

UPSETS MANY IN FOOTBALL RESULTS

Northwest Games Are According to Form, but East Is Full of Surprises.

BERKELEY APPEARS WEAK

Michigan Aggies, by Victory Over Yost's Team, Likely to Swamp Oregon Aggies; Dobbie Seems to Have Another Easy Game.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Northwestern football ran somewhat true to the form charts Saturday—Washington 21, Gonzaga 7 and Oregon 21, Whitman 0—but elsewhere there were enough surprises on tap to load a Christmas fir. Look'em over: California 10, Southern California 28, Cornell 19, Harvard 9, Yale 7, Washington and Jefferson 16, Michigan 0, Michigan Aggies 24, Nebraska 20, Notre Dame 19, Pittsburg 17, Wisconsin 17, Pennsylvania 10, Stanford 10, although Warner's victory hardly butts into the arena as a curiosity. It is interesting to note the Navy 49-7 the week previous and that was rather a forecast of what the Pitts had up their sleeves. The two prime upsets of the week, from a local viewpoint, were the rout of the California boys by University of Southern California, and the terrible trouncing Michigan suffered at the hands of the Michigan Aggies, whom they defeated last year 3-0. There was considerable speculation over this game hereabouts, because the Oregon Aggies left last evening for East Lansing to rub shoulders with the same man-eating squad that stopped all over "Hurricane" Yost. Corvallis Faces Trimming. One thing is very evident, viewing the coming fray from this distance, and that is that the Corvallis boys are due for a trimming—and a bad one. It may not exceed the 28-0 lacing administered by Washington State a week ago—everybody hopes not—but every element of psychology and physiology will be against Dr. Stewart and his proteges—strange field, crowd, weight and condition. And now we turn to the California slaughter, Southern California 28, California 10. Whew! To a Berkeleyite this score will sound about as funny as a cry for help, but to Gil Dobbie, well, the Washington coach ought to be able to extract a globule of mirth out of that score. The Oregon Aggies defeated Southern California something like 35-6 last fall in the historic Belgian benefit game at Tacoma. The California boys, stronger this season, "its said—trims California 28-10, and Washington is to tackle California on November 6 at Berkeley for the "Pacific Coast championship." As the season progresses the fact impresses itself more and more upon you that Gil Dobbie is a sly fox when it comes to arranging "difficult" schedules for himself. If the pugacious patriarch, the sound counsellor doesn't go through another unbroken season it will be no fault of his, and who can blame him?

Double Has Easy Time Ahead. Washington schedules calls for games with Gonzaga College of Spokane, Whitman College, two with California and a Thanksgiving game with Colorado. Already the purple and gold has beaten little Gonzaga, 21-7; Oregon and the Oregon Aggies have eliminated Whitman by scores of 28-0 and 28-0. Colorado has already been scalloped and frapped, 28-6 by the Colorado Aggies a fortnight ago and 44-0 Saturday by Colorado College, the finest victory of Southern California completed the butchery by rolling the Berkeley variety around in the California team 28-10. And, mind you, Washington sidestepped Oregon, the Oregon Aggies and Washington State last winter so as to move out into the open company. Such company is about as fast as Tube Maxmeyer on stilts—or as Harry Meek doing yard work in a straight-jacket. Washington should have no difficulty in defeating California anywhere from 28-0 to 60-0, and if the Dobbies do not win another "surprise" anthem. Washington has initiated a new custom. Scores of the football games are tacked off on the expensive campus, recently installed on the campus. From an economical viewpoint we humbly suggest that they hire a trip-hammer. It will do the work much more efficaciously, we wot. What wot you?

