CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

REGONIAN TELEPHONES.

Managing	Editor		Main	71
City Edite			Main	7
sunday Ed	ltor		Main
Advertising	. Dopert	ment	Main
City Circu	lation		Main
Composing	-room		Main
Printing-ro			Main
Superinten	gent Hu	Haing,	atain
			-

AMUSEMENTS.

AMUSEMENTS. HEILIG THEATER (Broadway and Taylor street.)-Oscar Figman in the comedy, "A Pari of Sizes." Tonight at 8:15. BAKER THEATER (Sixth and Mortheon streets.)-Bakes stock Company in "Help Wanted." Tonight at 8:15. ORFHEUM (Broadway and Yamhill street.) -Big-time vandeville, 2:20 and 8:20 P. M. PANTACES (Iddo at Broadway and Yamhill street.)

PANTAGES (Alder at Broadway.)-Vaude Ville, Performances 2:30, 7:30 and 9:30

M.

EMPRESS (Broadway and Stark stract)-Vaudeville, Performances 2:30, 7:30 and 9:15 P. M. LYRIC-(Fourth and Stark streets.)-Dil-ion and King in musical comedy, After-noon and night performances daily.

Advertisements intended for City News in Brief columns in Sunday's issue must be handed in The Oregonian business office by 5 o'clock Saturday evening.

REALTY BOARD TO MEET.--Portland's future as a port of foreign commerce will be discussed at today's noon lunch-eon meeting of the Portland Realty Board by Guy W. Talbot, president of the Portland Gas & Coke Company and the Portland Gas & Coke Company and the Pacific Power & Light Company. It is understood that the Board will endeavor to do something to help cor-rect the present alleged rate discrim-ination against Portland and the cards announcing the meeting say it may be the most important meeting in the Board's history. John Daly will act as chairman of the day. WANTED.--Party, or parties, to take Vincent'a Hospital.

TRANSPORTATION CLUB TO MEET.-George E. Hardy, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will be the prin-cipal speaker at the noon luncheon of the Portland Transportation Club, at the Multhomah Hotel on Monday, Octo-ber 18. Ralph E. Moody, attorney for Mr. Hardy's address. A vocal solo will be given by Miss Myrtle Johnson, E. A. Muncey, gaperal agent for Wellis-Fargo & Co., will be chairman of the day. E. Hardy, executive secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, will be the prin-cipal speaker at the noon luncheon of

& Co., will be chairman of the day. PEACE LECTURES SCHEDULED .- A new Reed College extension course, entitled "The Problem of World Peace," will begin tonight at 8 o'clock in Library Hall, Central Library. Five members of the Reed College faculty will give a series of eight factures dealing with war and peace from locical biological war and peace from logical, biological, economic, sociological and historical points of view. President Foster will lecture tonight on "Preparation for lecture tonight on "Preparation for War as a Guarantee of Peace."

SOLDIER FINED FOR "MASHING."-Soldier Fined for the Twenty-John Conway, private in the Twenty-first Infaniry, stationed at Vancouver Barracks, was fined $20 yesterday by Municipal Judge Stevenson, charged with violating the masher's ordinance. He will serve ten days. Conway at-tempted to start up a conversation with Mrs. S. M. Speckman Wednesday night and when she resented it he is alleged to have called her a foul name. He was arrested by Officers Drapeau and Tusi. arrested by Officers Drapeau and Tusi. arrested by Officers Drapeau and Tusi. COURT DETAINED AT MEDFORD,----Everett A. Johnson, assistant United States Attorney, returned yesterday from Medford, where he attended the opening of the United States District Court now in session there. United States Attorney Reames, Judge Wolver-ton and other court officials will be detained in Medford for a week or ten days more until the court calendar is cleared. New TRAIN SERVICE — Portland direct

REV. MR. CALDER WELCOMED.-Rev. A. E. Calder, pastor of Trinity Metho-dist Church, East Testh and East Har-rison streets, and Mrs. Calder were welcomed by the congregation at a re-ception Wednesday night. Rev. Mr. Calder was returned to Trinity Church by the last conference. Mrs. Thomas L. Luke presided. Samuel Morrow wel-comed Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Calder in be-half of the church. John Scott spoke for the Senior and Junior Epworth Leagues, and Fred Dunlop spoke in be-half of the community. Rev. C. C. Rarick, pastor of Central Methodist Church, represented the ministers of the city. Miss Ethel Luke, Haroid Day and C. H. Parish sang and refroshments the city. Miss Ethel Luke, Harold Day and C. H. Parish sang and refreshments ro served.

