in the ninth, when it was most needed.

"Old Dutch" Leonard, of Fresno, Cal., a port-sider whittler, brave of heart, steady of nerve and determined of spirit, was the third of the great staff of Red Sox pitchers to take his turn against the invaders of Boston today. Leonard had nothing but speed, a fine change of pace, a curve that seemed to jump first one way and then another and had the same effect upon the Philly batsmen, and a control that gave no man an easy speaking acquaintance with the initial bag.

It was a predicament suggestive of his Teutonic title, the solid swats coming off him in the same inning, but he wiggled away from the room that seemed impending and was crowned tonight with the laurels of victory. With one out, one run over and runners perched on third and second, the third inning, it was no place for a nervous pitcher when Paskert came to the plate, with "Home Run" Cravath swinging two bats in impatience to be the next man up.

"Old Jack" Barry Still There. But "Dutch" was not to be scored on again. Among the eight enterprising young men struggling behind him for the honor of Boston and the American League was faithful "Old Jack" Barry, already tried and proved in the arena of more than a score of world's series contests. Alexander himself was on third base and Bancroft on second. Barry's hit was a deep blue sweater, but when he got to third and was hoping for home, he cast the sweater to the side lines and prepared for the next play.

The Boston infield was drawn close within the diamond and the situation (that seemed impending and was crowned tonight with the laurels of victory. With one out, one run over and runners perched on third and second, the third inning, it was no place for a nervous pitcher when Paskert came to the plate, with "Home Run" Cravath swinging two bats in impatience to be the next man up.

PETER SCOTT VICTOR

Axworthy, Driven by "Pop" Geers, Loses in First Heat.

$3000 AND CUP ARE WON

Bingen Silk Finishes First in Lexington Stake Run for Two-Year-Old Trotters in Straight Heats.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 11.—After losing the first heat to Axtion, Peter Scott, stallion owned by Henry Oliver, of Pittsburgh, won the Walnut Hill $3000 stake and cup, the principal event of the Grand Circuit racing programme today, taking the last three heats in easy style.

Nathan Axworthy, driven by "Pop" Geers, broke so badly that he was distanced in the first heat. Bingen Silk, M'way Stock Farm's Bingen-Nell Cord colt, won the Lexington stake for 2-year-old trotters in straight heats from Hero's Creek and Adele Block, Chandler scoring a hollow victory in each heat.

Auto Zombro was an easy winner of the 2:08 pace. Although he lost the second heat to Lustrous McKinney, Lewis landed him in front at the wire in the first, third and fourth heats.

Peter Volo, 2:02, failed in his effort to lower his record. Driven by Murphy, he trotted the mile in the following time: First quarter, 39.4; half, 1:01.4; three-quarters, 1:31.4; mile, 2:02.4. Walnut Tree, who started to beat 2:12.4, Murphy driving, trotted the mile in 2:19.4, making the quarter post in :35; half, 1:05.4; three-quarters in 1:39.

Summaries: The Lexington, for 2-year-old trotters, 2 in 5, $3000—Bingen Silk, b. c. by Bingen (Chandler) 1:31.4; Hero's Creek, ch. c. (Engelman) 1:31.4; Adele Block, f. (McDonald) 1:31.4; Auto Zombro, b. h. by Zombro 2:08; Lustrous McKinney, b. h. by McKinney (Hodney) 2:08.4.

MULTNOMAH WORKS OUT. WINGED "M" SQUADS PRACTICE VIGOROUSLY FOR SEATTLE CROWD.

New Men Strengthen Lineup For Saturday's Gridiron Battle With Washington Park Club.

Two full squads worked out at the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club Sunday morning under Captain Rupert. Rupert, getting ready for the football game against the Washington Park Athletic Club of Seattle, on Multnomah Field Saturday afternoon.

A series of new players were worked by the Winged "M" warriors, and the whole team seemed to be in good working order. Captain Rupert expects to put a strong lineup against the Northerners next Saturday, although he will be without the services of "Truncy" Francis, the star halfback. Francis has a bad knee, and efforts are being made to save him for the California trip early next month.

Wallace de Witt, formerly of Princeton, and Johnny Parsons, last year's star, wedged in the line who footbalers will be stationed at the halfback positions, with Os Day in at fullback. Captain Rupert will direct the play from his quarterback station. Stanley Borleske will be the referee and Plowden Stott will umpire. TROUSERS CAUSE DEATH. Quarrel Follows Mishap on Barbed-Wire Fence; Man's Neck Broken.

YORK, Pa., Oct. 6.—A coroner's jury has decided that Lawrence Singleton, 23 years old, of State Hill in the lower city of York, Pa., was accidentally killed. Singleton was knocked down by his brother-in-law, Roy Reynolds, 21 years old, in a quarrel on the public road, and his head came so violently in contact with the earth that his neck was broken. Reynolds is under suspicion of the murder, and a district attorney George is to decide whether or not he shall be tried for murder.

