

PEACE DELEGATES DIVIDE ON METHOD

Party Headed by David Starr Jordan Asks Nations to Give Up Individual War.

FORCE IS OTHER PLAN

Herbert S. Houston Would Resort to Economic Pressure First and Then to Arms to Bring Belligerent Country to Time.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 11.—(Special.)—Two parties, with opposing methods of securing concord in the world, appeared today in the sessions of the International Peace Congress at Festival Hall at the exposition held in conjunction with the World's Insurance Congress as a peace delegates' conference.

On one side, headed by David Starr Jordan, were those who advocate a world federation in which the nations, like the states of the United States, would give up their right to make war individually; and on the other, led by Herbert S. Houston, of New York, the advocates of the principles of the league to enforce peace, which proposes combine to keep the peace, and, if necessary, make war on the nation that refuses to be pacified.

"Nationalism has got to go," said Mr. Jordan.

War to Finish in Forenoon. "The present war seems likely to be fought out to the absolute finish on both sides. Europe will be knocked in the head for the next century, her property gone, her cities and villages, her best stock destroyed and only the weaklings left to furnish the next generations."

Mr. Houston proposed a league in which all justifiable questions arising between the signatory powers, not settled by negotiation, should be submitted to a judicial tribunal for judgment, and that the signatory powers should use their economic and military forces jointly against any one of their number that commits any act of hostility against another.

Francis B. Loomis, formerly of the State Department, supported Mr. Houston.

Mr. J. A. Macdonald, editor of the Toronto Globe, declared that before the war is over both the United States and Canada shall have paid the full price of Europe's madness.

League Plan Is Given. Mr. Houston, who is chairman of the League to Enforce Peace, said in part: "At a conference in Independence Hall on Bunker Hill day, attended by more than 200 representatives from every part of the country, submitted to this country and all other nations these simple, strong proposals:

First—All justifiable questions arising between the signatory powers, not settled by negotiation, shall, subject to the limitations of treaties by submitted to a judicial tribunal for hearing and judgment, both on the merits and on any issue as to the jurisdiction to act on such questions.

Second—All other questions arising between the signatory powers, not settled by negotiation, shall be submitted to a committee of conciliation for hearing, consideration and recommendation.

Third—The signatory powers shall jointly use their economic and military forces against any one of their number that goes to war, or commits acts of hostility, against another of the signatory powers before any question acting shall be submitted to the tribunal as provided in the foregoing.

Fourth—Conflicts between the signatory powers shall be settled by arbitration, and the arbitrator shall have the right to formulate and codify rules of international law, which, in a certain time, shall be accepted by the signatory powers, and shall thereafter govern in the decisions of the judicial tribunal mentioned in article one.

Economic Pressure Is Feature. "The distinguishing thing in these proposals is the placing of force behind a World Court, compelling it to be used. And why not? Surely the world, after the devastation and destruction of the present war, will come to the place where peace will seem so much to be desired that it is even worth fighting for."

"Many will say, this is war itself, the very thing we seek to prevent. Let it be said in rejoinder with overwhelming emphasis, that such a war, if it should be required as a last resort, would be a war to establish the integrity and authority of world courts that the nations had joined in setting up, and had joined in agreeing to observe. In a word, such a war simply would be the use of power to enforce the due processes of international law and justice."

It would frequently happen that the use of the great power of international commerce, applied as economic pressure, would be sufficient to bring a nation and bring it to the World Court, without resort to military force."

HATCHERY CHANGE ADVISED

Pumping Plant to Insure Water Supply at North Umpqua Sought.

ROSEBURG, Or., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—As a result of a visit to the North Umpqua fish hatchery by Attorney General George M. Brown, Friday, that official will probably recommend to the State Fish Commission, the installation of a pumping plant here as an auxiliary to the present water supply.

The running water for use in the hatchery is pumped from a small creek, but in dry seasons is insufficient. At present there are approximately 3,000,000 salmon eggs in the hatchery, according to the report of the attorney general, who said that a shortage of a scarcity of water, not more than 1,000,000 more eggs will be taken to this hatchery during the present year.

The Attorney General says he will probably make his recommendation to the State Fish Commission as soon as he returns to Salem.

GRANT LAND IDEAS ASKED

GOVERNMENT STUDIES SENTIMENT IN OREGON AS TO DISPOSAL

Investigator Announces That, if no Action is Taken by Congress, Original Terms Will Be Used.

EUGENE, Or., Oct. 11.—(Special.)—The United States Government is making an investigation of sentiment in Oregon as to what should be done with the Oregon & California Railroad grant lands.

Upon his return to Washington Mr. Williams will make his report to the Attorney-General, who will in all probability report to Congress. He was accompanied to Eugene by Leonard Underwood, special agent of the Department of the Interior.

Mr. Williams this morning met a number of Eugene bankers and business men at the Commercial Club. He stated briefly that his mission was to ascertain what the lands are best suited for and the views of the people in the section of the state most vitally interested as to what should be done with the lands.

Mr. Williams stated that if no action was taken by Congress the railroad would be permitted to carry out the terms of the original grant. Those present at the meeting were not inclined to the view that Congress should not take action.

Mr. Williams, for the purpose of suggestion, said that the removal of all restrictions upon the railroad, with a condition that the lands must be sold within a certain time, would result in the early sale of lands and make them available in the development of the state. The suggestion did not meet approval.

