proprietors. One of the aliases which he is said to have used in operations is that of "Riebford."

Richford, after his arrest, would tell the officers little about himself or his movements. He said that his father was wealthy and lived in the East, although he would not divulge the name or address of his parents. He gave this age as 24 years and his occupation as that of a salesman.

Baggage Whereabouts Concealed. Baggage Whereabouts Concealed.
Detectives Price and Mallett attempted yesterday to locate the man's baggage in the belief that it might give some clew to his operations. When he left Centralia he is said to have had a large number of suitcases with him. He refused yesterday to tell where he was staying in Cortiand or where his baggage was located.

The Centralia officials were notified last night that Richford was under arrest, and they will send a man to take rest, and they will send a man to take him back to that city for trial. De-tectives are of the opinion that he is one of the cleverest bad check men operating on the Coast for some time.

on a bench warrant issued following her indictment by the grand jury Tuesday on a charge of arson. She is held on $500 bail.

The indictment against Mrs. Kennedy also includes as defendants George Woolette, Mordie Kenney and Mont Akeyson, all under previous indictments as members of an alleged arson ring. The specific act charged against Mrs. Kennedy and the others is the destruction by fire of a house in Burrage Tract, an addition to the City of Portland, October 28, 1912. This building was insurance for $2700 with the Northwestern National Insurance Company of Milwaukee, Wis., and was owned by Mrs. Kennedy, according to Fire Marshal Stevens.

gage, a man giving his name as Cecil Richford was arrested at the corner of Broadway and Washington streets by City Detectives Price and Maliett yesterday, and is being held for Centralia, Wash, authorities on a charge of passing a bad check.

Detectives say they have clews which will probably implicate Richford in forgeries and bad check work in San Francisco and various other Coast cities. He arrived in Portland yesterday from the north, and is believed to have been preparing to begin operations in this city on an extensive scale.

The specific charge against Richford is that he passed a worthless draft drawn for $50 on C. R. Wilson, proprietor of the Wilson Hotel, in Centralia. Richford at first denied the charge, but later admitted his guilt, according to detectives, and offered to make the amount of the draft good if released. The appearance of S. P. Lockwood, the second member of the teachers' committee, in the city after a favorable recommendation was signed by its chairman, Dr. Alan Welch Smith, has put a new aspect on the situation. White he favors the measure, he thinks that the instruction should begin after.

TEST SUIT BEGUN

CONSTITUTIONALITY OF 1915 STAT. UTE TO BE DETERMINED.

C. S. Jacobson Is Defendant in Action Charging Unlawful Sale of Product Imported From China.

As a preliminary step to testing the constitutionality of a 1915 statute aimed at preventing the sale or use of imported eggs, a complaint was issued yesterday by District Attorney Evans, through Deputy George Mowry, charging C. S. Jacobson, of the Scally-Dresser Company, with a violation of the law. He will be tried in District Court. The intention is to provide a test case which wil be taken as speedily as possible to the Supreme Court of the state for final adjudication.

The contention of Jacobson's attorneys is that the law is unconstitutional in that it interferes with interstate commerce. The test was arranged between Mr. Jacobson, representing the

Furs Advance 25 to 100 in Six Months

"Old Prices" Still in Order Here---But We Cannot Say for How Much Longer

-The early indications were that furs would be cheaper this season than ever before-because war closed the foreign markets. -Now, however, there is a reaction. London, the largest fur market in the world, is closed-no furs are coming from there. Leipsic, the biggest dyeing center in the world, is closed. Result: a great scarcity of furs. It is almost impossible to replace the furs we've sold. But in spite of the radical increase on all fur, we are selling all our reliable choice furs at prices quoted at the begin-