Singleton was the husband of Reynolds' sister, and the brothers-in-law were out for a stroll with 17-year-old Clifford Burkins. They came to a turnip patch, and Singleton crawled through the barbed-wire fence to get some turnips. As he did so his trousers were caught and torn. This angered Reynolds, and the quarrel ensued. He called Reynolds a vile name, and it is alleged, he responded with the blow, which indirectly produced death.

John Burke May Seek Toga. BISMARCK, N. D., Oct. 1.—That United States Treasurer John Burke has definitely made up his mind to become a candidate for the United States Senatorship in this state is regarded as evident because of his recent criticism of the Ninth Federal reserve bank officials. His attitude is to gain favor with the farmers of North Dakota, politicians allege.

WEDDING STILL MYSTERY. Claude Griffey Admits Marriage, but Won't Tell Who Is Bride.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 5.—Is Mrs. Lucile Bartleson, divorced wife of John H. Bartleson, Denver club man, the bride of Claude E. Griffey, of Omaha, former St. Paul agency director of the Equitable Life Assurance Society? Mr. Griffey admitted in Omaha that he recently was married, but declined to say whether his bride is Mrs. Bartleson.

Football Results. At Albuquerque, N. M.—New Mexico Military Institute 6, University of New Mexico 2. In Great Britain, the home secretary, the foreign secretary, and the war minister receive $25,000 a year each; in France and the United States the similar officials receive $12,000, and in Germany $10,000.

A year ago in Denver, while Mr. Griffey was dining with the Bartlesons in their apartments, Mrs. Bartleson confessed to her husband her love for Griffey and pleaded for freedom to marry him. Griffey returned to St. Paul, but visited Denver again to spend the Christmas holidays. A conference between Bartleson and Griffey followed at the Denver Athletic Club. Griffey avowed his love for Mrs. Bartleson, and Bartleson consented to take the legal steps that would permit his wife to marry Griffey. Mrs. Bartleson remained with her husband until the divorce action was filed.

Griffey recently, in St. Paul, denied reports that he was engaged to Mrs. Bartleson, or had been married to her. Football Results. At Albuquerque, N. M.—New Mexico Military Institute 6, University of New Mexico 2. McREDIE PLANS SCHEDULE. Judge Would Give Portland Five Weeks of Ball at a Stretch.

Portland may have Coast League ball five weeks at a stretch next year, Judge W. W. McCredie is figuring out a schedule along these lines in an endeavor to cut down the transportation bill.

At present the Beavers play at home three weeks at a time except on two trips, when this is cut to two weeks. Portland gets 15 weeks of ball at home and 15 away, so if the five weeks idea is adopted it will mean three long stays at home and three long ones on foreign soil.

MONTANA PLAYS 10-TO-10 TIE. North Dakota Held by Badly Battered Team From West.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Fighting until the last minute, the badly battered football team of the University of Montana held the heavy University of North Dakota team to a 10-to-10 tie here this afternoon.

Montana's team showed the effects of Friday's game with South Dakota and was compelled to take the defensive throughout the game.

Boxing Brovidies. Tommy Clark is now in Pendleton preparing a fight with Billy Farro soon to be staged there.

That fight with an effort to bring featherweight, with Leo Houck. This is not Leo Houck, the middleweight of Lancaster, Pa., but a clever featherweight battling Houck in the middleweight of Lancaster, Pa. That name, who is coming to pay a visit to the San Francisco Fair and will be in Portland for a few days. His last bout was in Denver.

Eddie Finnigan, the Spokane lightweight, is back in town and is seeking a bout with some of the local mitt slingers. Matchmaker host of the Imperial Club, is busy lining up a card for next week. He is figuring on using Danny O'Brien and Jack Carpenter as the main attraction.

Fans are inclined to look with disfavor on the prospect of a fight between McClure and the heavyweight, and Al Sommers, the middleweight, for Thursday at the Rose City Club. There is too much weight for the hard-hitting Sommers to buck against, think that name, who is coming to pay a visit to the San Francisco Fair and will be in Portland for a few days. His last bout was in Denver.

Hobby Evans, who lost a six-round decision to Jack Carpenter at the last Imperial bout, is anxious to get a bout with Carpenter over a longer route. An effort may be made to have the two box up in a 10-round set-to at Astoria.

A year ago in Denver, while Mr. Griffey was dining with the Bartlesons in their apartments, Mrs. Bartleson confessed to her husband her love for Griffey and pleaded for freedom to marry him. Griffey returned to St. Paul, but visited Denver again to spend the Christmas holidays. A conference between Bartleson and Griffey followed at the Denver Athletic Club. Griffey avowed his love for Mrs. Bartleson, and Bartleson consented to take the legal steps that would permit his wife to marry Griffey. Mrs. Bartleson remained with her husband until the divorce action was filed.
