River front.

Under the misunderstanding that such privileges had been granted the People's Transportation Company, the City Council last night received a letter from Wood, Montague & Hunt, of Portland, attorneys for The Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Company, who suggested a suit at equity to clear the municipality of any entanglements that might arise from such an action. The judiciary committee of the Council, however, reported that it had given licenses or privileges to no river-boat company to make use of river frontage that would conflict with the use of the property for street purposes.

Pittsburg Boxer Owes Victory to Su perior Ring Generalship-Kneck-Out Scored in Third.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19 .- Frank Moran NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—Frank Moran, of Pittisburg, knocked out Jim Coffey, the Dublin giant, in the third round of a 18-round match here tonight. The Pittsburg boxer ewed his victory to his superior ring generalishin. Coffey was the aggressor at the beginning of the bour, but Moran, conserving his strength, waited for the opportune moment.

The first round began with Coffey The first round began with Coffey rushing at Moran. He sent a right uppercut to the Pittsburger's face and a hard left to his stomach. Moran struck few effective blows in the initial round. Coffey's long right kept Moran away at the beginning of the second round. The Pittsburger, however, adopting rushing tactics, sent a right to Coffey's ribs and a hard right to the Dublin giant's head. These blows forced Coffey to the ropes, where Moran then sent three successive rights to his head. Coffey appeared very weak as the bell rang.