were served. FARD ROSENAU DIES.—Fred Rosenau died at his home, 830 Cleveland avenue, Wednesday at the age of 23 years and a months. He was a member of the Loyal Order of Moose and of the Odd-fellows. Mr. Rosenau spent most of his life in Oregon. He was the senior mem-ber of the plumbing firm of Rosenau & Schnellor, at 829 Williams avenue. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Ada H. Rosenau, five sisters and two brothes. Mrs. Anna Bell, of Nampa, Idaho; Mrs. C. V. Jennings, Mrs. M. Agler, Mrs. T. Franz and Otto and Jack Rosenau, of Portland. Funeral services will be con-ducted this morning at 5 o'clock from R. T. Byrnes' chapel, Williams avenue, and the interment will be made in Lone Fir Cametery. SCHOOL MAKES RIG DISPLAY.—More

SCHOOL MANES BIG DISPLAY.-- More than 500 different articles were placed on exhibition in the Sellwood School Wednesday. Included in the display were dogs, cats, rabbits, ducks and geese. A programme was provided afternoon and evening. Mrs. Alva Lee Stevens, of the Portland Council, de-livered an address on "Back to the Home." The display was under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Asso-ciation, which elected these delectes active interest in an exceptionally bigh-class manufacturing business of unusual merit, requiring an investment of few thousand dellars. An unusually promising enterprise which requires ability. From such only we solicit replies. Inquiries treated strictly con-fidential. Investments are secured by real estate, buildings, mark promising enterprise which requires men of good character and business ability. From such only we solicit replies. Inquiries treated strictly con-fidential. Investments are secured AB is2, Oregonian.—Adv. Mas. FAIRBANK BETTER.—Mrs. Fair-bank has convalesced sufficiently to be removed from St. Vincent's Hospital to the home of Mr. and Mrs. K. A. Hollo-way at 106 East Forty-fifth street. Mr and Mrs. Fairbank are old Portland residents and left a few months ago for an extended visit throughout the Northwest and Pacific Coast and had just arrived from the Panama-Pacho Exposition when Mrs. Fairbank was taken seriously III and removed to St. Vincent's Hospital.

-Hugh C. Strickland, large landowner and prominent wheat rancher of Conto acquire anything additional since their marriage because of her ex-travagant habits.

travagant habits. 0.-W. R. & N. TRAFFIC MANAGER BACK. - R. B. Miller, traffic manager of the 0.-W. R. & N. returned yesterday from San Francisco, where he attended the world's fair. Mr. Miller has resigned his office, effective November 1, and now is arranging his affairs ac-cordingly. Frank W. Robinson, as-sistant traffic manager of the company, who will succeed Mr. Miller, will leave of his new office. Rev. W. S. MCCULLAGH Accepts Cove

International and the second se creative mind of America's foremost fashion designer. The flounce of the coat is laid in box plaits, with stylish belted effect. The collar is trimmed in a stunning detachable fur scarf effect, cuffs to match; skirt is plain. This stunning style comes in new Whipcord fabric in most every shade.

The vaules are better than they will be later. We advise you to choose while selections are good. Priced very noderately for Friday and Saturday at $22.50.

The Biggest Waist @ 1 Value in Town at P

A new shipment of the smartest and newest waists for Fall. Ten different styles to choose from. Dainty Lawns, Russian Cords, Flaxons, Dimities and Voiles, trimmed in laces and embroideries. You'll pay twice this price in most stores for waists such as these. Friday and Sat. $1.00

Sensation 500 Newest Silk Velvet Shapes, Selling to $3.50 $1.55Without a doubt the greatest offering of millinery we have ever made. 500 of the finest silk velvet shapes in the very newest styles for Fall. Many of them are hand blocked, originally $42.50 per dozen wholesale. You will find at least 20 different shapes to choose from. The newest shades, such as Black, Navy, Purple and Green. This is the biggest bargain in untrimmed hats that has ever been offered in Portland. They can't last long, first come first served. For Friday-$1.55

