Although several people viewed, at the public morgue yesterday, the body of the man found hanging in the men's it rest room of the Plaza Block last week, which was at first believed to be Lloyd. W. Chick, a jewelry salesman, no one has yet been able to identify it. Deputy Coroner Smith said yesterday that efforts would be continued several days longer in an attempt to learn the man's identity.

Following reports that he was dissatisfied with the way in which the Coroner's office had handled the case, Mr. Chick yesterday made the following statement:

"T positively deny that I have made any remarks to newspaper men that I blame the Coroner or any of his deputites for notifying my mother about the report of my death. I also deny any reports of any mistreatment by said deputites when my mother and I arrived at the Coroner's office. And I furthermore assert that I could not ask for any better treatment from the Coroneles, and if he isn't in the water why is the tank full of it when he emerges, smiling and pert?

Girls! Girls! Girls! Seventeen of them are at the Lyric this week in a breezy musical comedy, "The Isle of Joy," presented by Dillon and King. The curtain swings up to the rythm of "Every Little Movement," sung by 14 pretty "middy" girls on board the "Joy ship Plankety Plank," "The Ragtime Sallor's Rag" and the "Sallor's Hornpipe" follow with melody and verse. Frank Harrington is the handsome captain, and Vera Lawrence his attractive wife. The plot centers about the report that two criminals are aboard the ship, and the captain's love affair. One of the most attractive numbers is the pobby little dance by Charlie Riley and Grace Allen.