Oregon on Even Keel. Oregon's 21-0 defeat of Whitman college shows that Bezdell's back to an even keel and were Oregon to cross with Washington State again we are of the opinion that the battle would be mighty close. Bez figures that the score should have been about 14-10 anyway. One of the Washington State touches was simply handed over all done up in lace curtains and baby ribbons. Bezdell sent little Anson Cornely into the game about the third or fourth quarter, and Captain Anson tried to pull an unexpected coup on his opponents. He and Johnny Beckett made up a fresh front pass play on the spur of the moment and they fired fine—for the other fellows. Zimmerman or some Slater intercepted it and ran about 70 yards for a touchdown. Naturally it made the coach look bad for there was no safety on the play, hence this little explanation. Oregon has only Williamette to meet between now and November 20, when the state championship classic with the Aggies will be played at Eugene. The Oregon Aggies, on the other hand, will meet the Michigan Aggies next Saturday and Idaho on November 6 at Corvallis. This will give both teams a fortnight's rest before their most important game of the Fall. In 1913 these two played a 19-10 tie and last year it finished a 3-3 standoff so the 1915 clash is cloaked with more than ordinary interest. Judging from the scores thus far, they are again closely matched. Washington State walloped Oregon 28-3 and the Aggies 28-0, and Oregon defeated Whitman 21-0 and the Aggies trimmed the Missionaries 34-7. The bug who can find any considerable edge in this doping could find an oyster bed in Kansas.

CLEVELAND AMATEURS WIN Tacoma Team No Match for Opponents in Final Contest. OAKLAND, Cal., Oct. 24.—The White Autos, of Cleveland, won the amateur baseball championship of the world, decisive of the intercollegiate games, today by beating in decisive fashion the South Tacoma, Wash., Tigers in the last of a series of three games. The game was a procession led by the Ohio boys who bettered the Tigers in every department. Cleveland had 14 runs before Tacoma scored. In the third inning, Ely, the Tiger's left-hand pitcher, was taken out of the box, the Autos having made eight hits off his delivery and killed

Spalding football circuit. The Vancouver Barracks eleven played the East Portland aggregation a 6-to-6 score in the inter-city league on the East Twelfth and East Davis streets grounds and at the same time the Junior Moose and Nob Hill fought to a 7-to-7 standstill in the Spalding league on the Twenty-fifth and Raleigh streets gridiron. South Portland won from the Columbia Park second team, 7 to 0, in one of the cleanest and fastest games ever played on the South Portland bottoms. Rolly Jones made all the points for the winners. All the games were played in a steady downpour and the East Portland field was nothing less than a mudhole. A meeting of the managers in the Spalding league will be called tonight at 8 o'clock at 245 Washington street. All managers must be present. Holohan's Team Wins Shoot. Another match between the two teams that competed Saturday, was held at the Portland Gun Club grounds at Jenne station yesterday afternoon. This time the aggregation led by P. J. Holohan proved to be better than the one captained by J. P. Bull by 10 birds. In the regular event J. P. Bull made a run of 72 straight and finished the day with 95 per cent, just one bird behind P. J. Holohan, who was first. W. C. Bristol, with a 20-gauge gun, broke 45 out of 50 in the match, and 78 per cent in the regular event. Following are the scores in the match event: P. J. Holohan 48, W. C. Bristol 45, H. R. Everding 45, H. A. Pollock 44, total 187; J. P. Bull 45, E. H. Keller 41, John C. Clemson 37, E. L. Matthews 47, total 172. The regular scores are: P. J. Holohan, 86; J. P. Bull, 85; E. L. Matthews, 84; H. R. Everding, 81; E. H. Keller, 87; H. A. Pollock, 85; W. C. Bristol, 78, and John G. Clemson, 76.

Okanozan Defeats Wenatchee, 6-0. WENATCHEE, Wash., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Coach Boone and his Okanozan proteges sprang an unlooked-for surprise on Wenatchee yesterday when they won the game by a 6-to-0 score. The game was hard fought from the blowing of the whistle to the end. The condition of the field slowed up the play. Two tie games are played. Barracks and East Portland have 6-6 Score; Moose and Nob Hill 7-7. Two tie games were played in Portland yesterday, one in the Inter-City Football League and the other in the

SUMMER BALL KEEPING STARS OUT OF FOOTBALL

Minnesota and Yale Drop Gridiron Heroes Because of Professionalism. Jefferson High Permits Wolfers, Semi-pro, to Stay in Game.

