PORTLAND, Oct. 13.—(To The Editor.)—A newspaper is supposed to know everything and to be able to answer any questions. Assuming that The Oregonian knows more than I do, let me put a question or two.

Every newspaper proprietor who has been in the business for the past two decades knows that when we have good times for everybody—newspaper include—the Republicans have had control of the Presidential chair and both houses of congress. They also know that when we have had a Democratic President or a Democratic Congress we have been in the business dumps.

I have in mind just now a Portland newspaper which, when Roosevelt and McKiniey were in the Presidential chair, found that business was good and all kinds of advertising added greatly to the fatness of its pocket; but at other times (and especially now), this newspaper has suffered with the rest of us in a shortage of prosperity.
