Increase of Army to at Least 120,-000, With 400,000 in Reserve, in Addition to Greater Navy, Proposed at Once.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 .- Four hunired million dollars for National deense, an increase of approximately $140,000,000 over last year, constitutes the amount which President Wilson and his advisers say should be appropriated by the next Congress for the Army and Navy. As the time for the completion of ana stronger naval programme than the A Sherman anti-trust sult against United States has ever authorized, and ustomary in time of peace.

Army Will Be Increased.

The President has had before him for several weeks the outlines of a military policy of a continuing character framed by Secretary Garrison after more than a year's study with officers of the general staff. With it the President is in hearty accord, regarding it as a conservative, well-balanced programme.

While the details have not been revealed a substantial increase in the regular Army, probably from 80,006 to at least 120,000 men, and the creation of a reserve of perhaps 400,000 men through short-term enlistment service of citizens in military training, are said to be parts of the plan.
