

SECRETARY M'ADOO IS PORTLAND GUEST

Promise to Consider Duty on Lumber, on His Return to Capital, Is Given.

PARTY WALKS TO HOTEL

Merchant Marine as Auxiliary to Navy Advocated, Seamen's Bill Defended and Proposed Ship Subsidy Is Opposed.

Adequate preparation for National defense—both on land and on the high seas—a naval auxiliary consisting of merchant vessels and merchant marine operated either directly or indirectly by the Federal Government—these were the principles advocated by William G. McAdoo, Secretary of the Treasury, on his visit to Portland yesterday.

Lumber Duty to Be Considered

In response to a suggestion that the proposal that the duty on lumber be restored in an effort to assist the lumber industry of Oregon and Washington, he promised to give the subject consideration.

Party Walks to Hotel

The visitors were greeted at the Union Station by a reception committee from the Portland Chamber of Commerce and the Portland Club.

Cleanse the Blood Banish Rheumatism

Rheumatism Due to Bad Blood. S. S. S. Your Remedy. Thousands have been made well. People in the poorest health, suffering from Rheumatism, with whom pain was constant. Who believed that their vitality was sapped beyond repair. It was proven to them that the cause of their trouble was the blood; that Uric Acid, the most faithful ally of Rheumatism, had gripped them. The poison in the blood had sapped its strength. The weakened blood had allowed poisons and impurities to accumulate, and all energy was gone.
