Team Seems Much Stronger Than That Which Lost to Pullman.

HARD SCRIMMAGE IS HELD

Only Danger Lies in Recruits Who Are Numerous-Aggies and Oregon Freshies to Play Two Games This Season.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene Or., Oct. 14.- (Special.)-Hugo Bezdek sent his men this afternoon through final hard siege of scrimmage work prior to the Idano game, and at the conclusion of it all there was good ground for belief that the lemon-yelground for behief that the lemon-yellow. Saturday, will be stronger than the cleven which met defeat at Pullman. The backs, Tuerck, Monteith, Huntington and Bob Malarkey, charge harder, rin faster and appear more finished than they did Monday. Hard work seems to agree with the Oregon team and from all the gloom a ray of sunshine is percolating and a victory day after tomorrow is probable. Idaho will face a team that has been keyed to the highest tension and a team which to lose means a season team which to lose means a sensor practically spoiled,
