GERMAN CHURCH CELEBRATES.—The congregation of the Zion Evangelical Church, on East Fifteenth and Tacoma streets, in Seliwood, joined with the German Evangelical Church of Gresham in celebrating the 75th anniversary of the founding of the German Evangelical Snyod of North America. All-day services were held in the Gresham church, beginning at 10:30 A. M. From 12:30 to 2 P. M. there was an intermission, when luncheon was served by the Martha Society, and a reunion of the members of the church joining in the jubilee services was enjoyed by all. MODELS ARE SPLENDID the jubiles services was enjoyed by all. Several speakers from Portland and elsewhere delivered adresses during the day in the German language, in which the history of the synod was recounted. An offering was taken for the edu-cational institutions of the synod, of which there are several important ones.

Living, breathing and radiating the spirit of the masters who created the paintings they represent, Vinas' pictures are this week's chief attraction at the Empress Theater. Nine gorgeous and famous masterpieces, replicas of the originals, with rare lighting effects and a galaxy of beautiful women, perfect in figure and face, are the products of the genius and artistry of Mr. Vinas, farmerly a portrait painter. From the "Angelus" to "The Birth of the American Flag," there is not one of the groupings lacking in idea, artistry or realism. There was a good attendance during all the services of the day. LECTURE ON PALESTINE INTERESTS. "Glimpses of Palestine" was the sub-ject of the address by Princess Rahme Haider, the Syrian, last night at the Methodist Episcopal Church South, Union avenue and Multnomah street. Her address was a word-picture of the Holy Land and its social and political conditions, with which she is familiar. She told a story of rare interest, es-pecially at this time, when war is sweeping over Europe. Princess Haider has been in this country for several conditions, with which she is familiar. She told a story of rare interest, especially at this time, when war is sweeping over Europe. Princess Haider has been in this country for everal years, attending college to acquire the English language, and she has succeeded remarkably well. Her lecture last night was filled with information concerning the present population of Palestine and of special interest to the student of Oriental life.
