

MUTUAL PLAN URGED

All Organizations Have Same Object, Says Labor Leader.

UNDERSTANDING IS ADVISED

Better Results in Solving Problems Would Follow, Eugene E. Smith Tells Chamber of Commerce Members Body.

"When organized labor and the organizations of business men can learn to get closer together and to try to develop mutual understanding, they will find that both will accomplish more toward the solution of the important problems that deal with the happiness of humanity," declared Eugene E. Smith, president of the Central Labor Council, in his address before the members of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Smith held that there is little difference in the aims and in the ultimate motives of business men and laboring men who organize, and said that the associations of the bar, the medical profession, the dental profession and numerous other branches of professional activity are essentially the same as trades unions and are organized for the same purpose—to increase the efficiency of the worker and to better his conditions of living.

Platform Similarities Cited. He read the platform of the labor organizations and pointed out wherein it closely resembled the platform of other organizations which are now working for the betterment of living conditions for the human race. "We should recognize that just as we find the most efficient and best organized business men in organized business bodies, the most efficient and best professional men in professional organizations, so we will find, after all is said, that the best informed and most efficient men in the laboring classes are to be found in the organized bodies."

He called attention to the recent report of the Federal Bureau of Industrial Relations and declared that if every business man would obtain a copy of that document and study it carefully, it would do more to clear up many of the misunderstandings about labor than anything else that could be done.

Check on Idleness Asserted. He asserted that if it had not been for the persistent efforts of the organized labor bodies to secure shorter hours and other improved conditions, the country today would find itself dealing with an unemployment situation ten times more serious than it now faces.

Rev. Luther R. Dyott, of the First Congregational church, spoke on the work of the religious bodies in dealing with the problem of unemployment.

JUDGE ASKS AID FOR BOYS

Industrial School at County Farm Suggested by Mr. Holman.

A letter from Juvenile Judge Cleston advocating the establishment of an industrial school for boys has been referred by the County Commissioners to the advisory budget committee, which will hold its first meeting November 1. Judge Cleston suggested that 10 or 20 acres of the old county farm on the Canyon road could be set aside for this purpose.

SCHOENER FUND GROWS

CONTRIBUTORS TO RETAIN PLANT SPECIALIST REACH $280.

Committee Reports That Work of Horticulturist is Too Valuable to Have Him Lost to Oregon.

The campaign that was begun three or four days ago to procure funds with which to bring Father George Schoener to Portland and establish him on an experimental farm in this city has already in contributions amounting to a total of $280. The contributors to date are: O. M. Clark, P. T. Griffith, Emory Olmstead, Nathan Strauss, G. E. Hardy, W. F. Burrell, Allen Lewis, J. C. Ainsworth, E. L. Thompson, J. L. Moler, J. N. Teal, A. L. Mills, Neustadter Bros., H. E. Corbett, Edward Holman, W. D. Wheelwright, Marshall Wells Hardware Company, F. J. King, Portland Cordage Company and W. W. Cotton. The contributions range from $10 upward. Father Schoener, whose accomplishments in Oregon have rivaled those of Luther Burbank in California, lost practically everything he had by fire a few days ago and is almost destitute. Prior to the time of the fire the Chamber of Commerce had been negotiating with him on plans to bring his experimental farm to Portland, so that all of his discoveries might be secured to the State of Oregon. The committee which is conducting the solicitation for funds to bring him here at once and establish him has decided, after investigation, that his work promises to be too valuable to the state for him to be permitted through adversity or other influences to be taken away from Oregon. The emergency fund that is being raised must reach a total of at least $625 for the preliminary establishment of Father Schoener's farm. Afterward other plans will be considered. Coe McKenna has offered to donate to Father Schoener the use of a ten-acre tract on the Peninsula and a house near the tract to be used as a residence. Other offers have been made, and Father Schoener will come to Portland in a few days to look over the site and to talk with the committee of the Chamber of Commerce on the plans for his coming here permanently.

WIDOW WINS INSURANCE

Company Alleging Fraud Loses Contest for $1000 Policy.

Judgment in favor of Edna J. Lindstrom for $1000, the full amount asked, against the National Life Insurance Company, was given by a jury in Judge Gatens' court yesterday. The woman sued to recover on a policy covering the life of her late husband, Oscar F. Lindstrom. The company had paid $190, but resisted payment of the balance on the ground that the policy had been secured by fraud. On the side of the company was testimony that Lindstrom had misstated the state of his health, while the defense asserted that the agent of the company was so anxious to get the policy that he assured Lindstrom that a physician who said the man had Bright's disease didn't know his business.

JAMES L. KEELEY ARRESTED. Man Wanted in Portland Captured in Duluth. James L. Keeley, wanted in Portland on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, was arrested yesterday in Duluth, Minn., and is being held for Portland authorities, according to a telegram received by Captain of Detectives Basty. Keeley, according to the police, passed through Portland recently on a honeymoon trip. While here he is said to have passed a worthless draft drawn on a Duluth bank on J. Gundersheimer, cigar dealer. Warrant for his arrest was sworn out by A. Molesworth.

CROSSING WORK HELD UP. Lot Owners Enjoin County From Encroaching on Private Property. A temporary restraining order against the County Commissioners, enjoining them from going on with the building of an overhead crossing over the right of way of the Southern Pacific at Bertha Station, on the Slavin Road, pending condemnation proceedings, was granted on petition of Anna Mercer and others by Federal Judge Bean yesterday. At the point where the work on the overhead crossing is progressing, it has been necessary to straighten the road so that it crosses a portion of three lots belonging to Anna Mercer and the other parties to the injunction proceedings. Viewers for the county fixed the damages at $625, but the Mercers demand $4500, though the three lots are assessed for a total of only $250.

Most Eminent Medical Authorities Endorse It. A New Remedy for Kidney, Bladder and all Uric Acid Troubles. Dr. Eberle and Dr. Braithwaite, as well as Dr. Simon—all distinguished authors—agree that whatever may be the disease, the urine seldom fails in furnishing us with a clue to the principles upon which it is to be treated, and accurate knowledge concerning the nature of disease can thus be obtained. If backache, scalding urine or frequent urination bother or distress you, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, gout or sciatica or you suspect kidney or bladder trouble, just write Dr. Pierce at the Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., send a sample of urine and describe symptoms. You will receive free medical advice after Dr. Pierce's chemist has examined the urine—this will be carefully done without charge, and you will be under no obligation. Dr. Pierce during many years of experimentation has discovered a new remedy which is thirty-seven times more powerful than lithia in removing uric acid from the system. If you are suffering from backache or the pains of rheumatism, go to your best druggist and ask for a 50-cent box of "An-uric" put up by Doctor Pierce. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak women and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the blood have been favorably known for the past forty years and more. They are standard remedies today—as well as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for the liver and bowels. You can have a sample of any one of these remedies in Tablet form by writing Dr. Pierce.—Adv.