POUND TAKES DROP

BANKERS' MEETING CALLED

British and American Financiers Discuss Extension of Credits on English Collateral With View of Maintaining Rate.

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—Foreign exchange rates went down again today to their lowest point since September 15, in the face of a successful flotation of the $500,000,000 credit loan to Great Britain and France. So disquieting was the situation that a three-hour meeting, attended by Wall-street bankers and Sir Edward Holdt, a member of the Anglo-French financial commission, was held late in the day at the National City Bank for the purpose of devising some new method to maintain the value of the English pound sterling.

Since the arrival of the commission here September 19 the trend of sterling values has been steadily, though slowly, upward. For the past week sterling has been selling at about $4.72. One day recently it went as high as a fraction above $4.73. Today it sold down to $4.67 1/4, altogether too far below par to make possible buying of American exports from the British point of view, in the opinion of some financiers.

The meeting held today, it was reported, was primarily to reach an understanding as to the best method of using the $500,000,000 to stabilize exchange and also with a view to arranging a private agreement between New York bankers on one hand and London bankers on the other, for credits which would tend to send the value of sterling up in this foreign exchange market. Supplemental credit of $250,000,000, it is said, was discussed.

It was thought possible that certain large American financial institutions might extend credits to the London banking connections on collateral which could be readily realized on in Great Britain, but for which the market here is restricted. With these credits available here to pay for purchases made by British importers, the pressure of bills will be relieved and rates would be eased.

SHE DARKENED HER GRAY HAIR

A Kansas City Lady Darkened Her Gray Hair and Stimulated Its Growth by a Simple Home Process.

She Tells How She Did It.

A well-known resident of Kansas City, Mo., who darkened her gray hair by a simple home process, made the following statement: "Any lady or gentleman can darken their gray or faded hair, stimulate its growth and make it soft and glossy with this simple recipe, which they can mix at home. To half a pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, 1 small box of Barbo Compound and 1/4 oz. of glycerine. These ingredients can be purchased at any drugstore at very little cost. Apply to the hair every other day until the gray hair is darkened sufficiently, then every two weeks. This mixture relieves scalp troubles and is excellent for dandruff and falling hair. It does not stain the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off. It will make a gray-haired person look 10 to 20 years younger.—Adv.

The Man to Buy Triangle

Not the man who is betting on the Stock Market. Not the man who can't afford to lose—not the widow or orphan—But

The man who looks into a business that offers a profit—and any man can look into this one—and who, realizing that a big profit business involves risk, is ready to back his judgment with his ownership of stock and his active interest. For this man helps the business—he takes people to see the pictures and he talks about them afterward.

I, personally, believe Triangle Film will be a big payer of dividends.

But I don't want as a partner either the stock gambler or the man who will be seriously hurt if he should lose.

I appreciate the interest of brokerage houses who advertise it—But

I deplore the effort of some of them to secure business by advertising the stock as "a good buy"—or that it is "going up," or even that it is "a good stock for the small investor."

If people want the best in motion pictures (as people seem to Triangle Film will be a marvelous money maker.

But as an investment, it isn't like city bonds, and shouldn't be so offered.

Triangle stock was not listed on the Curb to speculate in. It was not listed there merely to sell (for this company had ample resources within itself).

It was listed on the Curb as the simplest way to get the greatest number of stockholders in the shortest possible time.

The number of stockholders is growing day by day (the list contains some mighty well-known names), and every stockholder is worth a great deal to the company.

To Stockholders.

Don't let the manipulators tempt you to sell your stock simply because it is quoted several points above the price you paid for it. Don't let them frighten you into selling it by making quotations below what it cost you.

Don't rush in and buy more than you can afford, because you or some friend of yours happens to have seen "The Coward," for instance, at the Knickerbocker Theater, in New York. Not every picture we produce will be as wonderful a picture as that.

Don't buy Triangle Film "on margin."

If you believe in the company—its management, and its policy of producing the best possible moving pictures, by employing the most successful and best known of directors, actors and actresses, backed by the great organizations of the Majestic and New York Motion Picture Companies—buy as much of the stock as you can afford to own—and put it away to bring its profit in dividend.

Whether the quoted price be 4 or 40, its actual value will not be changed.

If you don't believe in the company and its policies, or if you can't afford to own your stock outright, let it alone.

Meantime—whether you bought it when it first came out—at $5.00 a share—or last week at $9.25—whether you bought 5 shares or 10 or 25 or 100—I believe that between now and Christmas you will be mighty glad you own Triangle Stock.

A FRIEND TO THE WORKINGMAN. Five years ago I was so troubled with kidney trouble and inflammation of the bladder that I had to leave working my farm. Life looked dark to me until I heard of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root through a cured friend. I tried a bottle and began to feel better at once. After using five or six bottles I felt fine and have continued to work as I had before my affliction.

I want to state that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a kidney medicine that will cure and I owe my good work during the past five or six years to it. Yours very truly, C. W. MORRIS, Prescott, Ark.

Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 27th day of March, 1912. G. E. GORDON, Notary Public.

This is to certify that Mr. C. W. Morris has bought Swamp-Root at this store in the past. Adam Guthrie, Jr., Druggist.