BY U-NO-ME. MINNESOTA'S losing one of her star football men because of playing baseball during the summer with some team in organized leagues. Only last week Solon, star end for the past two seasons and captain of this year's varsity eleven, was placed under the ban by the faculty. He may even be expelled from the university because he signed a statement that he was a "simon pure" athlete. It looks like poor head work for a man who has twice been chosen end for the third team by Walter Camp to lead the college football team in the American. Especially after seeing such great athletes as George Capron, Sig. Harris, Ollie Pickering and several others who secured him through draft. Back in 1907, George Capron made his debut as a member of the football and as a halfback and drop-kicker there has been none better in the "big nine" conference. In the game against Wisconsin, he kicked two drop kicks from the 45-yard line and one from the 25. For two years he kicked field goals with unerring accuracy from points near the center of the field and the other schools were on the lookout for someone to remove his educated toe out of the way. At last a Chicago student noticed that a certain baseball player shown in Spalding's Guide resembled Capron, though his haircut was not familiar. Investigation brought to light the fact that he had played in both the Northern League and the South Atlantic League. His playing had attracted the scouts of John McGraw, of the Giants, who secured him through draft. George was turned over to Seattle and helped win a pennant in '09, when Mike Lynch was pitched.

Ralph Capron was a member of the Minnesota team, but no one thought it was not as spectacular a player as Brother George. Later, after he joined the Boston Braves, he played in the Cotton States League under the name of Davis. Pickering, who for the past two seasons has been coaching the athletic team at Arkansas University, was expelled during his last year under Dr. Williams. George Zabel, the Chicago Cub pitcher, has for four years been playing professional baseball, and after the season hops a rattler for Edwain, Kan.

OREGON AGGIES OFF FOR GAME IN EAST

Eighteen Players, 2 Coaches Leave in Special Car for East Lansing, Mich.

MEN ALL IN FINE SHAPE

Squad Will Practice En Route for Contest With Michigan Aggies Saturday; Record Time to Be Made on Trip Home.

BY EARL B. GOODWIN. Traveling in a state that would make the most prosperous theatrical troupe green with envy, the Oregon Agricultural College football squad, led by Dr. E. J. Stewart, their coach, departed for Portland last night on their long journey to East Lansing, Mich. They are scheduled to appear against the Michigan Aggies on the Easterners' grounds next Saturday afternoon and if the game isn't a thriller it won't be the fault of the Oregonians. The squad, 20 in number, arrived from Corvallis a little before 6 o'clock last night and boarded the Union Pacific at 7 o'clock. Quite a delegation was on hand to bid the athletes goodbye, although it was raining hard. Players in Good Shape. All the players are in good condition. "We haven't had much opportunity to get a line on our opponents," said Coach Stewart, "so our showing will have to depend on what style they put against us when the game starts. We have arranged to practice at 3 o'clock every afternoon while on the trip east and for half an hour each day we will wait until we are ready to jump in our private car." Assistant Coach Thomas E. May accompanied the team, but he is figuring on witnessing the University of Michigan-Syracuse University match at Ann Arbor, Mich., on the same day the Aggies will be defending the honor of the West on the football field. The Oregon Aggies are scheduled to play Syracuse on Michigan Field on December 1, so a few pointers are needed, says Coach Stewart.

Happy Throng Leaves. A chef, porter and a waiter are included in the private car for the Corvallis contingent, and everything is labeled "atyle." It was a mighty happy bunch that waved a farewell to Portland until a week from Wednesday. That nothing but "speed" will be tolerated by the Oregonians is shown in the fact that Coach Dr. Stewart has made arrangements to come West after the game in 58 hours from Chicago, Ill. The private car will be hooked on the mail special train at Chicago. They will leave Chicago next Sunday night and on the following Wednesday morning a little after 7 o'clock will be in the Union depot in Portland. They have a game with the University of Idaho at Corvallis three days after they return from the Eastern campaign.

