SALT LAKE, Utah, Oct. 21 .- (Special.)-Bill Orr came near upsetting all Paul Fittery's great box work this afternoon in the ninth when he booted couple of double plays that mixed with a couple of outs, a double and with a couple of outs, a double and a single and hung up four tallies for the Angels. But the prayers of the fans were answered and no more balls were hit toward Bill and Pop Dillon's athletes were retired, while the score stood 7 to 5 in favor of the home club. Blankenship's diminutive portsider was in great form and really deserved on the basis of scores made they

a shutout. The first tally for the Angels came on Koerner's single that went for three bases when Shinn fell down and the ball rolled to the fence. Harper fanned and Terry hit a liner to Orr and Bill misjudged the ball and went for a single on what would have went for a single on what would have been the third out. Hi West had rough sledding all the way, but was allowed to stay through.

Salt Lake took its runs on hard and consistent slugging. In an effort to grab a firm hold on second place Blankenship may send Lefty Williams back tomorrow. Lefty is anxious to work, as he is anxious to grab 33 wine before the end of the seasan. He now has 31.

BILL RODGERS TO BE BEA-ERS' CAPTAIN NEXT YEAR.

ERS' CAPTAIN NEXT YEAR.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 21.—
(Special.)—Bill Rodgers is to be captain of the Beavers next year. At least that is the statement of "Heinle" Speas, for he is captain this year, and he ought to know. Speas says Rodgers is well-fitted for the place. The second sacker, who now is in the big show, and who will be with Portland next year, has been Walter McCredie's righthand man for the last few years. At times Rodgers practically ran the club.

Committee Appointed by Principal to Investigate Doubtful Standing of Players Among Opponents.

Standing of Athletes Doubted. "Jefferson High started this protesting and it is up to us to finish it," said one of the members of the Lincoln High committee last night. "If the protest had come in a week or two ago so that we could have looked up the matter thoroughly and in the meantime developed another player it would have been different.

"We feel that there are several athletes in this league who are not eligible to represent the various institutions and now that attempt has been made to atart something we are going to help atart something we are going to help it along. The committee was appointed by Mr. Davis to investigate the charges and if we find that they are true they are to be presented to the board of di-rectors of the Portland Interscholastic League." Professionalism Center of Fight.

Franklin High School will be in line to win the 1915 football championship of the Fortland Interscholastic League, although this aggregation is the youngest and lightest in the circuit.

The committee in charge of the investigation for the Lincoln High School is composed of Tommy Richardson, Captain Ray Groce, Jack "Caruso" O'Bryan, Wallace McTarnahan and lete Forecasts Shakeup.

'I Told You So" Attitude Adopted as to League Retrenchment.

LOS ANGELES, Cal. Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Walter McCredle, leader of the Beavers, has adopted an "I told you so," attitude to the Coast League directors. The McCredies were strong for retrenchment this Spring and wanted the directors to economize more than they did.

"The league has lost money this year and it is the fault of the directors," said the Beaver manager.

"They will make a number of reforms this Winter, but if they had done it last year everyone would have been better off."

If you forgot the amount, the chances are ten to one that you haven't forgotten that it seemed a good deal of money to plank down at one time. Of course, if your circumstances permit you, sir, to buy new clothes whenever you want them, the above statement doesn't apply to you and it must be admitted that you're mighty fortunate.

But most men can't spend $25 or $20 for a new suit of clothes without 'feeling it.' Many hundreds of them prefer to pay for their clothes on installments, passing a fraction of the price when they pick out their Suit and paying off the remainder in convenient weekly or monthly sums. And that's just what they do at CHERRY'S Credit Clothing Store.
