Condemned I. W. W. Does Not Ask What Pardon Board Did and No One Tells Him.

EXECUTION TO BE RESET

Court Keeps Date of Its Action Secret, to Forestall Demonstration; Previous Arrest and Release Are Confirmed.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Maintaining a stoical indifference as to his fate, Joseph Hillstrom remains ignorant of the refusal of the Board of Pardons to commute his sentence to life imprisonment.

The District Court will reset the date for his execution some time this week, but the date on which the court will take action is being kept secret in order that any demonstration on the part of Hillstrom's friends may be forestalled.

The only development of the day was a confirmation from San Pedro of the report that Hillstrom was arrested there in the summer of 1913 in connection with a streetcar robbery, but was released on account of lack of evidence.

RECORD IN SAN PEDRO BARED

Hillstrom Once Arrested on Suspicion of Robbery.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—Joseph Hillstrom, to whom commutation of sentence was denied yesterday by the State Board of Pardons at Salt Lake City for the murder of J. G. Morrison and Morrison's son in Salt Lake, January 16, 1914, was said today by the Los Angeles police to have been arrested under the name of Joe Hill at San Pedro harbor, on suspicion of robbery on June 6, 1913.

The police records show that Joe Hill, or Hillstrom, was taken into custody by Sergeant J. A. Smith on suspicion of being implicated in the robbery of a Point Firmin streetcar. He was released because of insufficient evidence.

MAD COYOTES IN CONTROL

People on Oregon-Nevada Line Fear to Venture Out at Night.

WINNEMUCCA, Nev., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—From the tollhouse north of the Oregon line in Humboldt county the hills are reported to be alive with rabid coyotes, making it extremely dangerous for persons to travel without being armed.

At the Sanders ranch, near Golconda, the rabid beasts are said to be in control of the situation and are so plentiful that men fear to venture out at night. A rabid animal attacked a teamster near Golconda and forced him to take refuge on the seat of his wagon.

Government men in the field in Northern Elko county and are said to be killing the animals in large numbers.

The time named in the French statement is that at which the commander of the allied fleet was ordered to blockade the Bulgarian coast.

WEATHER DELAYS BULGARIANS

Rain, Fog and Snow Cause Great Exertions in Advance.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The following official communication, issued at Sofia last Friday, was received here today: "Yesterday, despite the bad weather in the theaters of operations—rains and fog and snow on the mountains—our armies pursued the offensive slowly, with great exertions all along the whole front.

"In Macedonia our advance proceeded rapidly. In the region of the upper Bregalnitsa valley our troops have attained the line of Dratcha, Tchoukagoljak, Tchjvaka, Peak and Colak Plannia and occupied Tzarevo, Pentchevo and Berovo.

"A heavy winter rain fell yesterday in the Austro-German theater. Nevertheless, the German advance continued, the Serbians being repulsed on the whole front south of Belgrade."

ITALY PROMISES TO HELP

Troops to Be Sent to Serbia, but Not by Way of Montenegro.

ROME, Oct. 17.—(Special.)—The Foreign Office has authorized the statement that Italy will co-operate with the allies in dealing with the Balkan situation. The exact date of active Italian support, as well as the direction which such support will take, are withheld for the present for military reasons.

It is, however, positively declared that Italian troops will not be sent to Serbia through Montenegro, but elsewhere. Their destination may, therefore, be the Dardanelles or the western front in France.

Threatened Move by German-Americans in Maryland Significant. Allies' Sympathizers Also Reported Organizing.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—President Wilson has determined to impress on the American people the imperative necessity of domestic unity. He delivered his first speech on the subject before the Daughters of the American Revolution. It will be followed by others and probably by a Congressional enactment designed to eradicate from the body politic men who assert themselves to be American citizens but who have never forgotten or severed from their allegiance to the country of their origin.

No pronouncement of the President has the importance of that he has just made. It touches the very life of the American Nation. The country has been and is threatened by a division into groups, based upon blood or sentiment. In past campaigns, appeals have been made to the German vote, the Irish vote, the Italian vote, the Scandinavian vote, the Jewish vote and the Polish vote.

Partisans threaten American ideals. During the present war an attempt has been made to organize a German-American party, avowedly to oppose as a unit any candidate for President who does not come out openly for the German cause.

The Administration had reason to believe that a movement was under way to fight any candidate who did not publicly declare his sympathy with the cause of the quadruple entente. In short, the United States was to be transformed into a battleground by partisans of Germany on the one hand and the allies on the other, and American ideals, American aspirations and American civilization were to be subordinated to and perhaps destroyed as a result of the preachment of those of foreign lands.

President Wilson realized that this constituted a National danger. It is not going too far to say that Mr. Wilson feels the Republic will be in danger unless the people unite and place American rights and American interests before those of any European state.

MARYLAND CASE IS ILLUSTRATION

The situation has been brought home to the Administration by what has happened in Maryland. Recently a state convention was held in that state to ratify the primary choices for Governor and other officers.

American Unit Works Through 3 Changes of Occupation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—American Red Cross doctors and nurses in Belgrade, Serbia, have seen the city change hands for the third time after bombardment and still are at work among the wounded, according to a message today from Dr. Edward W. Ryan, head of the Serbian unit. The cablegram was forwarded by Ambassador Penfield at Vienna, as Belgrade now is in possession of the Teutonic allies.

"We are still in Belgrade and working," Dr. Ryan reported, adding that all were well. The unit reached Belgrade before it was taken by the Austrians the first time. For several days the city was in the hands of the Serbs re-captured their capital, only to have it wrested from them again by the new Austro-German offensive movement seeking to open a road to Turkey.