Twenty in Party. The party which left last night included Coach Stewart, Assistant Coach and Manager May, Captain Brewer H. Billie, Herman Abraham, Paul "Gloomy Gus" Hofer, Pete Anderson, D. H. "Hungry" Smyth, Francis Yeager, Paul Hoehling, two boys Harry J. Cole, Edward Alworth, Steve Schrier, Martin "Midge" Allen, Lawrence Dutton, Percy Looney, Lee Bissett, Charles Washington, Ed. Lincoln, High and Meier I. "Darkhorse" Newman. Ralph Hoagland, Princeton, will referee, while W. W. Cox, of Ohio State, will be the umpire. The other officials were not made known. Another football team was a Portland visit yesterday. This time it was the University of Oregon squad, under the direction of Coach Bezek and Trainer William L. Hayward. The team left for Walla Walla, Wash., last Saturday.

Academy Squad Out to Win. Again the Eugene Golf Club failed to win from the Waverley Country Club golfers in the return inter-club match held on the Waverley Country Club links yesterday. The Waverley team had little trouble in humbling the representatives from Eugene, the locals winning 71 to 7 by the Nassau scoring system. According to this system one point is given for each nine holes and one point for the match. James Sellers, Jack Caskodden, Hugo Bezek, R. W. Prescott, and Walter McCormack were the only members on the visiting squad that were able to score, while every player on the Waverley team with the exception of Guy Standifer, and J. E. Stephenson scored for the winners. The wind and rain affected the scoring, but R. P. Tisdale led the field with an 87 in the morning and a 79 in the afternoon for a total of 156. Following are the scores made in the match yesterday:

Portland School Plays Columbia University Tomorrow. Columbia University and Portland Academy will send their football teams together on Multnomah Field tomorrow afternoon in their regularly scheduled game of the Portland Intercollegiate League. Strenuous efforts will be made by Coach "Spec" Hurlburt and his assistants to wrest a victory from the college players because they must do so to keep in the running for the title of the circuit at the end of the 1915 season. The next big game of the schedule after the Portland Academy-Columbia University affair tomorrow is the Oregon High-Lincoln High set-off on the following day. Rallies are to be called tomorrow morning and Wednesday morning, and plans have been made to dispose of more than 3000 tickets for the game.

MICHIGAN AGGIES RATED HIGH Halfbacks as Fast as Any Ever Seen on Middle West Fields. CHICAGO, Oct. 24.—Michigan's crushing defeat by the Michigan Aggies furnished the greatest surprise of the football season in the Middle West. The Aggies, who will meet the Oregon State Agricultural College team next Saturday at Lansing, Mich., by their showing proved their claim for an important place in Western football. Their halfbacks are declared to be as fast as any in this part of the country. Results in the conference left Illinois, Minnesota and Wisconsin still the leaders in the race for the championship, with Chicago a "dark horse." SCOVIL, YALE STAR, IS HURT Halfback Stays in Game and Makes Eli's Only Score, With Broken Nose. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 24.—To add to the gloom which has been in evidence in the Yale football camp for some time it was learned tonight that "Mal" Scoville, the backfield star, had suffered a broken nose in the Washington and Jefferson game. He probably will be unable to play any more this season. Scoville's injury came early in the game, but he said nothing of it, and it was not until the second half that his loss is a severe blow, especially as he had taken Legree's place, following the latter's disqualification. Cottage Grove Defeats Shedd. SHEDD, Or., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—The Shedd High School football team met with the second defeat of the season from the Cottage Grove High School Saturday by a score of 16 to 7. W. Cooney, Shedd's quarterback, picked up a fumble and ran 50 yards for a touchdown.

Nujol, a pure, white mineral oil, is the recognized common-sense remedy for constipation. It conforms to the requirements of the well-known Lane treatment. Toomey's and Edwards' Flies Win in Multnomah Club League. The opening games of the house basketball league of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club were played yesterday morning in the club gymnasium. Ray Toomey's aggregation walked on William R. Smyth's representatives, while the other match went to Saturday Edwards and his teammates over Dave Welch's contingent by the score of 19 to 2. But one field basket was made by the Welch team, and that was scored by George Anderson, a substitute. The other point came as a result of a foul. The next games will be played in the club gymnasium next Thursday night.
