BIG BROTHERS' FARM ILLUSTRATED.—Chester A. Lyons, who is conducting a farm for the reclamation of boys near Lebanon, gave an illustrated talk on the work that is being carried on there before the young people of the Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church Sunday evening. The pictures showed different portions of the farm and the boys, whom Mr. Lyons is trying to reclaim, at work. It is Mr. Lyons' idea to take the boys to this farm and there teach them to become practical and self-supporting as the means for their reclamation and rescue, and that he is succeeding well along that line was shown by the pictures given in the course of his address. It was demonstrated that the boys become interested and soon desire to learn how to do farm work. This farm experiment is attracting much attention among welfare workers.

SCHOOL EXHIBIT IS TOMORROW.—An exhibit of the work of the Sellwood school will be held tomorrow under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. The exhibit will show the work of the school in the various departments. There will be sessions of interest to young mothers and one for older mothers which will be conducted by Mrs. C. D. Brown and Mrs. J. M. Smith, respectively. A junior exhibit of what the school children can make will be given. A musical and general program will be rendered by the school. In the evening from 7 to 9 the fathers will be given an opportunity to see the work done by the children.

COUNCIL MAY TAKE OVER THE BARR ROAD.—The Barr road, it is expected, will be taken over by the Council tomorrow, changing it from a county road to a city street. As soon as it becomes a street it falls under the jurisdiction of the city. Changing the Barr road into a street eliminates the last obstacle in the way of the grade crossings of the O.-W. R. & N. from East Thirty-seventh street east to the city limits, and proceedings may be started for these grade crossings. The plans and specifications for the grade crossings already have been prepared and these will be filed today.

GRANGE HEARD CONCERNING.—E. C. Smith gave a talk on "Corn and How to Select the Seed" at the meeting of the Rockwood Grange Sunday. Mr. Smith pointed out the great value of corn for many purposes, including feed for stock, and said it is one of the coming crops in this country. County Deputy T. J. Kreuder and G. O. Dolph were visitors, the former in his official capacity. Eight new applications for membership were received at this meeting.

Man Would Marry. "As far as the mother is concerned, if she would get a divorce I would gladly marry her, even if we had together only a few minutes, just to give the child a name. I know that technically I am guilty of both kidnaping and a violation of the Mann act, beyond eloping and living with her when I knew her to be the wife of another man. I have done no wrong."

Return of Baby Undecided. The question of bringing the baby back from Denver has not yet been settled. The state does not care to undertake the expense. Mrs. Swartzauer, however, said she will arrange to have it brought back.

Collins declares that he would like to have the Juvenile Court make an investigation and determine whether the child should be given to Mrs. Swartzauer. He expresses a willingness to have the whole matter threshed out in court, with the child's welfare as the controlling factor of the investigation.
