DARING FASHION WHICH HAS BEEN ADOPTED BY AMERICAN WOMEN AND WORN BY EX-PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER.

Pantalettes as worn in New Suit Adopted by Mrs. Nicholas Longworth @ Underwood

The pantalettes, the design for which was resurrected from the old-fashioned pantaloons and brought to America by Miss Mary Wall, the fashion authority, has been adopted by many American women, among them Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, daughter of ex-President Roosevelt. She recently appeared on Michigan boulevard, Chicago, in the latest costume.

In Paris, the Callot sisters are considered among the best of the dress creators of the French capital. On the Continent, Leon Bakst, the Russian artist, worked out a charming model for Fall wear. So popular has it become abroad that over here the petticoat manufacturers are already beginning to make plans to offset its effect on their industry.

The model is a three-piece street costume. The pantaloons and waist are combined. The material used is black broadcloth trimmed with Russian fitch.

Put the accent upon "yourself." You may not be able to have the friends you like, the people who can talk over with you the books, the pictures, or the aims in life that are dear to you. You may not be able to go to the entertainments you wish, the really good plays, the fine concert.

You cannot afford perhaps the trips you want, that glorious one about the world, that is a haunting longing; the little fauna into the mountains, the jolly camping expedition you have always hungered for.

If plays and concerts must be given up because of lack of means, there is many an enjoyable free lecture and organ recital, or a fine bit of music in some church that is an uplift and that will help give you that mental equipment to make you more enjoyable to yourself.

If trips cannot be taken, a walk is always possible. And a walk whether in the city or country is full of enjoyment. There are always wayside flowers or tiny spots of grass or the stars to talk to one and tell marvelous tales. The mere fact that these things exist furnishes food for thought as to why and how they exist, which makes a walk almost a vision celestial.

You can be such a merry, jolly companion for yourself that the lack of the companionship you want need not be the dreary loss you imagine. Stevenson enjoyed himself. As a child he had a wonderful time with pirates and other interesting people of his imagination. As a young man he thoroughly enjoyed himself with only an obstinate donkey for a traveling companion. Had he been shut up on a desert island, can one doubt but that he would have had a good time with himself?

If you are a good companion for

YOUR BRONCHIAL TUBES

When a cold settles in the bronchial tubes, with that weakening, tickling cough, immediate treatment is very important. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present, your head jars with every cough and your chest may ache. This is no time for experimenting or delay—you must get Scott's Emulsion at once to drive out the cold which started the trouble, and it will check the cough by aiding the healing process of the encrusted membranes.

If you have any symptoms of bronchitis, or even a stubborn cold, always remember that Scott's Emulsion has been relieving this trouble for forty years. It is free from alcohol or drugs. Refuse substitutes.

DEER COSTS BANKER $75

Prosecutions Pressed Against Those Who Neglect Licenses.

State Game Warden Shoemaker and his deputies are no respecters of persons when it comes to enforcing the state game laws. One of the convictions obtained by the game department last week was that of C. F. McKinney, president of the Harney County Bank, of Burns. Mr. McKinney pleaded guilty to a charge of killing a female deer and a fawn, preferred against him by F. W. Triska, deputy game warden, and was fined $75. He paid the fine.

The state game department has been having an unusual amount of difficulty this season with sportsmen who have not taken out hunting licenses. The prosecution of this offense has been so vigorous, however, that the number of hunters willing to "take a chance" has decreased remarkably of late.

CLUB HOST TO FAIR FOLK

Progressive Business Men Arrange for Illustrated Talk.

Today is ladies' day meeting of the Progressive Business Men's Club at the ballroom at Multnomah Hotel. The Trails Club of Oregon will have charge of the meeting, as the guests of the club. Samuel C. Lancaster, president of the Trails Club, will explain the object and purpose of the organization, which is largely due to the efforts of the Progressive Business Men's Club. The talk will be illustrated by the celebrated Berger colored slides, which are said to be the finest of their kind ever prepared.

George Jackson will be chairman of the day. Mrs. Herman Hooke will render a soprano solo, accompanied by Miss Eva Parrel.

Certain elements are necessary for building stout bodies and active brains. The great majority of these all-important elements for life and health are supplied by Nature in her field grains, wheat and barley. But white flour products lack these essential elements—Why?

Because the miller to make his flour look white and pretty throws out about 4-5ths of the mineral content of the wheat necessary for building brain, nerve and muscle.

Grape-Nuts FOOD

Not only does this famous pure food supply all the sound nourishment of the wheat, including the vital mineral elements—sturdy builders of brain, nerve and muscle—but of malted barley as well.

Grape-Nuts is easily digested, generally in about an hour—white flour products require about three hours.

Grape-Nuts is always ready to eat direct from the dust-proof, moisture-proof, germ-proof packet—delicious and economical.

Not alone from the scientific side but from the view-point of better health thousands have come to know

"There's a Reason" for Grape-Nuts Sold by Grocers everywhere.