A Great

Millinery

TRAILS CLUB MEETS TONIGHT.—Presi-dent Samuel C. Lancaster, of the Trails Club of Oregon, has called a meeting in the green room of the Portland 525, Pertland Addition, owned by Cecil H. Bauer, delinquent $413.41 in principal and $20.69 in interest. Block 30, lots 6 and 7, Couch Addition, owned by A. C. Smith, de-ingent of the State of the in the green room of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, at S o'clock to-night. Business of importance will be discussed and ways and means pro-

Jones' Dairy Farm-Little Pig Sausage Links, pound. . 40¢ Kippered Herrings, 6 for 25¢ Sausage Meat, pound ... 35¢ Fresh from the farm today. Mr. Jones has a National reputation for finest farm products. "There's a reason."

Have You a Home Nest?

New TRAIN SERVICE — Portland direct to Beaver Greek, Molalla, Liberal, Monitor and Mount Angel, and all intermediate points, via Willamette Val-ley Southern Railway, effective Sunday, October 17, 1915, and daily thereafter Round trip fare: Beaver Creek, $1; Molalla and Liberal, $1.20; Monitor and Mount Angel, $1,50. Trains leave First and Alder 9:15 A. M. and 6:15 P. M. -- Adv.

CIVIC LEAGUE MEETS TOMORROW.— Members of the Oregon Civic League will listen Saturday. October 16, to a talk on the commission form of city PEACH SELLER IN COURT TORAX — Algovernment. The speaker scheduled to appear is B. F. Irvine, and at the con-clusion of his talk any one who de-sires to object to the commission plan sires to object to the commission plan and champion the councilmanic form will be given an opportunity. Boys' Lamr at Y. M. C. A. RAISED.— On the recommendation of J. C. Meehan, boys' secretary, the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday raised the age limit in the division to 20 years, instead of 18 years. Lads may enter the division at the age of 10 years. Interest in the Older Boys' Club, formed last year, has been responsible formed last year, has been responsible for the change.

DRAMATICS CLASS MEETS TONIGHT.— The class in practical dramatics under the direction of Professor William G. Harrington will meet tonight in room H instead of room. The was a florist. A widow and two children, Ruth E. and Eugene, survive him. Hinstead of room A of the Portland Public Library, "... work assigned in "As You Like It," includes act I, acene 2, act IL, scene 2, and the char-acter of Jaques for special analysis.

LENTS FIRE CHECKED .- The Lents volunteer fire department checked a fire which broke out in the residence of Frank F. Hobson, 4825 Ninety-sec-ond street, yesterday morning about 4:15. The loss was about $100, the principal damage being to the furni-The fire started from an over-ALIEN WITH LICENSE ARRESTED .- For securing a license and hunting before he had filed his declaration of inten-tion of becoming an American citizen Sam Panna was arrested by Special Deputy Ellerman and brought into court, where he was fined $25 and costs. His license was revoked, men and women are welcome GAME WARDEN ON TRIP.--Carl E

Shoemaker, state game warden, left last night for Marion County on busi-ness in connection with his game law enforcing duties. He will visit Silver-ton and Mill City and will return to Portland early next week.

FLYNN says to "eat whole wheat bread." That's right, but be sure it is Haynes whole wheat bread.—Adv. IF BARGAIN, for cash, would buy fine diamond 114 to 2 carats. L 156, regular monthly meetings and enter-tainments throughout the Winter. All former residents of Colorado have been invited to attend.

DR. P. E. HALE has returned .- Adv.

LUMBERMEN TO DINE .-----------------------E. A. Sterling. of Chicago, manager of the ex-tension department of the National As-sociation of Lumber Manufacturers, will be the principal speaker at a din-ner at the Chamber of Commerce at 6:30 tonight. The meeting has been arranged by the West Coast Lumber Manufacturers' Association but of Dusiness men have been invited, PEACH SELLER IN COURT TODAY,—Al-leging that G. D. Riggs, who conducts an establishment on Yamhill street, between First and Second streets, was offering unwholesome peaches for sale, Officer R. E. Burks served a warrant on him yesterday afternoon. Mr. Riggs was released on his own recognizance was released on his own recognizance and he will appear in Municipal Court today.

