MRS. EDNA KLUM'S FUNERAL TODAY.—Mrs. Edna Klum, aged 59 years, wife of Hiram Klum, died at her home, 1205 Commercial street, Thursday. She is survived by her husband, a daughter, a son and two brothers. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock today at the residence of Mrs. Klum, 1205 Commercial street. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

SCHOOL HEARS SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA.—Upon the request of the principal, T. Davis, the final rehearsal of the Portland Symphony Orchestra for its first concert, was held at the auditorium of the Lincoln High School yesterday morning. The concert lasted almost two hours, and the hearty applause accorded the musicians demonstrated the students' appreciation. The School Board has been asked to appropriate $1000 for the support of the orchestra in return for the performances that are given for the benefit of the students. The Board has taken the matter under advisement.

SACRED HEART CARNIVAL OCTOBER 27.—The annual carnival of the Sacred Heart parish will be held Wednesday, October 27, at the parish hall, near Milwaukee street. C. H. Kenneth is chairman of the executive committee and arrangements. Mrs. T. J. Reynolds and Mrs. Gardner have charge of the prizes. They report many valuable donations. Mrs. Kreish, chairman of the Sacred Heart Society, has donated a full set of handsome dishes for the carnival. An interesting programme will be rendered. The carnival will continue for three nights.

JUDGE CLOSES LINNTON RIOT CASES.—The last of the cases growing out of the Linnton riot was heard yesterday, September 12, were cleaned up by Judge Gantenbein yesterday when he fined Joe Fusch, $50 and sentenced Earl Schermora to 60 days in the County Jail. Schermora was paroled, however, on a showing that he had been in jail constantly since September 12. The two men pleaded guilty to assault and battery on E. H. White. Their trouble with White constituted the vanguard of the riot.

ALLEGED SPREEDER FACES TRIAL.—Jasper Keffer, who was arrested at Eleventh and Stark streets Thursday night by motorcycle officers Crane and Goldstone, charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, will be tried in the Municipal Court next Wednesday. According to Deputy Sheriff Carl H. Jackson, Mr. Keffer was driving up Washington street at 35 miles an hour, immediately preceding his arrest. He is said to have run into Mr. Jackson's automobile and another machine on Washington street.

POLICE FIND STOLEN AUTO.—Taken by auto thieves while standing in front of the Orpheum Theater on the night of October 20, a new seven-passenger car belonging to L. M. Starr, of the building, was found early yesterday morning by Police Sergeant Oelner on Eleventh street, between Alder and Morrison streets. The driver, who had left the machine there after taking a joyride. It was apparently unoccupied, and was taken to the station and Mr. Starr was notified.

ROBBER CONFESSES, SENTENCED.—August DeBoodt, pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Gantenbein yesterday morning to taking various articles of clothing from Alphonse Audel, 606 1/2 Thurman street, and was sentenced to 60 days in jail. He refused to enter a plea and took a suit of clothes, an overcoat, a hat and a watch chain. The suit and overcoat were pawned for $150, but he had the hat and chain when arrested Thursday night at Fourth and Burnside streets.

TOO MUCH MOTHER-IN-LAW BLAMED.—Too much mother-in-law is the charge of a divorce complaint filed yesterday by George E. Miller against Lulu J. Miller. Miller declares his wife insists on keeping her mother with them and that said mother is a constant source of trouble. On the other hand, he asserts, she refuses to entertain his mother or his sisters and invariably is spiteful in her attitude towards them.

$500 JUDGMENT RECEIVED.—Judgment for $500, the full amount asked, was given E. C. Gardner against A. J. Ray & Son, Inc., hog growers, for personal injury to Judge Carl Morrow's court yesterday. Gardner, a laborer, was hurt by coming in contact with an improperly guarded engine while employed at the Riverdale Hop Farm, in the northern part of Marion County, in July, 1913.

LINNTON FRANCHISE ACCEPTED.—Acceptance of a franchise on the Linnton road for a railway line has been filed with Oregon County Commissioners by G. M. Clark, Richard Shepard and J. B. Holbrook, who propose to build a 5-cent fare electric line connecting Portland and Linnton. The franchise of the United Railways on this road was cancelled because of violations of its terms, principally by increasing the fare to 10 cents. Subsequent to the cancellation the United Railways secured a freight franchise as far as Olton with common user privilege. Messrs. Clark, Shepard and Holbrook probably will take advantage of this common user clause to run their cars over the line as far as constructed.

DRILL TOWER SOON READY.—The drill tower of the Portland Fire Department under construction at the rear of the fire station on East Third and East Pine streets, will be completed next week, ready for use. It stands the same height as a four-story building, attached to the engine-house by steel bars. It will be covered with galvanized iron. The inside will be used for storing hose. The plans for the structure were prepared by Battalion Chief Holden. The tower will be 30 feet high, and will cost $3000. The appropriation for the Portland tower was $2500, but the actual cost will not be much in excess of $2000. The cost is only for material, and the firemen are doing the work.

MR. LANE AND MRS. STONER TO TALK.—Senator Hiram Lane and Mrs. Winifred Sackville Stoner will be the speakers before the Civic League at its luncheon at the Hotel Portland, Monday, October 26. Mrs. F. S. Myers will introduce Mrs. Stoner, who will speak upon "Natural Education for the Citizens of the United States." The subject announced for the afternoon meeting is "Patriotic Fabrics" and the announcement goes on to say "it may be necessary to show you how you were 'fooled' in Dress-Up Week."

IMPROVEMENTS ALREADY COMPLETED.—Improvements of several streets in St. Johns suburb have been completed, including North Hayes, Swenson and Leonard streets. North Hayes was improved from Philadelphia to the center line of Clinton street at a cost of $1000. Leonard street was improved from Charleston to Chicago street, and an assessment of $197 was made for the improvement. The assessment was from Oswego to Myers streets. All these improvements were for grading and cement sidewalks, and were authorized by the old St. Johns Council.

ROYAL ROSARIAN BAND TAKES NEW MEMBERS.—A special meeting of the Royal Rosarian Band Thursday evening, five new members, J. R. Tomlinson, Frank Robinson, George Fety, E. C. Shipley and Paul Mahoney, were taken into the organization. A proposed concert was discussed and met with much interest and no music will be played near future. Upon the resignation of C. W. Bourne as secretary of the band, Andrew Loney was chosen as his successor.

WAGNER MUSIC PROMISED.—The Reed College chapel service this morning at 8:30 will be devoted to a programme of Wagner music. A special meeting of the Reed College choir will be held at 8:30 P. M. The programme will include "Parsifal," "Pilger Chor" and the "Valkyrie March," on the Olds memorial organ, and together with Louise Hickey at the piano will play a prelude to "Parsifal." Professor Norman Coleman will give a short talk.

TWO SENTENCES FOR THEFT.—One hundred and eighty days each were meted out to George Wade and Douglas P. Swinn by Municipal Judge Stevenson yesterday when they appeared before him charged with taking $15 from Barney Faulk, of Olympia, Wash. Faulk identified them as the men who had taken his money.

SELLWOOD MASONS HEAR ADDRESS.—Sellwood Lodge, No. 131, A. F. and A. M., heard addresses last night by Wallace McCamant and A. T. Bailey. A musical entertainment was rendered by Dr. J. J. Sellwood, Gus Cramer, Enoch Elmgreen and F. L. Moreland.
