Board would be able to stand the ex-pense. The budget provides $12,000 for the building of assembly hall exits and that amount has been named after in-spection trips and conferences between members of the safety first commission and members of the School Board and administrative officers. The Board asked for a report as to the best method of fire protection in those schools that had no direct exits from assembly halls last May and a report, made by Jay Stevens and assistant fire marshals, has resulted in the provision for such protection in the 1916 budget. cause of the absence of United States Attorney Reames, Federal Judge Bean this morning will pronounce sentence on the six officials and salesmen of the United States Cashler Company who were convicted last August of using the mails in furtherance of a fraudulent stock-selling scheme. Time for sentence has been set for 10 o'clock. The convicted men are Frank Mene-fee, president; Oscar A. Campbell, vice-president and director; F. M. Le-Monn, former salesmanager; O. E. Ger-nert, former assistant salesmanager, featuring escape from a Chinese tor-ture cell filled with water and the East Indian needle trick, both of which, says Houdini, are too baffling to invite imi-tation. Houdini opened his week en-gagement at the Orpheum yesterday.