FUNERAL OF WALTER A. MARTIN HELD, --Funeral services of Walter A. Martin, who died at his home, 439 Lombard street, on the Peninsula, was held yesterday from A. R. Zeller's chapel and interment was in Lone Fir

Ruth E. and Eugene, survive him. MAZAMA OUTING ARRANGED,-For their Sunday outing the Mazamas will leave town at 7:45 A. M. on the Caza-dero car and go to Alspaugh Station. The party will tramp up the east side of Eagle Creek, passing the falls to the forks, and will return on the west side to the railroad. The tramp is about 14 miles. Thin about 14 miles. EXTENSION CLASSES TONIGHT.-The class in English composition and rhetoric conducted by Mrs. class in English composition and rhetoric conducted by Mrs. Mabel Holmes Parsons, of the University of Oregon, will meet at 7:45 tonight in room B of the Library. Unruly

DOROTHY DAINTY, Broadway and Taylor, table d'hote dinner, 50c., Fri., Oct. 15, 5 to 7:30 P. M.: Fried chicken, lamb chops, fried chinook salmon .- Adv

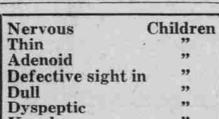

We have always told the people of Portland that Vinol is a wonderful body builder for alling children. Here is more proof of the fact :-

J. L. Albury, of Miami, Fla., says "Our little boy was puny and cross SERVICES SET FOR $ O'CLOCK.—Services will be held at Congregation Ahavai Sholom, Park and Clay streets, tonight at $ o'clock. Tomorrow morning serv-Sholom, Park and Clay streets, tonight at § o'clock. Tomorrow morning serv-ices at 9:30 o'clock, Rabbi R. Abraham-son will officiate Lack of Protection will ruin the very beat residence property. Laurel-hurst restrictions are ideal. Investi-gate some of the wonderful bungaiow bargains found here.—Adv. FLYNN says to "eat whole when the state of the st

Vinol is especially efficient in build-ing up puny, weak, ailing children, because of the real cod liver extrac-tives, peptonate of iron and beef pep-tone which it contains, and as it is without oil or gresse, children love to take it take it,

Are Quickly Corrected DR. PHILLIPS Suite 504 Oregonian Bidg.

SCHWAB PRINTINC CO BEN F.GREENE-HARRY FISCHER 2453 STARK STREET

SEWARD.

90 STARK ST.

the smoke.

Fine, fresh, fat fish, with 6181

the fresh tang of the sea and

Dear Friends: .

Most of us cling to the things of life to which we are accustomed.

One eats-sleeps-goes through the day -largely according to habit.

Why be a slave to routine?

Get out of the rut-live in an atmosphere calculated to give you a change-where variety, life and entertainment await youhere, at Hotel Multnomah-when and just to any extent you may desire.

Especially, Mr. and Mrs. Housekeeper, or Mr. and Mrs. Apartment Dweller, if any habit such as too much or too little of homelife is found to interfere with the welfare and happiness of yourself or family, it's time to break away-come and talk to me about the extraordinary special proposition we are now making to prospective resident guests.

It may be hard for you to break awayto make the start-but when once done, you will find a distinct gain in health, comfort and the joy of living, without any loss of satisfaction or any increase (perhaps a decrease) in your expenses.

A. C.Borron Nigr

Every woman has a natural desire to have a beautiful home. She is possessed of an inborn instinct for decorating it tastefully and harmoniously. But if you want to give her an opportunity to excel in home-beautifying, make her a present of a home of her own.

Why Not Give Your Wife This Nest to Beautify?

It has six large airy rooms and is located on a high 50x100-foot view lot in the LAURELHURST bungalow block on East Ash street, near East Forty-second street.

Here is a charming home, erected by one of the best builders in the city. It has every up-to-date, built-in contrivance installed, hardwood floors, excellent furnace, dainty kitchen with a perfect gem of a breakfast-room nook. Garage with entrance through basement, opening onto paved court in rear, with roof-garden overhead.

Price $4000 on terms that YOU can carry, which is $1000 below the present market value.

This lovely home needs but a woman to make it supremely beautiful. Isn't this your opportunity to make your wife happy and to make an excellent investment at the same time?

Main office 2701/2 Stark street. Main 1503, A 1515. Auto service.

PAUL C. MURPHY

Sales Agents for

