SOUTHERN OREGON GRASPS OLIVE TWIG

Portland Peace Overtures for State Development Accepted at Medford.

UNITED EFFORTS PROMISED

Sugar Company Offers Rogue River Valley $1,000,000 Factory Without Bonus if Beets Are Grown and Club Begins Campaign.

MEDFORD, Or., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—At the largest and most enthusiastic meeting of the Commercial Club held in the city since the year, Charles Robertson, of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, tonight extended the olive branch of peace and good will to the people of Southern Oregon and urged that the two sections of the state join hands in an effort to develop the state as a whole and bring prosperity to all sections.

"You say we have tried to shog it all," said Mr. Robertson. "Well, we have. You say we have worked against Astoria and Southern Oregon. We plead guilty.

"But these were errors of the past. They should have nothing to do with the future. We have reorganized the Portland Chamber of Commerce; we have a new spirit. We have 2000 young men of Portland and Oregon as members. They have a new spirit. And this new spirit may be expressed by the phrase 'team play.' We realize now that Portland is not a city to be developed until Oregon becomes a great state. We realize that Portland can only grow and prosper as the other communities of the state grow and prosper.

Mistakes Are Admitted. "We want to help you. We want you to help us.

"We admit our mistakes and errors of the past. We hope you may do the same and that we let by-gones be by-gones and join hands in bringing the prosperity to Oregon to which a state with its unlimited resources is entitled.

On behalf of the local Commercial Club, President Gates responded to Mr. Robertson's speech, thanked him heartily for his message of good will and asked him to take the message back to the organization he represented that Medford and Southern Oregon are heart and soul with the new movement for all the various parts of the state to join with Portland in furthering the welfare of the entire commonwealth.

Alexander Nibley and F. S. Bramwell, of the Oregon-Utah Sugar Company, spoke and gave formal assurance that a million-dollar beet sugar factory would be built in Rogue River Valley just as soon as 5000 acres of beets were signed up.

No Bonus Is Asked. "We have the money," said Mr. Nibley, "and you have the soil and sunshine. We ask no bonus, no land, no financial aid. All we ask is that you people of Jackson County grow the beets. After one factory is established and is successful, more will be built.

"Thanks to the promise of Secretary McAdoo that the dollar tariff on sugar will be retained, a great opportunity lies before the people of Oregon in the way of best culture. We are now shipping sugar from Utah to Washington. This should all come from Oregon.

A beet sugar committee was named by President Gates and they will at once start out to sign up acreage for the beet sugar factory.

Judge W. M. Colvig, of Portland, representing the Portland Land and Products Show, urged Rogue River ranchers to send exhibits and a delegation to Portland.

President Gates announced he and several members of the club would go to Portland and that an exhibit had already been arranged.
